3.—The appointed member shall be an independent person appointed by the Ministry, and shall be ex officio Chairman of the Trade Board.

4.—The representative members shall be appointed by the Ministry and shall consist of members representing employers and members representing workers in equal proportions, and in making such appointments the Ministry shall pay due regard to the representation of the various branches of the trade, and of the various districts in which the trade is carried on, and shall include one or more representatives of outworkers if a considerable proportion of outworkers is engaged in the trade.

5.—The Ministry may, if the Ministry thinks it necessary in order to secure proper representation of any class or classes of employers or workers, after giving the Trade Board an opportunity to be heard, appoint additional representative members to serve upon the Trade Board. The number of such additional representative members shall always be an even number, not exceeding 4 in all. Half shall be representatives of employers and half shall be representatives of workers.

6.—Any member representing employers who ceases to be an employer and becomes a worker at the trade shall vacate his seat. Any member representing workers who becomes an employer in the trade shall vacate his seat. Whether a member representing employers or workers has vacated his seat under this clause shall be determined by the Ministry.

7.—Any member who, in the opinion of the Ministry, fails without reasonable cause to attend one-half of the total number of meetings in a calendar year shall vacate his seat.

8.—If, in the opinion of the Ministry, any member shall be incapable of acting as a member of the Trade Board, the Ministry may determine his appointment, and he shall thereupon vacate his seat.

9.—If the Ministry is of opinion that any member of a Trade Board has acted in a manner prejudicial to the proper conduct of the business of the Board and that he is no longer fitted to be a member of the Board, the Ministry may determine his appointment and he shall thereupon vacate his seat.

10.—The term of office of a member of the Trade Board shall be for a period of not less than one year nor more than two years as may be determined by the Ministry, provided that—

- (a) the term of office of all members shall expire on the same date.
- (b) a member appointed to fill a casual vacancy shall sit for the unexpired portion of the term of office of his predecessor; and
- (c) a seat rendered vacant by effluxion of time shall be temporarily occupied by the retiring member until a successor is appointed.

11.—Any person vacating his seat on the Trade Board under any of the preceding paragraphs or for any other reason shall be eligible for reappointment as a member of the Trade Board; and a chairman vacating his office under any of the preceding paragraphs, or for any other reason shall be eligible for reappointment.

12.—If the chairman is temporarily unable through illness or any other cause to attend meetings of the Board, the Ministry may appoint a chairman to preside at such meetings as the Ministry may determine.

13.—A vacancy among members, whether arising from any cause hereinbefore mentioned or from death or from any other cause, shall be filled in the same manner as in the case of the original appointment to the vacant seat, unless the Ministry otherwise determine.

14.—Every representative member of the Trade Board shall have one vote. If at any meeting of the Board the numbers of members present representing employers and workers, respectively, are unequal, and the members have not agreed to vote by sides, it shall be open to the side which is in the majority to arrange that one or more of its members shall refrain from voting, so as to preserve equality. Failing such an arrangement, the chairman may, if he thinks it desirable, adjourn the voting on any question to another meeting of the Board.

15.—The chairman shall have one vote only which shall be in the nature of a casting vote and shall be exercised, at his discretion, only when the other votes are equally divided.

16.—The Trade Board shall continue in existence until dissolved by order of the Ministry.

17.—The Trade Board may be known under the short title of "The Laundry Trade Board (Northern Ireland)."

18.—Any question upon the construction or interpretation of these Regulations shall, in the event of dispute, be referred to the Ministry for decision.

19.—The Regulations, dated 2nd January, 1922, made by the Minister of Labour for Northern Ireland under the Trade Boards Act, 1909, with respect to the Constitution and Proceedings of the Trade Board for the Laundry Trade (Northern Ireland), are hereby revoked; provided that nothing in these Regulations shall affect the validity of any proceedings of the Trade Board established under the said Regulations of the 2nd January, 1922.

20.—These Regulations may be cited as the Trade Boards (Laundry Trade, Northern Ireland) (Constitution, Proceedings and Meetings) Regulations, 1924.
