28th November, 1930.

The Civil Service Commissioners for Northern Ireland hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Ministry of Finance for Northern Ireland, viz.:—

REGULATIONS RESPECTING LIMITED COMPETITIONS FOR THE SITUATION OF SHORTHAND TYPIST IN THE CIVIL SERVICE OF NORTHERN IRELAND.

1. A candidate must, on or before the commencing date of the competition, have completed to the satisfaction of her Department the prescribed period of probation prior to confirmation of appointment as an established

Typist in the Civil Service, and must on that date actually be serving in that capacity in a Department of the Government of Northern Ireland. A prospective candidate must obtain the permission of the authorities of the Department in which she is serving to enter the competition.

2. A candidate must be unmarried or a widow.

3. A candidate must be a natural born British subject and the daughter of a father who is, or, if deceased, was at the time of his death, a natural born British subject.

4. A successful candidate must satisfy the Commissioners, in such manner as they may require, that she is duly qualified in respect of health, physical fitness and character.

5. The competition will consist of a written examination in:—

Subject.	Marks.
(1) Shorthand	100
(2) English	100
(3) General Paper	50

No candidate will be declared successful who does not pass in Shorthand and secure an adequate percentage of the aggregate marks allotted to the three subjects. The pass mark in Shorthand and the qualifying percentage of the aggregate marks will be determined by the Commissioners.

6. Subject to the fulfilment of the conditions laid down in paragraph 5, the candidates at the head of the list resulting from the total marks awarded to them in the competition will be declared successful, up to such number as may be determined by the Commissioners, and will, if found to be qualified in respect of nationality, health, physical fitness and character, be offered appointments as vacancies arise, whether in the Department in which they are serving or otherwise as the Commissioners may think fit
