HOME OFFICE

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY ACT 1949

To all holders of Amateur (Sound) Licence C and Amateur (Sound) Licence D

The Secretary of State for the Home Department hereby gives notice that on and from the 16th day of August, 1974, all licences as amended from time to time of the above mentioned types granted by him on and before the 15th day of August, 1974, shall be read, construed and take effect as if:

1. Paragraph 1(1)(a)(iii) thereto was deleted and replaced by:

1(1)(a)(iii) any premises (hereinafter called "the alternative premises") provided that at least 7 days before the Station is established at the alternative premises notice in writing of the postal address of the alternative premises is given to the General Manager of the Post Office Telephone Area in which the alternative premises are situate or, in the case of the Channel Islands to the Director of the Telecommunications Board of the appropriate Bailiwick. The said General Manager or Director shall also be notified in writing when the Station is no longer established at the alternative premises.

2. Paragraph 1(2) thereto was deleted and replaced by:

1(2) Limitations The foregoing licence to establish and use the Station is subject to the following limitations:

- (a) The Station shall not be established or used on the sea or within any estuary, dock, or harbour or in any moving vehicle, vessel or aircraft.
- (b) The Station shall be used only with emissions which are of the classes specified in the Schedule hereto and are within the frequency bands specified in the Schedule hereto in relation to those respective classes of emission, and with a power not exceeding that specified in the Schedule hereto in relation to the class of emission and frequency band in use at the time.
- (c) The Station shall be operated only by the Licensee personally.

(d) Except as provided in clause 9(2) hereof signals in morse code shall be sent at a speed not greater than 20 words per minute.

(e) Messages shall not be broadcast to amateur stations in general, but shall be sent only to (i) amateur stations with which communication is established separately and singly, or (ii) groups of particular amateur stations provided that communication is first established separately and singly with each station in any such group.

(f) When the Station is used for the purpose of sending messages by the type of transmission known as Radio Teleprinter (RTTY) it shall be used only with International Telegraph Code No. 2 (5-Unit Start-Stop) and with speeds of transmission of 45.5 or 50 bauds.

(g) No message which is grossly offensive or of an indecent or obscene character shall be sent.

3. Paragraph 6(d) thereto was deleted and replaced by:

6(d) Time of cessation of last transmission from the Station.

4. In the Schedule thereto, the Footnote No's relating to the 1.8-2 MHz, 144-145 MHz and 24,000-24,050 MHz bands are deleted and replaced by "1 and 8", "4" and "7" respectively; and the following additional paragraph inserted under "Footnotes":

8. The type of transmission known as Radio Teleprinter (RRTY) may not be used in this band.
