Whereas it hath been represented unto his Royal Highness, Lord High Admiral of England, That several Ships of Her Majesty's Subjects fitted out as Privateers, and others with Letters of Marque, do put in at the Port of Argiers, and that for want of Passes, according to the Treaty between Her Majesty and that Government, they may run great hazard of being Seized and Confiscated: His Royal Highness does therefore give Notice, That when any Ships do hereafter take out Commissions for Privateers, or Letters of Marque, it is absolutely necessary that they, as well as all other Merchant Ships or Vessels, which may come in the way of those of Argier, do furnish themselves at this Office with the usual Passes, to prevent any Prejudice that may otherwise happen to them.
