Mastricht, August 23. The Province of Luxemburg, and part of the Spanish Brabant, and of the Country which lies between the Sambre and the Maese, have sent Deputies hither, to agree with the Commissaries of the States-General, about the Contributions demanded of them. Captain de la Motte, Commander of an Independant Company in Garrison here, made an Excursion lately into Brabant, and having ventur'd a little too far, did in his return fall into an Ambush of 500 Boors, who routed his Party, and having wounded him took him Prisoner, and sent him to Brussels, but being threatned with Military Execution, they have promised to pay his Ransome. Another Party from hence having likewise made an Excursion into the Enemy's Country, has put several Villages under Contribution, and has brought home Hostages for the Payment thereof, and many Prisoners, particularly a rich Merchant of Brussels, besides 70 Horses, and other Booty We have an Account, that the Count de Clermont, who was lately apprehended at Brussels upon suspicion of being disaffected to the French, is carried Prisoner to the Castle of Antwerp, where he meets with very hard usage, and that several of his Servants are also imprisoned, and all his Papers seized, tho' as yet there appears nothing against him.

Dublin, August 15. Colonel Stringer's and Colonel Farringdon's Regiments of Foot are just now arrived here from England.

Pembroke, August 21. Her Majesty's Ship the Hastings, Capt. Cullyford Commander, came in here the 19th Instant with about 60 Sail of laden Colliers, and several Vessels from Bristol under his Convoy, who was joined by Her Majesty's Ship the Dolphin, Capt. Seanes Commander, with the like number of Merchant Men bound about Land. The same day passed by here Her Majesty's Ships the Shoram and Arundel, with about 70 Ships under their Convoy for Ireland, several of them Transport Ships, having on board my Lord Mohun and Sir Richard Temple's Regiments of Foot.

Falmouth, August 22. A Dutch Privateer came in here the 19th Instant, who on the 14th took a French Ship of about 200 Tuns from Marseilles, laden with Merchants Goods to a very considerable value. Yesterday came in from cruizing on the French Coast another Dutch Privateer called The Britannia of Flushing, who lately retook two English Ships, but was separated from them in bad weather. It is reported, that Her Majesty's Ship the Russell has taken a French Man of War of 40 Guns.

Plimouth, August 23. Her Majesty's Ships the Nassau and Dragon came in here two days ago; the first with a French Merchant Ship of 150 Tuns, 11 Guns, and 6 Patereroes, which she took coming from St. Domingo in Hispaniola, laden with Sugar, Cotton, and Indigo; and the other with another French Prize of about 90 Tuns, bound to Nants with Fish from Newfoundland.

Cowes, August 22. Her Majesty's Ship the Bonaventure, Captain Grantham Commander, sailed from hence yesterday with several outward-bound Merchant Ships under his Convoy.

Deale, August 25. Her Majesty's Ships the Rochester and Margate sailed from the Downes this day, in order to join the Squadron before Dunkirk; Her Majesty's Ship the Sheerness sailed at the same time to the Westward.

Windsor, August 26. This morning Her Majesty and his Royal Highness Prince George of Denmark went from hence, intending to lie at Christ-Church in Oxford, and having been pleased to accept of an Invitation from the University, will dine with them to morrow, and intend to proceed from thence to Cirencester, and the next day to the Bath.
