MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS

Mr. M. K. Harris, Deputy Secretary in the Ministry of Home Affairs, has been appointed Permanent Secretary of that Ministry with effect from 1st January, 1973, on the retirement of Mr. J. G. Hill.

Notice is hereby given that the Secretary of State, in exercise of the powers conferred on him by section 146 of the County Courts Act (Northern Ireland) 1959, and Section 1(1) of the Northern Ireland (Temporary Provisions) Act 1972, has made a statutory rule entitled the County Court (Amendment) Rules (Northern Ireland) 1972.

These Rules, which come into force on 28th December, 1972, amend the general procedural rules in the county court, namely the County Court Rules (Northern Ireland) 1965 (S.R. & O. 1972, No. 331).

The amendments to Order 3 and to Order 6 consequent on the Proceedings Against Estates Act (Northern Ireland) 1971, are to enable a civil bill to be issued against "the personal representatives of AB deceased" where the cause of action has survived against his estate but no grant of probate or administration has been made. Provision is also made for a civil bill issued against a deceased for such a cause of action to be treated as having been issued in an action against the estate.

The amendments to Order 8, 22 and 42 are consequential on the provisions of Order 54F inserted by the Rules of the Supreme Court (Northern Ireland) (No. 2) 1971 (S.R. & O. 1971, No. 153).

The amendment to Order 35 is to make provision for application to the judge for leave to enforce a decree not only against a partner in a firm but also another person sought to be made liable.

Copies of the Rules may be purchased from the Government Bookshop, 80 Chichester Street, Belfast, BT1 4JY.
