7. Cadets are appointed only on probation, and shall not be attached permanently to the Royal Ulster Constabulary until they attain the rank of District-Inspector. Promotion will not be made to this rank until the Inspector-General, Royal Ulster Constabulary, is satisfied that they have made sufficient progress in the knowledge of their duties and that they are competent to undertake the responsibilities of the position of District-Inspectors. During the period of probation their services may be dispensed with in consequence of unfavourable reports received of their conduct or proficiency while undergoing instruction or of their character and position previous to appointment as Cadets.

8. Applications for permission to attend an examination must be made at such time and in such manner as the Minister of Home Affairs may appoint.
