HISTORIC MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL
OBJECTS (NI) ORDER 1995

No. 1625 (NI 9) – Price £6.75

This Order repeals and re-enacts with amendments the Historic Monuments Act (Northern Ireland) 1971. It seeks to broadly harmonise Northern Ireland historic monuments legislation with that in Great Britain, while retaining powers which have long been a part of Northern Ireland provisions but which do not obtain in Great Britain.

Significant features of the Order include provisions for:

- (a) the scheduling of historic monuments, including monuments in territorial waters, and controls of work affecting them;
- (b) the acquisition and guardianship of historic monuments and lands in their vicinity, and public access to them, with appropriate facilities;
- (c) management agreements concerning historic monuments in private ownership;
- (d) the continuation of the Historic Monuments Council;
- (e) restrictions on the use and possession of detecting devices; and
- (f) restrictions on searching for archaeological objects and provisions for reporting of archaeological objects found.
