at their session, which will be held in the month of July 1816, there to render in their claims, to maintain the same, and to hear the objections made thereunto, if need, and further to proceed according to law.

This summons by edict published as customary.—Berbice, 15th February 1816. K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

TO be sold by public auction, by Mr. Joseph Ransford, at the New Inn, at Bourton on the Water, Gloucestershire, on Friday the 31st instant, between the hours of Three and Five in the Afternoon, in eight lots, Sundry freehold houses and pieces of land, in the Village of Bourton aforesaid, standing in a rich and fertile vale, four miles from Stow, five from Northleach, eight from Burford, and fifteen from Cheltenham.—The premises are sold by direction of the Assignees and Mortgagees of Mr. Samuel Palmer, a Bankrupt, and printed particulars may be had of Mr. Wilkins, Solicitor, Bourton on the Water; at the Unicorn Inn, Stow; King's-Head Inn, Northleach; Plough Inn, Cheltenham; and the other principal Inns in the neighbourhood of Bourton; and of Mr. Russell, Solicitor, Lant-Street, Southwark, London.

TO be peremptorily sold by auction, in one lot, by order of the Assignees of James Tappenden the elder, a Bankrupt, and with the concurrence of the mortgagees, on Thursday the 6th day of June 1816, at Twelve o'Clock, at the Ship Inn, in the Town of Faversham, in the County of Kent;

Five pieces or parcels of freehold fresh marsh-land, lying and being in the Parish of Teynham, in the said County of Kent, containing by estimation forty acres, more or less, and now in the occupation of Mr. Richard Amos, or his under-tenants.

This estate is exonerated from the land-tax, is subject to a modus of four pence only per acre, in lieu of tythes, and the sects and parochial taxes are unusually moderate.

For further particulars inquire of Mr. Shepherd, Faversham, Solicitor to the Assignees; of Mr. Octavius Tappenden, Solicitor, Faversham; or of Mr. Waterman, Solicitor, Tenterden.

GLOUCESTERSHIRE.

Capital Freehold Cloth-Mill, Cottages, and Land, in the Vale of Woodchester.

TO be sold by auction, by Charles Halliday, at the Fleece Inn, at Rodborough, in the said County, on Wednesday the 10th day of July next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, subject to such conditions as will be then and there produced;

An eligible freehold estate, comprising a messuage and valuable cloth-mill, with stocks and gigg-mills, well supplied with water, and allowed to be, for its extent of fall and capability, equal, if not superior, to any cloth-mill in Gloucestershire, with workshops and other buildings near or adjoining thereto.

Also several cottages, and about eight acres, more or less, of rich pasture land, adjoining and lying near the said mill and premises.

The above estate is situate in the Vale of Woodchester, in Gloucestershire, and called New-Mills.

The mill and buildings have been, within a few years, erected, and partly new built, at a considerable expence, and are in a complete state of repair, and now in the occupation of Messrs. John and Joseph Cooper.

The turnpike road from Bath to Cheltenham is within about one hundred yards of these premises; and the whole forms a most desirable estate for a person wishing to carry on an extensive clothing manufacture.

For a view of the premises apply at Dunkirk-House, in the parish of Minchinhampton, in Gloucestershire; and for further particulars either to Messrs. Coopers, at Dunkirk-House aforesaid; to Mr. Hort, at Mugmoor, near Minchinhampton; or to Mr. Wathen, Solicitor, Stroud, Gloucestershire.

TO be sold, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against George Parker, late of Bawdrip, in the County of Somerset, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, at the George Inn, in Bridgewater, in the County of Somerset, on Monday the 17th day of June next, between the hours of Five and Six in the Afternoon, subject to such conditions as shall then be produced;

A freehold messuage or dwelling house, situate on the Quay, in Bridgewater, aforesaid, late in the occupation of Mr. James Corfield, Coal-Merchant.

For further particulars apply to Mr. Trevor, Solicitor, Bridgewater.

PORTSEA, HANTS.

TO be sold to the highest bidders, pursuant to an order of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer, made in the cause of the King against James Bailey, before Abel Mosley, Esq. the Deputy-Remembrancer of the said Court;

A freehold dwelling-house, with stabling, and a covered coal-yard adjoining, situate in Mills-Street, Portsea, in the County of Hants, late in the occupation of Mr. James Bailey; and a newly erected freehold dwelling-house, in Trafalgar-Place, Portsea, late in the occupation of Mr. Ives; which premises were lately seized into His Majesty's hands under a writ of extent against the said James Bailey.

WHereas by an Order of the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, made in the matter of Mary Sandys, Spinster, a lunatic, lately deceased, dated the 7th day of March 1816, it was referred to Robert Steele, Esq. one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, to inquire and certify who was or were the next of kin of the said Mary Sandys, the lunatic, at the time of her death.—All persons therefore claiming to be such next of kin of the said Mary Sandys, deceased, (who died in the month of January 1816, and lately resided in Upper Seymour-Street, Portman-Square, London, and was the daughter of Windsor Sandys, late of Great James-Street, in the County of Middlesex, Esq. deceased, and sister to Samuel Sandys, Esq. and Ann Sandys, late of Miserden-Park, in the County of Gloucester, deceased), are to come in and make out and establish their kindred before the said Master Steele, at his Chambers in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 1st day of July now next ensuing, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

WHereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Jamieson versus Mackintosh, it was amongst other things ordered that it should be referred to James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire who were the next of kin of Ann Mackleraith, late of Brompton, in the Parish of Gillingham, and County of Kent, widow, deceased (the testatrix therein named, living at the time of her death, which happened in the month of November 1806), and if any of such next of kin were dead, when they died, and who were their personal representative. The person or persons claiming to be such next of kin, or the personal representatives of such of them as may have departed this life since the said testatrix, are, on or before the 29th day of June 1816, to come in and make out such kindred and affinity to the said Ann Mackleraith, before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London.

PUrsuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Jamieson against Mackintosh, the Creditors of Ann Mackleraith, late of Brompton, in the Parish of Gillingham, in the County of Kent, widow, deceased (who died in the month of November 1806), are, on or before the 29th day of June 1816, to come in and prove their debts before James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PUrsuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in the Causes Legate against Vernon and Goodaire against Trigge, the Creditors of William Vernon the younger, late of Weedon-Beck, in the County of Northampton, Builder, deceased (who died in or about the month of June 1809), are to come in and prove their debts before Robert Steele, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 1st day of July 1816, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PUrsuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause of Freeland against Chambers, the Creditors of Richard Miles the Elder, late of Deal, in the County of Kent, Baker, (who died on the 25th of October 1810), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Francis
