The London Gazette

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JUNE 24, 1842.

E. the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, E.

WHEREAS We have thought fit to order, that certain pieces of copper money should be coined, which should be called "half farthings," every such piece having for the obverse impression Our effigy, with the inscription, "Victoria D.G. Britannia, Regina F.D.," and for the reverse the words "half farthing," with the date of the year, surrounded by the royal crown, and below the united emblem of the rose, thistle, and shamrock: and whereas pieces of the copper money of the [illegible] aforesaid have been coined at Our Mint, [illegible] be coined there: We have therefore, with the advice of Our Privy Council, thought fit to [illegible] this Proclamation; and We do hereby declare, [illegible] and command that all pieces of copper [illegible] coined and to be coined as aforesaid, [illegible] be current and lawful money of the kingdom [illegible] Britain and Ireland, and shall pass and be [illegible] as current and lawful money of the said [illegible], every such half farthing piece as of the [illegible] of half a farthing of like lawful money [illegible] that no person shall be obliged to take [illegible] of such pieces in any one payment than shall [illegible] of the value of [illegible]

[illegible] Court of [illegible] this [illegible] day of June, in the [illegible] Our [illegible] Lord one thousand eight hundred and [illegible] two, and in the fifth year of Our [illegible]

GOD save the QUEEN.

[The following Order in Council has been [illegible] substituted for the Order published [illegible] of the 7th instant.]

AT the Court at Buckingham [illegible] the [illegible] day of June 1842.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most E. cell at Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty, [illegible] deem of expedient to appoint the [illegible] Toronto, in the province of Canada, and also the port of Hamilton, in the said province, situate at or near the [illegible] Ontario, to be free warehousing [illegible] purposes of an Act, passed in the [illegible] of Parliament held in the [illegible] and fourth years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad:"

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities in Her Majesty by the said Act in that behalf vested, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Council, doth order, [illegible] that the port of Toronto and Hamilton shall, from and after the first day