

of the prescribed form of register may be obtained on application to the Ministry of Home Affairs, Ocean Buildings, Belfast):

2. Any person authorised in that behalf by the Ministry of Home Affairs, and any member of the Royal Ulster Constabulary of a rank not lower than sergeant, may inspect such registers; and it shall be the duty of the licence-holder and of every person keeping such register to produce it for such inspection, and also all game on the premises, together with all documents specified in this Section:

3. Any holder of a licence to deal in game who fails to comply with any of the provisions of this Section, and any person who obstructs any person entitled under this Section to inspect any register or document in the making of such inspection, or who wilfully or negligently makes or causes to be made in such register any entry which is false or misleading in any material particular, shall be guilty of an offence under this Act:

4. Any person guilty of such an offence will be liable in the case of a first offence to a fine not exceeding £10, and in the case of a second or subsequent offence to a fine not exceeding £25, or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding three months or to both such fine and imprisonment, and the Court may declare that the licence to deal in game held by such person shall be null and void. In the case of any conviction within five years after a previous conviction for an offence under this Section of the Act the licence shall thereupon become null and void, and the person convicted shall be incapable of holding a licence to deal in game for a period of five years from the date of such later conviction:

Section 5—1. Every package containing game in course of transit in Northern Ireland shall be marked conspicuously on the outside with the word "game," and shall have also marked thereon or on a label affixed thereto the name and address of the consignor thereof:

2. Any person sending or consigning a package containing game for transit in Northern Ireland, or any person carrying such package in Northern Ireland for reward, which is not marked or labelled as aforesaid, shall be guilty of an offence under the Act, and will, under Section eight, be liable on summary conviction thereof in the case of a first offence to a fine not exceeding £10, and in the case of a second or subsequent offence to a fine not exceeding £25, or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding three months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

L. 9502. Investing Council with Urban Powers for Lighting Lishbellaw and determining area of charge.

THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS FOR NORTHERN IRELAND.

RURAL DISTRICT OF ENNISKILLEN.

To the Council of the Administrative County of Fermanagh; to the Council of the Rural

District of Enniskillen; and to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by Section 1 of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1896, as adapted, it is enacted in effect that the Ministry of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland (hereinafter referred to as "the Ministry"), may on the application of the sanitary authority of any rural district, by order to be published in the Belfast Gazette, or in such other manner as the said Ministry may direct, declare any provisions of the Public Health (Ireland) Acts, 1878 to 1890, in force in Urban Districts to be in force in such Rural District or any contributory place therein, and may invest such authority with all or any of the powers, rights, duties, capacities, liabilities, and obligations of an Urban Authority under these Acts: and that such investment may be made either unconditionally or subject to any conditions to be specified by the Ministry as to the time, portion of the district, or manner, during at, and in which such powers, rights, duties, liabilities, capacities and obligations are to be exercised and attach:

And whereas it is enacted by Section 22 of the Local Government (Ireland) Act, 1898, that all Urban Sanitary Authorities shall be called Urban District Councils, and that for every Rural Sanitary District there shall be a Rural District Council whose district shall be called a Rural District:

And whereas it is enacted by Sub-section (1) of Section 33 of the said Local Government Act that there shall be transferred to the District Council of any Rural District the business of the Rural Sanitary Authority in the District:

And whereas it is enacted in effect by Section 232 of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, as adapted, that special expenses (as defined in the said Section 232) shall be (amongst others) the expenses of lighting where duly authorised; that special expenses shall be a separate charge on some contributory place or places; that a townland is a contributory place; that the Ministry of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland shall have power to determine on what area of charge, being a contributory place or consisting of contributory places, any special expenses shall be chargeable:

And whereas the Council of the Rural District of Enniskillen (hereinafter referred to as "the Council") have made application to the Ministry under the said Section 1 of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1896, for an Order declaring the provisions of Section 80 of the said Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, in force in Urban Districts to be in force in the Townlands of Faughard, Mullybrit and Tattygare in the said Rural District:

Now, therefore, the Ministry of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland in exercise of the powers vested in it by the Public Health (Ireland) Acts, 1878 to 1907, as adapted, and by all other statutes in this behalf enabling the Ministry, hereby orders, declares and determines as follows, that is to say:—

1. The provisions of Section 80 of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, are declared to be in force within the area consisting of the townlands of Faughard, Mullybrit and Tattygare in the said rural district of Enniskillen; and subject to any conditions which the Ministry may hereafter deem fit to specify in the matter and to the provisions as to rating in Rural Districts of the Local Government
