Brussels, November 13. The Treaty for settling the Limits in the Netherlands, is finally concluded between the Commissioners who met for that purpose at Lisle, and they have sent the same to their respective Masters to be Ratified; In the mean time the Spanish Commissioners are come hither, and intend, as soon as they have received the Ratifications from Spain, to return to Lisle to exchange them with those of France. Don Quiros the Spanish Ambassador is shortly expected here from the Hague. Some new Works are making at Ostend for the Improvement of that Port, which is done at the Charge of the County of Flanders, the States having granted a Fund for that purpose.

Hague, November 13. Monsieur de Cramenburgh is appointed by the States-General to go with the Character of their Envoy Extraordinary and make their Compliment to the King of Denmark on his Accession to the Crown, and he is on his departure for Denmark. The Deputies whom the States of Groningben, sent hither some time ago to confer with the States-General upon several matters relating to that Province, are returned home, having performed their Commission. Monsieur Dyckveit is gone to Utrecht, to be present at the Assembly of the States of that Province, who are shortly to meet there. The Heer Cortenhoep Treasurer-General of the United Provinces, died here this week.

Paris, Nov. 14. N. S The Court returns this evening from Marly to Versailles, and the Duke and Dutchess of Orleans are gone to meet the King at his Arrival there, but will come back on the 19th Instant to their Palace in this City to receive the Duke and Dutchess of Lorrain, who are expected the 20th. The Earl of Manchester, Ambassador Extraordinary from His Majesty of Great-Britain, is to make his Publick Entry to morrow; The Mareschal de Villery is appointed to receive and conduct his Excellency on this occasion, and the Chevalier de Lorrain, a Prince of the Family of Lorrain, is to introduce him at his Audience. The King has lately given the Bishoprick of Luzon to the Abbot of Lejeure. It's said, an Edict will shortly be published, for laying a Tax on Chimneys throughout this Kingdom. Our last Letters from Strasbourg give an Account, that the Commissioners appointed by the Most Christian King to treat at Francfort with the Commissioners from the Emperor and the Elector Palatine, had given a Paper containing the Demands of the Dutchess of Orleans on the Palatinate, to which they expected an Answer from the Palatine Commissioner. The building of the Town of New Brisac, is continued by the French with great Application. They have not yet evacuated the City of Brisac on the other side the Rhine, by reason the demolishing of the Bridge of that Place is not finished, tho at the Emperor's Desire one of his own Engineers is present, to give Directions for hastening that Work.

Deal, November 7. The Hopewell, Capt. Dighton Commander, arrived here this morning from the Barbadoes. There are now about 50 Sail of outward-bound Merchant Ships in the Downs, who will proceed with the first fair Wind.

Rotterdam, November 6. The General Assembly of Pensylvania have made an humble Address to His Majesty, wherein they return most Dutiful Thanks to His Majesty for all his Royal Favours to their Colony, and in particular for his having appointed the Earl of Bellomont to be their Governor, and to assure His Majesty of their constant Loyalty and Affection to His Royal Person and Government; which was presented to His Majesty by Sir Henry Ashurst Baronet, being introduced by the Rt. Honourable my Lord Chancellor; And His Majesty received it very graciously.
