MISUSE OF DRUGS ACT 1971, SECTION 12

Direction Prohibiting Exercise of Powers in Relation to Controlled Drugs

In accordance with section 12(4) of the Misuse of Drugs Act, 1971, notice is hereby given that the Secretary of State gave the following direction which came into force on 27th June, 1984:

"Whereas William James Collins, M.P.S., a pharmacist within the meaning of the Misuse of Drugs Act, 1971, whose registered address is 5 Chatham Avenue, St. Anne's on Sea, Lancashire, was on 26th March, 1984, convicted of certain offences under the Misuse of Drugs Act, 1971.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of section 12(2) of the Misuse of Drugs Act, 1971, I hereby direct that the said William James Collins be prohibited from having in his possession, manufacturing, compounding and supplying and from supervising and controlling the manufacture, compounding and supply of any controlled drug within the meaning of that Act.

This Direction does not extend to the doing of anything in circumstances in which it might lawfully be done without being a pharmacist."

N. A. Nagler, an Assistant Secretary.

SUPPLEMENTS

The Department of Finance and Personnel has made regulations—Statutory Rule 1984, No. 248—entitled Ulster Savings Certificates (Index Linked) (Supplement) Regulations 1984, to provide for a supplement to be paid on Ulster Savings Index Linked Certificates as follows:—

An index linked certificate held at 31st October, 1983, and still held at 31st October, 1984, will have a supplement of 2.4% of the index linked value of that certificate at 31st October, 1983, added to the amount repayable on or after 1st November, 1984. If the certificate continues to be held the supplement will be indexed until month of repayment.

An index linked certificate purchased in or after November, 1983, but before October, 1984, will have a supplement of 0.2% of the purchase price for each whole calendar month from month of purchase up to the end of October, 1984, added to the amount repayable on or after the first anniversary of purchase of that certificate. If the certificate is held beyond the first anniversary of purchase the supplement will be indexed until month of repayment.

The supplement is additional to any index increase, bonus or supplement already payable on a certificate.
