

mills, to be invested and held by him and his successors in perpetuity in Trust, to apply the income arising from the investment of said sum in having her family tomb painted every second year, and keeping same in proper repair. In case there should be any surplus of said income remaining after paying for such painting and repair, she directed that same should from time to time be paid to the Church of Ireland Jewish Missionary Society. Testatrix bequeathed all the residue of the money realised by the sale of the residue of her property and any ready money she might be possessed of after payment of her just debts and funeral and testamentary expenses to the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, the receipt of the Secretary of the Society for the time being to be a sufficient discharge therefor. And Testatrix appointed John Colquhoun Crossle, of Anahoe, Ballygawley, in the County of Tyrone, Solicitor, sole Executor and Trustee of her Will, and Testatrix died on the 5th day of February, 1923, and Probate of said Will was granted to the said Executor forth of the District Registry at Londonderry, King's Bench Division (Probate) of the High Court of Justice in Northern Ireland, on the 21st day of June, 1923.

Dated this 25th day of July, 1923.
