PART III
GENERAL CONDITIONS

Prohibitions

11.—(1) Save as the Post Office may either generally or in any particular case allow, there shall not be conveyed or delivered by post any postal packet of a description referred to in paragraphs (a), (b) or (c) of section 11(1) of the Act.

(2) Subject to the powers of the Post Office under paragraph 18, there shall not be posted or conveyed or delivered by post any postal packet:

Provided that such narcotics may be sent for medical or scientific purposes in insured letters to countries which admit them when sent for those purposes;
 - (ii) any living creatures, except:
Bees, leeches, silkworms, or parasites or destroyers of noxious insects used for the purpose of controlling those insects and exchanged between officially recognised institutions;
 - (iii) anything which, by the law of the country or place in which the packet is posted or to which it is addressed, or of any country or place through which it may pass, it is unlawful respectively to send, import or convey by post or otherwise than by parcel post;
 - (iv) any imitation of a bank note within the meaning of section 38 of the Criminal Justice Act 1925;
- (b) containing or bearing any fictitious stamp (not being a fictitious stamp made with the approval of the Post Office, or any counterfeit impression of a postal franking machine used under the direction or by the permission of the Post Office or any counterfeit of any other impression authorised by or under this Scheme to be used to denote payment of postage or fees);
- (c) having thereon, or on the cover thereof, any words, letters or marks (used without due authority) which signify or imply, or may reasonably lead the recipient thereof to believe, that the postal packet is sent on Her Majesty's service;
- (d) of such a form or colour or so made up for transmission by post as to be likely in the opinion of the Post Office to embarrass the officers of the Post Office in dealing with the packet;
- (e) having on the outer cover a metal fastener with sharp edges such as might injure any person dealing with the packet or obstruct or impede the performance of any postal operation;
- (f) having anything written, printed or otherwise impressed upon or attached to any part of the postal packet which, either by tending to prevent the easy and quick reading of the address of the packet or by inconvenient proximity to the stamp or stamps used to denote payment of postage or fees, or in any other way, is in itself, or in the manner in which it is written, printed, impressed or attached, likely in the opinion of the Post Office to embarrass the officers of the Post Office in dealing with the packet;
- (g) bearing any stamp or impression of a postal franking machine, press or device denoting payment of postage or fees which is imperfect or mutilated or defaced in any way, or across which anything is written or printed or otherwise impressed; but a stamp shall not be deemed to be imperfect or mutilated or defaced or to have anything written or printed or impressed across it within the meaning of this provision, by reason only that it is distinctly perforated with initials by means of a punch if the perforating holes are not larger than those dividing one stamp from another in a sheet of stamps;

- (h) the cover whereof or the part thereof reserved for the address is divided into separate sections for the insertion of successive addresses;

Provided that there may be a transparent panel in the cover for the purpose of showing the address of the addressee, subject to such rules as may be prescribed;

- (k) consisting of or containing two or more postal packets (of the same or of different descriptions) addressed to different persons who are at different addresses.

- (3) (a) This sub-paragraph applies to incoming postal packets addressed to persons at addresses within the British postal area which were posted outside that area by or on behalf of any one person resident or carrying on business in that area, not being packets addressed to that person or to an agent of that person.

- (b) If within any period of 30 consecutive days (inclusive) the Post Office receives more than 100 incoming postal packets to which this sub-paragraph applies, being packets posted by or on behalf of any one person, all or any of such packets so received within that period may, if the Post Office so determines, be either:

- (i) detained and returned to the country or place of origin, or (at the discretion of the Post Office)

- (ii) forwarded charged, in the case of each packet, with such amount of postage as the Post Office may in the particular case determine (not exceeding the amount of postage which would have been prepayable thereon if it had been originally posted in the British postal area (singly) as a first class letter); and if a packet shall be so forwarded, the amount charged thereon shall be payable on or before the delivery of the packet, and the Post Office may withhold the packet from delivery until such amount has been paid.

- (c) Without prejudice to the application of paragraph 3(5), in this sub-paragraph "person" includes any corporation or unincorporated association of persons or partnership, and "any one person" shall be construed accordingly; and for the purposes of this sub-paragraph a postal packet (by whomsoever and wheresoever made up) shall be deemed to have been posted by or on behalf of a person, corporation, association or partnership if it was posted for the purposes of that person, corporation, association or partnership.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this Scheme there shall not be posted or conveyed or delivered by post any postal packet (other than an insured letter or, where the law or regulations of the country or place of destination allow, an outgoing uninsured registered letter) containing coin, bank notes, currency notes, securities or instruments payable to bearer, travellers cheques, platinum, gold or silver whether manufactured or not, precious stones, jewels, or other valuable articles.

- (5) (a) This sub-paragraph applies to incoming postal packets, addressed to persons at addresses within the British postal area, which were posted by or on behalf of any one person resident or carrying on business outside that area in a country other than the country in which he resides or carries on business.

- (b) If within any period of 30 days the Post Office receives more than 100 incoming postal packets to which this sub-paragraph applies, all or any of such packets so received may, at the discretion of the Post Office, be detained and returned to the country in which they were posted or to the country in which the sender resides or carries on business.

Contents of certain packets

12. Subject to the provisions of this Scheme every printed packet and small packet shall be subject to examination in the post, and shall not contain anything sealed or otherwise closed against inspection or contain or bear anything in the nature of current and personal correspondence, or contain any postage stamp or form (whether cancelled or not) denoting payment of postage or fees or any paper representing monetary value.

Packing and posting

13.—(1) Every postal packet shall be made up and secured in such manner as in the opinion of the Post Office is calculated to prevent injury to any other postal packet in course of conveyance, or to any receptacle in which the same is conveyed, or to any other postal equipment, or to an officer of the Post Office or other person who may deal with such packet.

(2) On the posting of an outgoing postal packet the sender shall fill up such certificates and other documents and affix such labels respecting the contents of the packet as may be required by the law of the country or place in which the packet is posted or to which it is addressed, or as the Post Office may direct.

Limits of weight and size

14.—(1) Save as the Post Office may either generally or in any particular case allow, no postal packet shall be posted, conveyed, or delivered by post under this Scheme unless its weight and size are within the respective maximum limits specified in Schedule 5:

Provided that save as aforesaid:

- (a) where the packet is made up in the form of a roll, its length and twice its diameter taken together shall not exceed 1,040 millimetres and neither its length nor its diameter shall exceed 900 millimetres.
- (b) in the case of a printed packet on which postage is chargeable in accordance with paragraph 6 or paragraph 7 and which contains only one or more of the following articles, namely,
 - (i) books;
 - (ii) pamphlets, which expression for this purpose means short printed publications or works of a literary character in book form sewn, bound or stapled within covers; not being books or pamphlets issued in consecutive numbers at intervals of less than one year, the maximum weight shall be 5 kilogrammes.

(2) Save as aforesaid, no postal packet shall be posted, conveyed, or delivered by post under this Scheme unless its size is within the following minimum limits:

- (a) where the packet is made up in the form of a roll, its length and twice its diameter taken together shall be not less than 170 millimetres, and either its length or its diameter shall be not less than 100 millimetres;
- (b) where the packet is not so made up, it shall have at least one surface measuring not less than 140 millimetres in length and not less than 90 millimetres in breadth.

Articles liable to duty

15.—(1) Subject to the powers of the Post Office under paragraph 18, there shall not be posted as a packet consisting of or containing only literature for the blind, or conveyed or delivered by post as such a packet, any postal packet which consists of or contains any article liable to customs duty in the country or place of destination.

(2) Subject as aforesaid, there shall not be posted or conveyed or delivered by post any postal packet of any other description containing any article liable to customs duty, unless:

- (a) the importation of such articles by means of postal packets of that description is permitted by the law or regulations of the country or place of destination;
- (b) the packet is registered if the law or regulations of the country or place of destination so require; and
- (c) for customs purposes the packet bears such label and has attached or contains such declarations as may be required by or under any Treasury Regulations made in that behalf.

(3) With respect to the clearance through customs of an incoming postal packet or of such a mail bag as is mentioned in (b) below, the Post Office may charge a fee as follows:

- (a) a fee of 80p on each such packet (not being a printed packet in course of transmission in bulk as mentioned in (b) below) which is produced to the proper officer of Customs and Excise;
- (b) a fee of £1.10 on each mail bag produced to the proper officer of Customs and Excise which contains printed matter (as defined by paragraph 30(3)) in course of transmission in bulk in pursuance of arrangements made between the sender and the postal administration of the country or place of posting corresponding to those described in paragraph 30; and such fee (if charged) shall be paid by the addressee if the packet or the mail bag (as the case may be) is delivered to him.

Payment of postage and fees

16.—(1) Except as the Post Office may otherwise direct, and subject to the provisions of this Scheme, the postage and fees payable on every outgoing postal packet and the fees payable in respect of postal facilities shall be prepaid.

(2) The provisions of this Scheme with reference to prepayment of postage and fees shall not apply to postage and fees payable on postal packets with respect to which the Post Office has entered into an arrangement with the senders thereof for the grant of credit facilities.

(3) Payment of postage or fees payable under this Scheme may be denoted:

- (a) by adhesive postage stamps bearing the effigy of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, being stamps of denominations of money in the currency of the United Kingdom provided for by the Decimal Currency Act 1967;
- (b) by postage stamps of such denominations embossed, impressed or printed on envelopes, covers, wrappers, cards or letter forms authorised by the Post Office for postal use, or on other postal forms, or by such postage stamps which have been cut out of, or otherwise detached from, any such envelopes, covers, wrappers, cards, letter forms or other postal forms;
- (c) by means of impressions made by postal franking machines, printing presses, or other printing or stamping devices, being machines, presses or devices operated under the direction, or with the authority, of the Post Office;
- (d) in such other manner as the Post Office may from time to time permit.

(4) No stamp indicating on the face thereof payment of a registration fee (with or without postage) shall be used to denote payment of postage or fees on any unregistered postal packet.

(5) Packets bearing the impression of postal franking machines or intended for impression by postal franking machines, and packets on which payment of postage is denoted by a printed impression, or by an impression made by any other device authorised by the Post Office, shall be accepted only at such Post Offices, within such hours, and under and subject to such conditions and restriction as the Post Office may consider appropriate.

(6) Except as regards any postal franking machine the use of which is for the time being authorised by a licence in writing granted by the Post Office, the provisions of Schedule 2 to the Post Office Inland Post Scheme 1975 (provided that references in that Schedule to provisions of the Post Office Inland Post Scheme 1975 shall be read as references to the corresponding provisions of this Scheme) shall apply with respect to the granting and termination by the Post Office of authority to use a postal franking machine and the use thereof.

(7) Subject to the provisions of this Scheme, the stamp or impression denoting payment of postage or fees shall be placed in such position on the envelope, cover, postcard or other form as the Post Office may consider appropriate.

(8) No stamp or impression which is imperfect or mutilated or defaced in any way, or across which anything is written or printed or otherwise impressed, shall be used to denote payment of postage or fees; but a stamp shall not be deemed to be imperfect or mutilated or defaced or to have anything written or printed or impressed across it within the meaning of this provision, by reason only that it is distinctly perforated with initials by means of a punch, if the perforating holes are not larger than those dividing one stamp from another in a sheet of stamps.

Unpaid or underpaid postage

17. (1) An outgoing postal packet (including an air mail packet) upon which no part, or a part only of the postage thereon has been prepaid (not being an insured letter or other registered postal packet or a postal packet the postage on which is subject to such an arrangement as is mentioned in paragraph 16 (2) may at the discretion of the Post Office, unless it is dealt with and forwarded in the manner provided by sub-paragraph (2), be dealt with in either of the following ways:

- (a) it may be forwarded charged with the postal deficiency or,
- (b) it may be returned to the sender in order that the postage deficiency be made good.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in sub-paragraph (1), where no part, or a part only, of the postage payable on an outgoing postal packet (including an air mail packet) has been prepaid, the Post Office (whether or not requested so to do by the sender) may (if it thinks fit), instead of dealing with the packet in accordance with that sub-paragraph, affix to the packet stamps to the value of the postage deficiency, or endorse thereon an indication that it should be treated as if the full postage thereon had been paid, and the packet shall thereupon be forwarded as if the full postage thereon had been prepaid; and the sender of a packet so forwarded shall pay to the Post Office on demand the amount of the postage deficiency.

(3) An air mail packet on which no part, or a part only, of the postage payable thereon has been prepaid (not being a packet the postage on which is subject to such an arrangement as is mentioned in paragraph 16(2) or which is or has been dealt with by the Post Office in the manner provided by sub-paragraph (2), may be dealt with as if it were not an airmail packet.

(4) An incoming postal packet (other than a packet redirected from an address outside the British postal area to an address in that area) upon which no part, or a part only, of the postage payable thereon has been prepaid:

- (a) unless it is an insured letter or other registered postal packet, may be detained and returned to the country of origin, or may be forwarded charged with the amount of the postage deficiency, in addition to an amount of 20p payable at the discretion of the Post Office;
- (b) if it is an insured letter or other registered postal packet shall be forwarded without any charge in respect of the postage deficiency.

(5) The following provisions (as appropriate) shall apply to an incoming postal packet redirected from an address outside the British postal area, whether or not within the country in which it was posted, to an address in the British postal area:

- (a) a postal packet, other than an insured letter or other registered postal packet, shall be forwarded charged with the following sum, unless it has been prepaid on the redirection of the packet:

- (i) if the postage on the first transmission was fully prepaid, a sum equal to the difference (if any) between the amount of that postage and the postage which would have been chargeable if the packet had been originally addressed to the new address;

- (ii) otherwise, a sum equal to the amount which would have been chargeable on the packet under sub-paragraph (4) if the packet had been originally addressed to the new address; and were forwarded in accordance with (a) of that sub-paragraph;

- (b) an insured letter or other registered postal packet shall be forwarded charged with the following sum (unless it has been prepaid on the redirection of the packet); that is to say, a sum equal to the difference (if any) between the postage chargeable on the first transmission, whether or not that postage was fully prepaid, and the postage which would have been chargeable if the packet had been originally addressed to the new address;

- (c) a postal packet of whatever description which has been transmitted by air to the British postal area after redirection without prepayment of additional postage in respect of the transmission by air shall be forwarded charged with such sum (in addition to any sum charged under (a) or (b) of this sub-paragraph) as the overseas Postal Administration concerned has requested the Post Office to collect in respect of that transmission.

(6) Where the amount chargeable under sub-paragraph (4) or (5) would otherwise be less than 21p the amount charged shall be 21p.

(7) Any sums charged on an incoming postal packet under sub-paragraph (4) and (5), and any other sums payable in respect of the packet under the law, regulations or Scheme in force in any part of the British postal area or any country or place from or through which the packet has been transmitted, shall be payable on the delivery of the packet, and the Post Office may withhold the packet from delivery until such sums have been paid.

(8) In this paragraph, "the postage deficiency", in relation to a postal packet, means, if no part of the postage payable thereon has been prepaid, the full amount of the postage which ought to have been prepaid thereon, and if part only of such postage has been prepaid, the difference between such full amount and the amount of such postage which has been prepaid.

Treatment of irregular packets

18.—(1) Except as otherwise provided in this Scheme, any postal packet which is found when in the post not to comply with a provision of the law of the country or place in which the packet was posted or to which it is addressed or of any country or place through which it may pass (including the Act, this Scheme, and the Postal Packets (Customs and Excise) Regulations 1975), or not to be accompanied by a document required by any such provision, may be either detained or returned or given up to the sender, or forwarded and delivered, or dealt with or disposed of in such other manner as the Post Office may think fit.

(2) Any postal packet which is found when in the post to be such that the conveyance or delivery thereof is prohibited by paragraph 11(2)(k) may if the Post Office thinks fit be delivered to the addressee subject to such charge as the Post Office may fix in the particular case, not exceeding the aggregate amount of the separate charges which would have been payable in respect of all the individual postal packets contained therein if each of them had been posted singly without prepayment of postage.

(3) Any postal packet (other than a letter), which is found when in the post not to comply with the provisions of this Scheme which are applicable to postal packets of its particular description, may if the Post Office thinks fit be treated as if it had been posted as a letter or as a postal packet of such other description as the Post Office considers appropriate, and the provisions of this Scheme shall apply thereto accordingly.

Undeliverable packets

19. Where for any reason an incoming postal packet cannot be delivered, it may at the discretion of the Post Office either be returned to the sender, or be destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the Post Office may think fit.

PART IV

CONDITIONS RELATING TO PARTICULAR CLASSES OF PACKETS

Letters

20. If an envelope is used as the cover for a postal packet intended for transmission as a letter, it must be of a rectangular shape.

Postcards

21.—(1) The following rules shall apply to postcards :

- (a) No writing except the address and any postal directions recognised by the Universal Postal Convention for the time being in force, and no printing except that of any of the matters aforesaid, shall appear on the right-hand half of the address side of a postcard.
- (b) A postcard shall be rectangular with its length at least equal to the width multiplied by 1.414 and be made of cardboard or of paper stout enough not to hinder its manipulation of other postal packets. It shall not have projecting or raised relief parts.
- (c) Nothing whatever shall be in any manner attached to a postcard except :
 - (i) postage stamps denoting payment of postage or fees ;
 - (ii) Illustrations, photographs, stamps of any kind, and labels and cuttings of any kind, being made of paper or other very thin substance, and address slips and fold-back sheets ;

Provided that :

- (1) every such article shall be of such a nature as not to alter the character of the postcard, and shall adhere completely to the postcard ;
 - (2) every such article, except a label or an address slip, shall be affixed only to the back or to the left-hand half of the address side of the postcard ;
 - (3) no stamp likely to be mistaken for a stamp used to denote payment of postage or fees shall be fixed to the address side of the postcard.
 - (d) A postcard shall not be embellished with cloth, embroidery, spangles or similar materials.
 - (e) Stamps or impressions of postal franking machines, presses or devices denoting payment of postage or fees shall be placed on the address side of the postcard, as far as possible on the right-hand half.
- (2) If any postcard is found when in the post not to comply with any of the rules (a) to (d) inclusive in sub-paragraph (1), it shall be dealt with and charged as a letter.
- (3) If any postcard is found when in the post not to comply with rule (e) in sub-paragraph (1), it shall be dealt with as if the postage or fees denoted by the stamps or impressions placed otherwise than in conformity with that rule had not been prepaid.

Printed packets

22.—(1) The expression "printed packet" in this Scheme means a packet consisting of or containing only :

- (a) articles or documents (whether printed, engraved, lithographed, mimographed or photographed) of any of the following descriptions :

but does not include a packet consisting of, or containing, literature for the blind :

Provided that a packet may be transmitted as a printed packet notwithstanding that in addition to any such things as are described in (a) and (b) above there is enwrapped or enclosed therein :

- (i) a card, envelope or wrapper for reply bearing the printed name and address (in the country or place in which the packet containing it was posted) of the sender or his agent, and having either postage stamps of the country or place to which such packet is addressed properly affixed thereto by way of payment of the return postage, or a suitable space for the proper fixing of such stamps ;
- (ii) if the only other things so enwrapped or enclosed are printed literary or artistic productions, an open invoice (the terms whereof are such only as are necessary to its essential function as an invoice), with or without copies of the invoice deposit notes or international or internal money order forms of the country of destination, which notes or forms may indicate by any means the amount to be deposited or paid and the particulars of the postal giro account or the address of the beneficiary of the order.

(2) No packet shall be transmissible as a printed packet which consists of or contains :

- (a) anything designed or adapted for future use as stationery which bears no printed matter other than such as might serve for such future use ;

Provided that matter otherwise transmissible as or in a printed packet shall be so transmissible notwithstanding any addition or modification made as follows :

 - (i) to indicate the name or business name, status, profession and address of the sender and of the addressee, the date of despatch, the signature, telephone exchange and number, telex number and answer-back code, telegraphic address and code, current postal account and current banking account of the sender, and serial or registration numbers.
 - (ii) to correct errors in printing ;

books, pamphlets, newspapers, engravings or musical scores: the works and the number of copies asked for or offered, the price of the works, and notes giving essential elements of the price, the method of payment, the edition, the names of the authors and publishers, the catalogue number, and the words "paper covered", "stiff covered" or "bound";

The new Scheme consolidates the provisions of the above mentioned schemes, with amendments; revises surface parcel postage charges generally, revises certain fees for ancillary services and introduces a provision under which addressees of incoming parcels may request that despatch notes relating to such parcels may be delivered to them upon payment of a prescribed fee.

PART II

RATES OF POSTAGE AND GENERAL CONDITIONS

Rates of postage

5.—(1) Subject as provided in sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) there shall be charged and paid on outgoing parcels postage at the rates specified in Part 1 of Schedule 1.

(2) In the case of outgoing parcels (other than air parcels):

- (a) addressed to a person on board a ship of the Royal Navy (whether on the high seas or in any port or place outside the British postal area), or

- (b) posted for transmission through a British Forces Post Office to a member of the armed forces of the United Kingdom or of any other Commonwealth country, serving outside the British postal area, or to a member of the armed forces of a State allied to the United Kingdom, serving as mentioned in paragraph 29(b), there shall be charged and paid thereon postage at the rates specified in Part 2 of Schedule 1.

(3) In the case of outgoing parcels which exceed the limits of weight specified in paragraph 8(1) and which the Post Office allows to be posted, there shall be charged and paid thereon postage at rates to be fixed by the Post Office.

Prohibitions

6.—(1) Save as the Post Office may either generally or in any particular case allow, there shall not be conveyed or delivered by post any parcel of a description referred to in section 11(1)(a), (b) or (c) of the Act.

(2) Subject to the powers of the Post Office under paragraph 12, there shall not be posted or conveyed or delivered by post any parcel:

- (a) containing:
 - (i) opium, morphine, cocaine, or other narcotic:

Provided that such narcotics may be sent for medical or scientific purposes to countries which admit them when sent for those purposes by parcel post;

- (ii) any living creatures, other than bees, leeches and silkworms;

- (iii) anything which by the law of the country or place in which the parcel is posted or to which it is addressed or of any country or place through which it may pass, it is unlawful respectively to send, import or convey by parcel post;

- (iv) any imitation of a bank note within the meaning of section 38 of the Criminal Justice Act 1925;

- (b) containing or bearing any fictitious stamp (not being a fictitious stamp made with the approval of the Post Office) or any counterfeit impression of a postal franking machine used under the direction or by the permission of the Post Office, or any counterfeit of any other impression authorised by or under this Scheme to be used to denote payment of postage or fees;

- (c) containing or having thereon any letter, except so far as may be permitted by the relative postal arrangement;

- (e) of such a form or colour or so made up for transmission by post as to be likely in the opinion of the Post Office to embarrass the officers of the Post Office in dealing with the parcel;

- (f) having anything written, printed or otherwise impressed upon or attached to any part of the parcel which, either by tending to prevent the easy and quick reading of the address of the parcel or by inconvenient proximity to the stamp or stamps used to denote payment of postage or fees, or in any other way, is in itself, or in the manner in which it is written, printed, impressed or attached, likely in the opinion of the Post Office to embarrass the officers of the Post Office in dealing with the parcel;

- (g) bearing any stamp or impression of a postal franking machine, press or device denoting payment of postage or fees which is imperfect or mutilated or defaced in any way, or across which anything is written or printed or otherwise impressed; but a stamp shall not be deemed to be imperfect or mutilated or defaced or to have anything written or printed or impressed across it within the meaning of this provision, by reason only that it is distinctly perforated with initials by means of a punch if the perforating holes are not larger than those dividing one stamp from another in a sheet of stamps;
- (h) whereon the payment of any postage or fees purports to be denoted by any stamp or impression which has been previously used to denote payment of the postage or fees on any other postal packet;

- (c) the combined length and girth thereof exceeds 2 metres (the girth to be measured round the thickest part).
- (2) Where the postal arrangement applicable in relation to the conveyance of a parcel stipulates a lower limit than is specified in any one or more of (a), (b) or (c) in sub-paragraph (1), that limit or those limits shall apply, instead of the respective limit or limits so specified.
- (3) Save as aforesaid, no parcel shall be posted, conveyed, or delivered by post unless its size is within the following minimum limits:
- (a) where the parcel is made up in the form of a roll, its length and twice its diameter taken together shall not be less than 170 millimetres, and either its length or its diameter shall not be less than 100 millimetres;
- (b) where the parcel is not so made up, it shall have at least one surface measuring not less than 140 millimetres in length and not less than 90 millimetres in breadth.

(3) Subject as aforesaid, there shall not be posted or conveyed by post an outgoing uninsured parcel containing coin, bank notes, currency notes, securities or instruments payable to bearer, platinum, gold or silver whether manufactured or not, jewellery, or other valuable articles:

- (a) addressed to a country or place to which, under the relative postal arrangement, insured parcels may be sent from the British postal area, or
- (b) addressed to any other country or place, if the parcel does not comply with the provisions of paragraph 23(1)(d).

Packing

7.—(1) Every parcel shall be made up and secured in such manner as in the opinion of the Post Office is calculated to preserve the contents from loss or damage in the post, to prevent any tampering with the contents, and to prevent injury to any other postal packet in course of conveyance, or to any receptacle in which the same is conveyed, or to any other postal equipment, or to an officer of the Post Office or other person who may deal with such packet.

(2) Without prejudice to paragraph 22(1) any article contained in a parcel shall be adequately packed as a protection against damage in course of transmission. In particular:

- (a) an article which is of a fragile nature shall be packed in a container of sufficient strength and shall be surrounded in that container with sufficient and suitable material to protect the article against the effects of concussion, pressure and knocks to which parcels are ordinarily exposed in transmission and the parcel shall bear the words "FRAGILE WITH CARE" written conspicuously in capital letters on the face of the cover above the address;
- (b) an article which is liable to be damaged by bending shall be packed in a container of sufficient strength to prevent the article from being bent in transmission and the parcel shall bear the words "DO NOT BEND" written conspicuously in capital letters on the face of the cover above the address;
- (c) a parcel containing any perishable article shall bear the word "PERISHABLE" written conspicuously in capital letters on the face of the cover above the address.

Limits of weight and size

8.—(1) Save as the Post Office may either generally or in any particular case allow, no parcel shall be posted, conveyed, or delivered by post if:

- (a) the weight thereof exceeds 10 kilogrammes, or
- (b) the length thereof exceeds 1.05 metres, or (if that limit of length is not exceeded)

Fees for customs clearance

With respect to the clearance through customs of an incoming parcel, the Post Office may charge on each such parcel a fee of 80p which (if charged) shall be paid by the addressee if the parcel shall be delivered to him.

Posting

10.—(1) All outgoing parcels shall be posted: (a) by being handed to an officer on duty at the counter of a post office designated by the Post Office for that purpose, on the days and within the hours during which such office shall be open to the public for the posting of parcels, or (b) (in circumstances in which the Post Office permits that mode of posting) by being handed to an officer of the Post Office for the time being authorised to receive parcels for the post otherwise than as aforesaid.

(2) Every outgoing parcel shall bear the name and full address of the addressee and of the sender, which shall be written by means other than a pencil, or by means of a copying-ink pencil applied to a surface made damp for the purpose.

(3) On the posting of an outgoing parcel, the sender shall fill up a despatch note in a prescribed form if required so to do, and shall fill up such customs declarations, certificates, and other documents and affix such labels respecting the contents of the parcels as may be required by the law of the country or place in which the parcel is posted or to which it is addressed, or as the Post Office may direct.

Payment of postage and fees

11.—(1) Except as the Post Office may otherwise direct, and subject to the provisions of this Scheme, the postage and fees payable on every outgoing parcel shall be prepaid.

(2) The provisions of this Scheme with reference to prepayment of postage and fees shall not apply to postage and fees payable on parcels with respect to which the Post Office has entered into an arrangement with the senders thereof for the grant of credit facilities.

(3) Payment of postage or fees payable under this Scheme may be denoted:

- (a) by adhesive postage stamps bearing the effigy of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, being stamps of denominations of money in the currency of the United Kingdom provided for by the Decimal Currency Act 1967;
- (b) by embossed, impressed or printed postage stamps of such denominations which have been cut out of, or otherwise detached from, any envelopes, covers, wrappers, cards or letter forms, or other postal forms, authorised by the Post Office for postal use;
- (c) by means of impressions made by postal franking machines, printing presses, or other printing or stamping devices, being machines, presses or devices operated under the direction, or with the authority, of the Post Office;

(d) in such other manner as the Post Office may from time to time permit.

(4) No stamp indicating on the face thereof payment of a registration fee (with or without postage) shall be used to denote payment of postage or fees on any uninsured parcel.

(5) Parcels bearing the impression of postal franking machines or intended for impression by postal franking machines, and parcels on which payment of postage is denoted by a printed impression, or by an impression made by any other device authorised by the Post Office, shall be accepted only at such post offices, within such hours, and under and subject to such conditions and restrictions as the Post Office may consider appropriate.

(6) Except as regards any postal franking machine the use of which is for the time being authorised by a licence in writing granted by the Post Office, the provisions of Schedule 2 to the Post Office Inland Post Scheme 1975 (provided that references in that Schedule to provisions of the Post Office Inland Post Scheme 1975 shall be read as references to the corresponding provisions of this Scheme) shall apply with respect to the granting and termination by the Post Office of authority to use a postal franking machine and the use thereof.

(7) The stamp or impression denoting payment of postage or fees shall be placed in such position on the parcel as the Post Office may consider appropriate.

(8) No stamp or impression which is imperfect or mutilated or defaced in any way, or across which anything is written or printed or otherwise impressed, shall be used to denote payment of postage or fees; but a stamp shall not be deemed to be imperfect or mutilated or defaced or to have anything written or printed or impressed across it within the meaning of this provision, by reason only that it is distinctly perforated with initials by means of a punch if the perforating holes are not larger than those dividing one stamp from another in a sheet of stamps.

Treatment of irregular parcels

12.—(1) Except as otherwise provided in this Scheme, any parcel which is found when in the post not to comply with a provision of the law of the country or place in which the parcel was posted or to which it is addressed or of any country or place through which it may pass (including the Act, this Scheme and the provisions referred to in paragraph 32), or not to be accompanied by a document required by any such provision, or to have been posted otherwise than in accordance with paragraph 10(1), may be either detained or returned or given up to the sender, or dealt with or disposed of in such other manner as the Post Office may think fit.

(2) Any incoming parcel which is found in the post to be such that the conveyance or delivery thereof is prohibited by paragraph 6(2)(i) may, if the Post Office thinks fit, be delivered to the addressee subject to such charge as the Post Office may fix in the particular case, not exceeding the aggregate amount of the separate charges which would have been payable in respect of all the individual parcels or other postal packets contained therein if each of them had been posted separately without prepayment of postage in the British postal area addressed to the country or place of origin of the parcel.

Unpaid or underpaid postage

13.—(1) An outgoing parcel (including an air parcel) upon which no part or a part only, of the postage payable thereon has been prepaid (not being an insured parcel or registered parcel or a parcel the postage of which is subject to such an arrangement as is mentioned in paragraph 11(2)) may at the discretion of the Post Office be returned to sender in order that the postage deficiency be made good.

(2) In this paragraph "postage deficiency" means, if no part of the postage thereon has been prepaid, the full amount of the postage which ought to have been prepaid, and if part only of such postage has been prepaid, the difference between such full amount and the amount of such postage which has been prepaid.

Charges on incoming parcels

14.—(1) There shall be charged on an incoming parcel and paid by the addressee on its delivery, the amount of any postage deficiency, and any fees and charges payable in respect of the parcel under the law, regulations, or schemes in force in any part of the British postal area or any country or place from or through which the parcel has been transmitted which have not been paid.

(2) In this paragraph "postage deficiency" has the same meaning as in paragraph 13.

Return of outgoing parcels

15.—(1) Where an outgoing parcel is received back from a country or place outside the British postal area for return to the sender in accordance with the relative postal arrangement, there shall be charged on the parcel so received and paid by the sender, whether or not the parcel is returned to the sender:

- (a) the amount of any postage deficiency, and the amount of any fees and charges payable in respect of the parcel under the law, regulations, or schemes in force in any part of the British postal area or any country or place from or through which the parcel has been transmitted which have not been paid; and
- (b) postage in respect of the return transmission at such rate, and such other charges, as the Post Office may consider appropriate having regard to the terms of the relative postal arrangement.

(2) In this paragraph "postage deficiency" has the same meaning as in paragraph 13.

Withholding of parcels from delivery or return

16.—(1) The Post Office may withhold any incoming parcel from delivery to the addressee, or any outgoing parcel received back in the manner described in paragraph 15 from return to the sender, until all sums due thereon have been paid.

(2) Where the sums due in respect of any such parcel, or of parcels on hand for delivery or return to the same person on any one occasion, amount to more than £30, the Post Office may give notice to that person accordingly and require that, before such delivery or return is effected, he should pay the amount due within such period and at such office as shall be specified in such notice.

Undeliverable parcels

17.—(1) Subject to the following sub-paragraphs of this paragraph, an incoming parcel which cannot be delivered, and an outgoing parcel which is received back from a country or place outside the British postal area for return to the sender in accordance with the relative postal arrangement and which cannot be returned to the sender, or in respect of which any sums due thereon under paragraph 14 or paragraph 15 have not been paid within such period as the Post Office may consider reasonable, may be dealt with or disposed of as the Post Office may think fit.

(2) Where an incoming parcel cannot be delivered as originally addressed and, in accordance with the relative postal arrangement, the sender has furnished the name and address within the British postal area of a substituted addressee, and the parcel is forwarded to the substituted address, there shall be charged on the parcel on its delivery and paid by the substituted addressee (in addition to any amount in respect of postage deficiency, fees and charges charged thereon under paragraph 14), the following additional postage:

- (a) if the parcel does not exceed the limit of weight applicable to inland parcels, postage at the rate of inland postage chargeable on an ordinary inland parcel of the same weight;
- (b) if the parcel exceeds the said limit of weight, postage at the rate of inland postage chargeable on an ordinary inland parcel of the greatest weight within that limit, with the addition of such sum not exceeding that amount as the Post Office may consider appropriate.

(3) Where an incoming parcel cannot be delivered within such time as the Post Office may consider reasonable, or delivery of it is refused, and subsequently the sender or the addressee requests that the parcel should be delivered, the Post Office may, if it thinks fit, comply with such request; and in that event there shall be charged on the parcel and paid by the addressee on its delivery, in addition to any amount charged thereon under paragraph 14 (including, in a case where the parcel was returned by the Post Office to the country or place of its origin, any further charge incurred by reason, or in consequence, of its return), additional postage of the like amount as the amount of additional postage which would be payable under sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph on delivery of an incoming parcel of the same weight to a substituted address.

Air parcels

18.—(1) An air parcel shall bear an "Air Mail" label affixed close to the address (or to each place where the address appears, if the parcel is addressed in more than one place).

(2) A parcel shall be transmissible as an air parcel only if it is addressed to any such country or place as may from time to time be prescribed.

(3) Notwithstanding the definition of air parcel in paragraph 3, if the Post Office considers that such a parcel addressed to a destination in Europe can be conveyed at an equivalent speed by surface means, it may despatch the parcel by such means and no part of the postage paid shall be refundable to the sender.

PART III

POSTAL FACILITIES

General

19. The postal facilities referred to in this Scheme may be provided by the Post Office at such times, during such periods, at such post offices, in such circumstances, and on such conditions (not being inconsistent with the provisions of this Scheme) as the Post Office may from time to time consider expedient.

Express delivery

20. Upon every outgoing parcel marked with the word "Express" or "Exprès" to indicate the desire of the sender that the parcel may be delivered by special messenger, being a parcel addressed to a country or place wherein delivery by special messenger is provided for by the relative postal arrangement, there shall be charged and prepaid the fee of £1.50.

Cash on delivery parcels

21.—(1) The trade charge on a cash on delivery parcel shall not exceed £1000 or such lower limit as may be fixed by the relative postal arrangement, and shall be a sum of money in whole pounds or in whole new pence, or in pounds and whole new pence.

(2) The following rules shall apply to outgoing cash on delivery parcels:

- (a) There shall be charged and paid at the time of posting, in addition to the postage and any other charges payable on the parcel, a cash on delivery fee appropriate to the amount of the trade charge that is to be collected on the parcel, according to the scale set out in Schedule 2.
- (b) The sender shall mark on the cover of the parcel (by means other than a pencil) the word "Reemboursement" followed by the amount of the trade charge.
- (c) Where the sender is required to fill up a despatch note, he shall mark thereon (by means other than a pencil) the amount of the trade charge.
- (d) The sender shall fill up (by means other than a pencil) the prescribed form (in the Scheme referred to as the "trade charge money order form") as may be required.

(e) No erasure or correction shall be made in the amount of the trade charge wherever it may be required to be shown.

(f) The Post Office shall furnish to the sender a certificate of posting bearing an acknowledgment that the cash on delivery fee has been paid and stating the amount of the trade charge.

(g) The Post Office shall, upon receiving from the Postal Administration of the country or place of destination of the parcel, the trade charge which has been collected from the addressee, remit the amount to the sender or a person named by him by means of a trade charge money order or by such means as the Post Office may think fit.

(3) The following rules shall apply to incoming cash on delivery parcels:

(a) There shall be charged and paid on the delivery of the parcel, in addition to any other sums due thereon, a fee of 50p.

(b) The parcel shall not be given up to the addressee or opened at his request until the trade charge, the fee chargeable under (a) of this sub-paragraph, and any other sums due on the parcel have been paid.

(c) The Post Office shall, upon receiving the trade charge from the addressee, remit the amount to the sender or a person named by him through the Postal Administration of the country or place of origin of the parcel by means of the trade charge money order form received with the parcel, or by such other means as the Post Office may think fit.

(4) A trade charge money order shall be crossed and marked "not negotiable", and (except where the Post Office shall otherwise direct) shall be paid only to a banker.

(5) The order may be crossed either:

(a) generally by the addition on its face of two parallel transverse lines, or

(b) specially by the addition on its face of the name of a banker between the two parallel transverse lines, in which case the order shall be deemed to be crossed to and shall be paid to that banker.

A banker to whom a trade charge money order is crossed may again cross it to another banker as his agent for collection.

(6) The following rules shall apply to the payment of a trade charge money order to a banker:

(a) A trade charge money order may be presented for payment by a banker at any office at which payment of such orders presented by a banker may from time to time be authorised by the Post Office.

(b) A trade charge money order which is presented for payment by a banker to whom it has been delivered for collection may be paid notwithstanding that the receipt thereon has not been signed if it has the name of the banker presenting it written or stamped upon its face (whether by way of crossing or otherwise) or bears a code or device of that banker, being a code or device in terms and of a type, design and size and in a position approved by the Post Office.

7. If a trade charge money order is presented for payment after the expiration of a period of six months after the last day of the month in which it was issued, it shall not be paid until it has been referred to a post office for inquiry; and it may be retained by the Post Office until such inquiry has been completed and the Post Office is satisfied that it ought to be paid.

Delivery free of charges

22.—(1) Where the relative postal arrangement so provides, the sender of an outgoing parcel other than a cash on delivery parcel may request that the parcel shall be delivered free of any customs duty, postal fees and charges which would otherwise be payable by the addressee under the law or regulations of the country or place of destination, and in such case the following rules shall apply:

- (a) The sender shall pay at the time of posting such sum as the Post Office may require as a deposit in respect of any customs duty, postal fees and charges as, in the opinion of the Post Office, might otherwise be so payable, and shall sign an undertaking in the prescribed form to pay to the Post Office on demand the aggregate amount of the customs duty, postal fees and charges which are charged in the country or place of destination. Any deposit so paid shall be appropriated in or towards the amount payable under such undertaking.
- (b) The sender shall also pay to the Post Office at the time that any amount is paid in accordance with the undertaking under (a) or repaid by the Post Office under (e) of this sub-paragraph, a fee of 50p for each parcel posted.
- (c) The sender shall mark on the cover of the parcel either the words "To be delivered free of charges" or the words "Franc de droits".
- (d) The Post Office shall furnish to the sender a certificate of posting bearing an acknowledgement that the said deposit has been paid.
- (e) If the deposit paid exceeds the aggregate amount of the customs duty, postal fees and charges which are charged in the country or place of destination, the Post Office shall repay the excess to the sender.

(2) Where the relative postal arrangement so provides, the sender of an outgoing cash on delivery parcel may request that the parcel shall be delivered free of customs duty and of all other charges due thereon at the time of delivery except the trade charge, and in such case the rules set out in sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph shall apply:

Provided that the words to be marked on the cover of the parcel shall be "To be delivered free of charges except the trade charge".

(3) Payment of the sums or amounts referred to in sub-paragraph (1) may be denoted by means of impressions made by postal franking machines as if such sums or amounts were postage or fees payable under this Scheme.

Insured parcels and uninsured parcels containing valuables

23.—(1) Where the relative arrangement so provides, an outgoing parcel may be insured, and in such case the following rules shall apply:

- (a) The parcel shall not be addressed to an addressee identified by initials only, or addressed by means of a pencil.
- (b) The parcel shall be sealed by lead or steel seals, or by wax seals all of the same kind of wax, in a manner and quantity calculated to prevent tampering with the contents without damage to the wrapping or seals; each seal shall bear the same private mark of the sender. As an alternative, all joints and flaps may be sealed with adhesive tape or paper, each strip of tape or paper bearing the sender's initials or signature or distinctive mark or stamp. These sealing strips must be affixed in such a way that unauthorised removal would be apparent.
- (c) The seals, labels and postage stamps affixed to the parcel shall be so spaced that they cannot conceal injuries to the cover; and no label or postage stamp shall be folded over two sides of the cover so as to hide the edge. Address labels may be only used on parcels whose declared value is less than £120. If an address label is used it must not exceed 15 centimetres in length nor 10.7 centimetres in width.
- (d) Where the contents include coin, bullion or jewellery, they shall be enclosed in a strong metal box, or in a case made of wood of a minimum thickness of 10 millimetres, unless plywood is used and the edges are reinforced by metal angle strips, in which case the minimum thickness of the wood shall be 5 millimetres. The box or case shall be sewn up or otherwise fastened in a wrapper of linen, canvas, strong paper or other substantial material. The address shall be written on the actual outer covering of the parcel and seals not more than 75 millimetres apart shall be placed along the edges of each joint or loose flap. Where the contents exceed £120 in value the box or case shall be at least 1.05 metres in length and girth combined.

- (e) The sender shall mark on the cover of the parcel (by means other than a pencil) the words "Insured for" followed by the amount of money (in words and figures) for which the parcel is to be insured, which amount shall not exceed whichever shall be the lower of the following limits, that is to say, (i) in any case, the real monetary value of the contents and the packing, and (ii) in the case of a parcel for transmission through a British Forces Post Office or to a ship of the Royal Navy £100, and in any other case £1000 or such smaller amount as may be fixed from time to time by the relative postal arrangement.
- (f) Where the sender is required to fill up a despatch note he shall mark thereon (by means other than a pencil) the amount in words and figures for which the parcel is to be insured.
- (g) No erasure or correction shall be made in the address or in the amount for which the parcel is to be insured, wherever those particulars are to be shown.
- (h) There shall be charged and paid at the time of posting, in addition to the postage and any other charges payable on the parcel, an insurance fee appropriate to the amount for which the parcel is to be insured according to the scale of fees set out in Part 1 of Schedule 3.
- (i) On the posting of the parcel, the Post Office shall furnish to the sender a certificate of posting bearing an acknowledgement that the insurance fee has been paid and stating the amount for which the parcel has been insured. At the request of the sender, the Post Office shall furnish a duplicate of such certificate, on payment of a fee of 6½p.

(2) If an outgoing uninsured parcel addressed to such a country or place as is referred to in sub-paragraph (3) (a) of paragraph 6 is found in the post to contain any such thing as is mentioned in that sub-paragraph, the parcel may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Post Office may think fit.

(3) On the delivery of an incoming insured parcel, the recipient shall give a written receipt therefor in the prescribed form. Where such a receipt is not obtained, the parcel may nevertheless be delivered, or it may be withheld and dealt with or disposed of in such a manner as the Post Office may think fit.

Compensation

24.—In the case of parcels other than those for transmission through a British Forces Post Office outside the British Postal area, where the Post Office is satisfied that any article of pecuniary value enclosed in, or forming part of, a parcel (including an insured parcel) has been lost or damaged whilst in the course of transmission by post it may (but subject to and in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph) pay such sums as it may think just by way of compensation for such loss or damage to any person who in its opinion establishes a reasonable claim thereto, whether as the sender or as the addressee of the parcel.

(2) The total amount of compensation which the Post Office may pay under sub-paragraph (1) in respect of:

- (a) any one uninsured parcel and its contents shall not in any case exceed £25. Such payment shall be according to the scale set out in Part 2 of Schedule 3, having regard to the weight of the parcel;

- (b) any one outgoing insured parcel and its contents shall not in any case exceed £1000 having regard to the insurance fee paid in respect of the parcel according to the scale set out in Part 1 of Schedule 3 and the terms of any relative postal arrangement with a Postal Administration;
- (c) any one incoming insured parcel and its contents shall not in any case exceed £1000 having regard to the insurance fee paid in the country or place from which the parcel was transmitted and the terms of any relative postal arrangement with the Postal Administration of that country or place.

(3) Subject to paragraph (2), the maximum amount of compensation which the Post Office may pay under sub-paragraph (1) in respect of any article enclosed in or forming part of a parcel shall be such sum as, in its opinion, represents—

- (a) in a case where the Post Office is satisfied that the article has been lost or rendered valueless whilst in the course of transmission by post, the market value thereof (excluding the value of any message or communication) at the time of posting;
- (b) in any other case, the amount by which such value has been diminished by damage suffered whilst the parcel was in the course of transmission by post.

(4) No compensation may be paid under sub-paragraph (1) in respect of an outgoing uninsured parcel containing any such article as is mentioned in paragraph 6(3) if the parcel is addressed to a country or place to which, under the relative postal arrangement, insured parcels may be sent from the British postal area.

(5) No compensation may be paid under sub-paragraph (1) in respect of any parcel or its contents unless the Post Office is satisfied that the conditions set out in paragraph 7 and, in the case of an outgoing insured parcel, paragraph 23(1) have been complied with.

(6) In the case of a parcel which was redirected under paragraph 25 after delivery at the place to which it was addressed, no compensation may be paid under sub-paragraph (1) for loss of, or damage to, the parcel, or any of its contents while in the course of further transmission by post unless full postage and in the case of an insured parcel a fresh insurance fee, where possible, was prepaid on such redirection, in which case compensation may be paid subject to and in accordance with this paragraph, for any such loss or damage which the Post Office is satisfied occurred while the parcel was in the course of transmission by post after such redirection.

(7) No compensation may be paid under sub-paragraph (1) in respect of any parcel or its contents if the parcel has been destroyed or otherwise dealt with or disposed of by the Post Office pursuant to Section 8(3) of the Act or sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 12, paragraph 17 or sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) of paragraph 23 or by another Postal Administration under a provision of the law of the country or place of that Postal Administration.

(8) No compensation may be paid in respect of any parcel or its contents unless:

- (a) a claim for such compensation is received from the sender or the addressee within a period of 12 months beginning with the date on which the parcel was posted;
- (b) in the case of an outgoing parcel, a certificate was obtained on the posting of the parcel.
- (c) in a case where loss of the parcel is claimed and the Post Office so requires, a declaration is made by the addressee that the parcel was not delivered to him or to the place to which it was addressed;

(9) No compensation may be paid in respect of any parcel or its contents if it contains anything the posting of which is prohibited by or under any enactment or this Scheme.

(10) No compensation may be paid in respect of any parcel or its contents unless the address of the person to whom the parcel is to be transmitted is written fully and correctly on the cover thereof or on a label securely affixed or tied thereto.

(11) No compensation may be paid in respect of any parcel or its contents if the parcel was lost, damaged or destroyed in circumstances beyond the control of the Postal Administration in whose service the loss, damage or destruction occurred.

(12) If compensation has been paid to any person in respect of the loss of an insured parcel which the sender has insured for a sum exceeding the market value of the contents and packing and the parcel subsequently comes into the possession of the Post Office, then upon tender of the parcel to that person (whether or not he accepts it), he shall repay to the Post Office the sum paid by way of compensation or such part thereof as the Post Office may require.

(13) Where the Post Office pays compensation in respect of a parcel in accordance with the foregoing sub-paragraphs it may additionally pay an amount equivalent to the amount of postage paid by the sender of the parcel.

Redirection by the public

25.—(1) An incoming parcel may be redirected from its original address, or any substituted address, to the same addressee at any other address either within or outside the British postal area if (a) the parcel is eligible for transmission to the country or place of the new address and complies with the conditions applicable to such transmission, (b) the sender has not forbidden redirection by means of a note to that effect on the address side of the parcel in English or in any other language understood by the officers of the Post Office handling the parcel, and (c) the parcel does not appear to have been opened or altered otherwise than by the substitution of a new address of the same addressee which must not be so placed as to obscure the original writing of the name of the addressee.

(2) Subject to sub-paragraph (3), on redirection of an incoming parcel to an address within the British postal area, there shall be charged thereon additional postage of an amount equal to the amount of postage which would be charged and payable thereon if it were posted anew in that area to that address; and if such additional postage is not prepaid by the person redirecting the parcel, it shall be payable by the addressee on delivery of the parcel, and the Post Office may withhold delivery unless it is paid.

(3) The Post Office may (without prejudice to its general power of remission under paragraph 29) remit the additional postage payable under sub-paragraph (2) if (a) the parcel is redirected on the day of its delivery at the address from which it is redirected or on the next day following (Sundays, Christmas Day, New Year's Day, Good Friday and public holidays being disregarded for this purpose), and (b) the address to which it is so redirected is an address served from the same delivery office as the address from which it is redirected or is an address in the same local parcel delivery area.

(4) If the person redirecting an incoming parcel to an address outside the British postal area desires that the parcel shall be delivered free of any charge in respect of its transmission consequent upon such redirection (except Customs duty and other fees and charges (if any) of a kind referred to in paragraph 22), he shall pay thereon when redirecting it additional postage of an amount equal to the amount of postage which would be payable thereon if it were posted anew in that area to that address.

Advice of delivery (outgoing insured parcels only) enquiries and claims for compensation.

26.—(1) The sender of an outgoing insured parcel, on making a request in a prescribed form at the time of posting and on payment of an advice of delivery fee of 22½p may obtain an advice of delivery of the parcel.

(2) The sender of an outgoing parcel (insured or uninsured), on making a request within one year after the day of posting, and (unless, in the case of an insured parcel, an advice of delivery fee has already been paid) on payment of an enquiry fee of 40p may cause an enquiry to be made into the suspected loss or non-delivery of the parcel.

(3) The sender or addressee of an insured or an uninsured parcel shall, on making an application for compensation under this Scheme in the prescribed form, other than an application for compensation in respect of damage to the parcel or its contents, pay a fee of 40p which fee will be refunded to him in the event of compensation being paid by the Post Office.

Parcels in bond

27.—(1) The Post Office may, on application being made in such manner as it may direct by the addressee of any incoming parcel in bond:

- (a) make a search for the parcel, or provide any other service, in order that it may if possible receive expedited customs examination;
- (b) permit the addressee or his authorised agent, attending at the place where the parcel is, to inspect the parcel;
- (c) re-address the parcel to any person either within or outside the British postal area;
- (d) permit the addressee or his authorised agent, attending at the place where the parcel is, to re-address the parcel to any person either within or outside the British postal area; or

(2) There shall be charged and paid:

- (a) for each of the facilities mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) (a), (b), (c) and (e), the fee appropriate to the number of parcels comprised in the application, according to the scale of fees set out in columns 1 and 2 of Schedule 4;
- (b) for the facility mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) (d), the fee appropriate to the number of parcels comprised in the application, according to the scale of fees set out in columns 1 and 3 of Schedule 4.

(3) There shall be charged and paid by the applicant in respect of each parcel which is re-addressed under sub-paragraph 1 (c) or (d) of this paragraph:

- (b) if the new address is in a country or place outside the British postal area, the like amount of postage and fees as would be charged and payable on the parcel if it were posted anew in that area to that address.

(4) A parcel may not be re-addressed under this paragraph to an address in a country or place either within or outside the British postal area, unless it is eligible for transmission to that country or place and complies with the conditions applicable to such transmission.

(5) With respect to the clearance through Customs of a parcel or parcels stored in bond, the Post Office may charge a fee as follows:

- (a) For each parcel stored for a period not exceeding 28 days, the fee shall be £2.50 except where two or more parcels posted simultaneously by a sender to the same address are cleared through Customs simultaneously when the fee shall be:
 - (i) Where there are not more than 9 parcels: £1.50 for each parcel.
 - (ii) Where there are more than 9 parcels: 50p for each parcel subject to a minimum charge per consignment of £15.

(6) The fees charged under sub-paragraph (5) of this paragraph with respect to each parcel (other than a parcel which is returned to its sender) shall be paid by the addressee if the parcel shall be delivered to him, or by the original addressee if the parcel shall be re-addressed in accordance with sub-paragraph (1) (c) or (d) of this paragraph.

(7) For the purposes of this paragraph:

- (a) a parcel shall be deemed to be in bond when and so long as it is in the custody of the Post Office at a place appointed by the Post Office and the Commissioners of Customs and Excise as a place for customs examination;
- (b) "appointed place" means a place so appointed for that purpose;
- (c) a parcel shall be deemed to be stored in bond by the Post Office while it is in an appointed place, if and so long as:

 - (ii) being an air mail parcel addressed to a registered trader with respect to which the necessary documents for the purpose of making an entry or delivering an account of the goods therein were not delivered to the proper officer of Customs and Excise on or before its arrival at such a place, it is awaiting customs clearance, or is waiting to be re-addressed in pursuance of such an application;

and the period of such storage shall be deemed to have begun at the beginning of the day on which the customs notice was sent or, in the case of such a parcel as is mentioned in (ii) (above), at the beginning of the day on which the parcel was brought into an appointed place, and that period shall be deemed to terminate at the end of the day on which customs clearance is granted, or, if later (in the case of a parcel with respect to which such an application has been made), at the end of the day on which the parcel is re-addressed; and in the case of a parcel which has been transferred under sub-paragraph (1) (e), the period of storage shall be deemed to have continued unbroken while it was in course of transit to the nominated place;

34.—(1) The Post Office may make arrangements whereby the sender or addressee of a parcel, who has applied to the Post Office for compensation in respect of any article of pecuniary value enclosed in or forming part of that parcel which he claims was lost or damaged in the post and who is dissatisfied with the way in which his application has been dealt with by the Post Office, may submit a complaint to a complaints panel (the members of which are not members, servants or agents of the Post Office) so that a member of the panel may advise the Post Office on the merits of the complaint and submit to the Post Office by way of advice a recommendation either that a sum of money be paid to the complainant
