CONSTABULARY ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1922.

THE ULSTER SPECIAL CONSTABULARY PENSIONS (AMENDING) ORDER, 1924.

Dated, 2nd December, 1924.

WHEREAS by the Special Constables Act, 1914, as adapted by Article 5 (3) of the Government of Ireland (Adaptation of Enactments) No. 1 Order, 1922, and as extended and amended by Section 8 of the Constabulary Act (Northern Ireland), 1922, power is conferred on the Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland, to make regulations with respect to the appointment and position of Special Constables in Northern Ireland:

Now therefore, I, The Right Honourable Sir Richard Dawson Bates, Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland, do hereby Order that Articles 7 and 19 of the Ulster Special Constabulary Pensions Order, 1924, and Article 7 of the First Schedule thereto be cancelled and that the Articles subjoined hereto be substituted in lieu thereof:

This Order may be cited as the Ulster Special Constabulary Pensions (Amending) Order, 1924, and shall be construed as one with the Ulster Special Constabulary Pensions Order, 1924, and shall have effect and shall be deemed to have had effect from the date of that Order:

Scales of Pensions, Allowances and Gratuities.

1. The pensions, allowances and gratuities payable under this Order shall be awarded by the Ministry with the consent of the Ministry of Finance and shall be in accordance with the scales and provisions in the First Schedule hereto, and the general rules contained in Part III. of that Schedule shall apply to such pensions, allowances and gratuities.

Provided that where a member of the force, or any widow, child or dependant of a member of the force receives any compensation in respect of the injury or death of the member, whether awarded under the Criminal Injuries (Ireland) Acts or awarded or paid otherwise, such compensation may be taken into account in assessing any pension, allowance or gratuity payable in respect of such injury or death and such pension, allowance or gratuity may be reduced, suspended or disallowed accordingly and where the compensation is received after assessment it may be taken into account and the assessment may be amended or cancelled accordingly, but no such reduction, suspension, disallowance, amendment or cancellation will be made in the case of an injury in respect of which an award under the Criminal Injuries (Ireland) Acts is made where it is shown to the satisfaction of the Ministry and the Ministry of Finance that in assessing such compensation the Court had cognisance of the fact that a pension or gratuity had been or would be awarded under the terms of this Order without reference to the decision of the Court on such claim for compensation.

Provided also that where a member of the force or any widow, child or dependant of a member of the force is entitled to or is already in receipt of any pension, allowance or gratuity from the Imperial Government in respect of the incapacity or death of such member resulting from service in the Navy, Army or Air Force, or has commuted such pension or allowance or any part thereof, the amount of such pension, allowance or gratuity may be taken into consideration in the assessment of any pension, allowance or gratuity under this Order and such pension, allowance or gratuity may be reduced, suspended or disallowed accordingly if, in all the circumstances of the case, it seems equitable so to do.

2. If a member of the force or any widow, child or dependant of a member of the force is entitled to or is already in receipt of any pension, allowance or gratuity from the Imperial Government in respect of service in the Royal Irish Constabulary or has commuted such pension or allowance or any part thereof, the amount of such pension allowance or gratuity may be taken into consideration in the assessment of any pension, allowance or gratuity under this Order, if, in all the circumstances of the case, it seems equitable so to do.
