BY THE KING
A PROCLAMATION

FOR CALLING OUT THE OFFICERS OF THE RETIRED AND EMERGENCY LISTS OF THE ROYAL NAVY AND ROYAL MARINES

GEORGE R.

Whereas by Order in Council dated the twenty-first day of March, 1924, it is provided that the Officers of the Retired and Emergency Lists of the Royal Navy and Royal Marines, and the Special Reserve of Engineer Officers of the Royal Navy, shall be called out for actual service in a time of war or emergency by Royal Proclamation directing the said Officers to hold themselves in readiness for actual service, and authorising the Admiralty to employ all or any of the Officers so called out as they may think fit:

And Whereas a case of emergency has arisen:

We do hereby order and direct that Officers of the Retired and Emergency Lists of the Royal Navy and Royal Marines do hold themselves in readiness for actual service, and do hereby authorise the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to employ all or any of the said Officers as they think fit.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this Twenty-eighth day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and fifty, and in the Fourteenth year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING

BY THE KING
A PROCLAMATION

FOR EXTENDING THE SERVICES OF TIME-EXPIRED MEN IN THE ROYAL NAVY

GEORGE R.

Whereas by the ninth section of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the 16th and 17th years of the Reign of Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make better provision concerning the entry and service of seamen, and otherwise to amend the laws concerning Her Majesty's Navy", it is enacted that in case We shall by Proclamation call upon the seamen, or any class or classes serving in Our Navy, or such of them as may be required so to do, to extend the term of their services, any seaman to whom such Proclamation shall extend, and whose term of service shall have expired at the date of such Proclamation, or may expire while such Proclamation shall continue in force, may be required to serve for such further period as is mentioned in the said section from the expiration of such term, if his services be so long required, and shall be liable to serve accordingly:

And Whereas We, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, deem it expedient to extend the service of all classes of men now serving in Our Navy whose term of service may have expired, or may expire while this Proclamation shall continue in force:

We, by and with the advice aforesaid, do hereby call upon all classes of men now serving in Our Navy whose terms of service may have expired, or may expire while this Proclamation shall continue in force, to extend their respective terms of service as may be required under the said section.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this Twenty-eighth day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and fifty, and in the Fourteenth year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING

BY THE KING
A PROCLAMATION

FOR EXTENDING THE SERVICES OF TIME-EXPIRED MEN IN THE ROYAL MARINE FORCES

GEORGE R.

Whereas by the Royal Marines Act, 1939, We may by Proclamation call upon marines serving in the Royal Marine Forces to extend the term of their services for such period as is mentioned in the said Act:

And Whereas We deem it expedient that the power vested in Us by the said Act should be exercised as is hereinafter provided:

Now, therefore, We, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby call upon all marines now serving in the Royal Marine Forces to extend the term of their service for such period as is mentioned in the said Act.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this Twenty-eighth day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and fifty, and in the Fourteenth year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING

AT THE COURT OF BUCKINGHAM PALACE
The 28th day of July, 1950

Present

THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY IN COUNCIL

Whereas by the fourth section of the Royal Naval Reserve (Volunteer) Act, 1859, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, on such occasions as He shall deem fit (the occasion being first communicated to Parliament, if Parliament be sitting, or declared in Council and notified by Proclamation, if Parliament be not sitting or in being) to order and direct that the volunteers under that Act, or so many or such part of them as He may deem necessary, shall be called into actual service:

And Whereas by the Royal Naval Reserve Volunteer Act, 1896, as amended by the Royal Naval Reserve Act, 1902, it is enacted that the power under the said Act of 1859 to raise and pay volunteers may be exercised outside the British Islands in respect of British subjects:

And Whereas by the Naval Reserve Act, 1900, the Admiralty are authorised to raise and keep up a new division, commonly known as the Royal Fleet Reserve, of the force raised under the said first recited Act in addition to the men raised under that Act, and such new division is liable to be called out as part of the Royal Naval Reserve under the said fourth section of the said Act of 1859:

And Whereas by the first section of the Naval Reserve (Mobilisation) Act, 1900, amending the said Act of 1859, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, where He orders and directs that volunteers under that Act shall be called into actual service, to authorize the Admiralty to give and, when given, to revoke or vary, such directions as may seem necessary or proper for calling out all or any of the said volunteers as the occasion may require:

And Whereas Parliament has been informed that owing to the state of public affairs, and the demands upon the Naval Forces, an occasion has arisen for ordering and directing the Royal Fleet Reserve to be called into actual service:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order and direct that the said volunteers be called into actual service.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are hereby authorized to give, and when given, to revoke or vary, such directions as may seem necessary or proper for calling out all or any of the said volunteers as the occasion may require.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed as in any way affecting the liability of any person to be recalled, or to be required to re-enter, into actual service in pursuance of the provisions of the Naval and Marine Forces (Temporary Release from Service) Act, 1940, or the Naval Forces (Extension of Service) Act, 1944.

W. D. Scott, Secretary.

*NOTE.—The Residuary Share of Reserved Taxes is the net receipt after deduction of the following:—(a) the estimated cost of Reserved Services; (b) the Northern Ireland Contribution towards Imperial Expenditure; (c) New Land Purchase Annuities (Imperial) and (d) Local Loans Repayments (Imperial). It is paid over by the United Kingdom Treasury in instalments based on an estimate for the financial year and an adjustment is made when the true Residuary Share has been finally ascertained. The figure for "Revenue—Reserved" therefore includes net (not gross) revenue received.

OPEN COMPETITION FOR THE SITUATION OF ORDNANCE SURVEY ASSISTANT GRADE III IN THE CIVIL SERVICE OF NORTHERN IRELAND

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that an Open Competition under the normal Regulations for the situation of Ordnance Survey Assistant Grade III will not be held this year.

Notice is given that an Open Competition for the above-named situation will be held during October, 1950, and the following special Regulations, which apply only to that competition, are published with the approval of the Ministry of Finance for Northern Ireland.

1. AGE

Candidates must be of or over the age of 19 and under the age of 30 on the 1st September, 1950.

Candidates may, however, deduct from their ages for the purpose of bringing them within the prescribed upper limit:—

- (a) any time served in the Royal Navy, the Army or the Royal Air Force;
- (b) any time, not exceeding two years, served in an established situation in the Civil Service of Northern Ireland.

2. SEX

Only male candidates may compete under these Regulations.

3. NATIONALITY

Candidates must be either natural born or naturalised British subjects and must satisfy the Commissioners that they are ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom.

NOTE—Candidates will be regarded as ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom if they can satisfy the Commissioners that they are domiciled therein or that since the 3rd September, 1939, their normal place of residence has been within the United Kingdom. A period of absence from the United Kingdom on National Service will not in itself prevent a candidate from being regarded as normally resident in the United Kingdom for this purpose.

4. HEALTH AND CHARACTER

Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners as to their health and character. The cost of medical examination will be borne by the Commissioners.

NOTE—All persons before being appointed to an established situation in the Civil Service of Northern Ireland are required to undergo a strict medical examination supplemented, when necessary, by an examination by a specialist. The object of the examination is to ascertain whether candidates are physically fit to perform the duties of the post and are likely to render continuous effective service until they attain the normal age for retiring on pension. Each case is considered on its merits and the Commissioners are not prepared to give prospective decisions on individual cases or to afford further information on the subject other than to point out that constitutional delicacy, poor physique, diseases of the heart and lungs, defective vision and hearing and persistent albuminuria may be causes for the rejection of a candidate. The Commissioners are empowered under certain conditions to modify the usual standard of physical fitness in favour of persons whose health has been impaired by service in H.M. Forces during war, or who have sustained a war service injury. Where a successful candidate fails on ground of health to satisfy the Commissioners that he is suitable for appointment to an established situation, the Commissioners may, if they consider that he is capable of performing the duties of the post satisfactorily for a reasonable period, offer him the option of an appointment on the conditions applicable to established officers, save in respect of sick leave and superannuation. Candidates appointed on these terms may later secure full establishment if their health record proves satisfactory. Further particulars may be obtained on application to the Commissioners.

5. SUBJECTS OF EXAMINATION

The Competition consists of:—

PART I—A written qualifying test consisting of papers in English, Elementary Mathematics and Drawing.

PART II—Interview.

CANDIDATES WHO PASS THE QUALIFYING TEST will be summoned for interview by the Selection Board and the final order of merit will be determined by the mark awarded at the interview.

The Selection Board will take into account the candidate's record, his intelligence and personal qualities.

The number of vacancies to be filled will be decided by the Civil Service Commissioners and the Ministry of Finance.

6. CANDIDATES TRAINED AS TEACHERS

Candidates upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the Ministry of Finance has been notified to the Commissioners.

7. FEES

A fee of 5s. is payable by each candidate. This must be sent with the application form and is not returnable.

8. TRAVELLING EXPENSES

Where the cost of travel at the lowest rate from any part of the United Kingdom to the Examination centre exceeds £1, the amount of the excess will be refunded to the candidate.

9. GENERAL

A candidate may be required to serve in any part of Northern Ireland.

No person who is undergoing a course of study with the aid of a grant from public funds shall be eligible to compete before the completion of the course, unless he has previously obtained permission to do so from the authority which administers the grant.

No person will be admitted to the competition from whom the Commissioners have not received, on or before the 13th September, 1950, an application in the candidate's own handwriting on the prescribed form which can be obtained from the Secretary.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment.
