Falmouth, Sept. 23. His Majesty's Ships he Joseph and Jolly-Prize, appeared Yesterday off this Harbour, with about 80 Sail, who were joined by above 20 Sail more from hence, being all bound for St. George's Channel. This Day came in a Danish Ship called the St. John, laden with Deals.

Plimouth, Sept. 24. This Day arrived here His Majesty's Ships, the Advice and Roebuck, from Ireland; as also a Dutch Vessel called the Stockfish, from Ireland bound to Ostend.

Yarmouth, Sept. 25. Yesterday came into this Road His Majesty's Ship the Solebay, and this Day the Saphire, Roe-Ketch and Milford. Our Herring Fishery goes on very well.

Yarmouth, Sept. 27. Yesterday came hither Captain Anderson of London, who on Sunday last, sailed out of the River Elbe, with several other Merchant Ships bound to London; but being separated from them, his Ship unhappily struck upon a Sand near this Coast, where she is lost, but the Men all saved, being taken up by one of our Herring Fishers. This Afternoon passed through this Road a Fleet of about 150 laden Colliers with their Convoy.

Deale, September 27. On the 25th Instant arrived in the Downes a Squadron of English Men of War with the Turkey and other Merchant Ships from Cadiz, and this day they all sailed again for the River.

London, Sept. 28. This Morning Edward Wills and Owen Buckingham, Esquires, appeared at the Guildhall before the Lord Mayor and Aldermen upon the Hustings, in the Presence of a full Common Hall, and having taken the usual Oaths, as Sheriffs of London and Middlesex, entred upon their Office; after which the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens went to St. Lawrence Church and heard a Sermon, and thence returned to the Guildhall to Elect a Lord Mayor for the ensuing Year; and the Lord Mayor and Aldermen being seated upon the Hustings, Mr Recorder made a very acceptable Speech to the Common Hall suitable to the Occasion, whereupon they proceeded to Election, and did unanimously return Sir John Houblon, and Sir Edward Clarke, Knights and Aldermen Elected; and upon a Scrutiny in the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, the Election fell upon Sir John Houblon, who upon the Hustings, made a Speech to the Common-Hall full of Expressions of Loyalty and Duty to His Majesty and His Government, and Zeal and Affection to the City; and the present Lord Mayor made afterwards a Speech to the same Effect; both which were received with the Acclamations of the Citizens there present. And then they all departed, and the new Sheriffs gave a noble Entertainment at Drapers-Hall.

The Mails from Holland, of Tuesday and Friday last, are not yet come in.

This is to give Notice, That the Lords and other the Commissioners for Greenwich Hospital, have appointed to meet on Wednesday weekly, at Four a Clock in the afternoon at the Guildhall, London.

Captain Tobias Bourke, alias Leroy, an Irishman, Convicted for being a French Spy, middle sized, aged about 26, wears his own Hair, dark ish and frizled, a middling Face, brownish Complexion, a blemish in one of his Eyes, both of them inclining to be sore, and may soon be discovered by his Speech; made his escape on Thursday night from the Gate-House Prison, Westminster. Whoever gives notice to the Keeper of the said Prison, so that he may be secured, shall immediately receive a Reward of 50 l. from the said Keeper.

Advertisements.

 An English Ballad; in Answer to Mr Desporeaux's Pindarique Ode on the Tasteful Nature. Printed for Jacob Tonson, at the judge's Head near the Inner Temple Gate in Fleet-street.

☞ Whereas James North, a Tripe Man, was on Saturday the 22th Instant, at the close of the day assaulted and barbarously murdered at Park-wall near Pimlico house, in his return on Horse-back from Chelsea and other Places, where he had been a Marketing; there being sufficient Reason to believe that the said Bloody Fact was done by Accomplices and Combinators, and that the same may come to light, Mary Moore of St. Peters-street, Westminster Sister to the deceased, promises to give a good Reward to any Person that shall discover any one concern'd in this horrid Murder, Thus he or they be Convicted for the same. Nightingale Mansfield, an ancient and eminent Nursery-man and Gardener, and 40 Years Practitioner, who undertaketh to make all sort of Gardens after the newest and best Fashion, either in Embroidery work in Greats or Gravel; Planteth Orchards, Vineyards, sets all sorts of Beauty-Flowers of the best sort, with all sorts of Greens, as Orange-trees and all sorts of Flowers, Trees and Flowering Shrubs, or any sorts of ready Greens or Plants, fit for Gardens or Wilderness; lives at Brompton near Knightsbridge, Middlesex.

STolen from a Person of Quality, a large gold Buckle set with Turkey-stones, 2 gold Watches in Shagreen Cases, the one studded with Gold, a Gold Seal to it with the Arms, 4 Lions Rampant, 3 Escollop Shells in Chief, the Chains both Princes Metal; one Watch was made by Tho. Tompion, the other by Lounds in Pall-mall: Whoever gives notice of these things to Mr John Deacon, at the 3 Kings in Kingstreet by Guildhall, London, shall have 5 l. Reward and Charges, or proportionable for any part of them.

A Silver Tobacco Box supposed to be taken out of some Gentleman's Pocket, may now be heard of at Maul's Coffee House within Newgate, and will be restored to the Party that shall give sufficient Proof of his being the Owner thereof, upon paying the Charges.

LOst from behind Bristol Stage-Coach, between Colebrook and Charing-Cross, the 24th Instant, a brown Box with wearing Cloaths in it, and a Certificate from the Mayor of Bristol; also a Bill upon Mr Gough, payable unto Mrs Mary Court; whoever gives notice to Mr Gough at the White Cock in Bread-street, or to Mr Horn's at the 3 Pidgeons in Creed-lane near Ludgate, shall have 10 s. Reward.

THE Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against John Heardson, late of London, Apothecary, intend to meet at the George and Vulture Tavern on Ludgate-Hill, London, the 4th day of October next, at 2 in the Afternoon, in order to make a Dividend of his Estate; and all Creditors concerned are to come prepared to prove their Debts, and pay Contribution, otherwise they will be excluded.

LOst from Mr John Baker of Nailsworth in Gloucester-shire, the 14th Instant, a bay Mare about 15 hands, with some white on the crease near the Shoulders, and a white Spot on the near Hoof behind: Whoever gives notice of her to Mr John Baker aforesaid, or to Mr John Ball, Blackwell-Hall Factor, in Bazinghall-street, London, shall have a Guinea Reward and Charges.

STolen the 22d Instant, a brown bay Gelding, 15 hands high, full aged, no white about him except some Saddle spots, with a hunting cut Tail, Paces and Gallops, Trots not at all, a little sickle Ham'd, from Mr Joseph French, at Tunbridge Wells: Whoever secures him, so as he may be recovered again, and gives notice to Mr French aforesaid, or to Mr Tho. Bakewell, at the Black Horse at Charing-Cross, shall have 2 Guineas Reward and Charges.

A good house a days journey from London, with a Garden and keeping for a Cow and a horse, a Stable, and all other Conveniencies, is to be Let. Enquire of Mr. Leigh at the Bull-head in Covent-Garden.

AT Hide-Park Corner there is to be Let several Houses, with large Yards, Cow-houses, Stables, and other Conveniencies, by Lease or otherwise; enquire there at the Golden Lyon of Marlen, or of Mr Cumbridge, at the Porcupine in Newport street near Long Acre, London.

Printed by Edw. Jones in the Savoy, 1695.