DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMIC AFFAIRS

PRICES AND INCOMES ACT 1966

Reference to the National Board for Prices and Incomes

DISTRIBUTORS' MARGINS IN RELATION TO MANUFACTURERS' RECOMMENDED PRICES

The Government recognise that some increase in prices is the unavoidable consequence of devaluation. They are, however, concerned that the increases attributable to devaluation made in manufacturers' and distributors' prices should be no greater than is justified by the increase in overall costs incurred. Thus, in the Government's view, increases in distributors' prices should not provide for automatic maintenance of current percentage margins.

Certain manufacturers, however, customarily recommend prices for the resale of their goods which provide for a specific percentage margin to be taken by distributors. The Government consider it desirable that the implications of this practice being followed in cases where the manufacturer's price is increased for reasons attributable to devaluation should be urgently examined.

Accordingly, in pursuance of their powers under Section 2 (1) of the Prices and Incomes Act 1966, the Secretary of State for Economic Affairs, the President of the Board of Trade and the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food hereby refer to the National Board for Prices and Incomes for examination the question of the margins of distributors, in the event of an increase in the manufacturer's price attributable to devaluation, on those goods for which prices for resale are customarily recommended.
