At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 17th day of March, 1932.

Present,

THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT
MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by Part II of the Administration of Justice Act, 1920, provision has been made for the reciprocal enforcement of judgments in the United Kingdom and in other parts of His Majesty's Dominions:

And Whereas by the said Act it is, amongst other things, provided that where His Majesty is satisfied that reciprocal provisions have been made by the Legislature of any part of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom for the enforcement within that part of His Dominions of judgments obtained in the High Court in England, the Court of Session in Scotland, and the High Court in Ireland, His Majesty may by Order in Council declare that the said part of that Act shall extend to that part of His Dominions, and that on any such Order being made the said part of that Act shall extend accordingly:

And Whereas on the 6th day of December, 1922, the Irish Free State was established under the provisions of an Act of Parliament shortly entitled the Irish Free State Constitution Act, 1922 (Session 2):

And Whereas His Majesty is satisfied that the Legislature of the part of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom herein-after mentioned has made reciprocal provisions for the enforcement within that part of judgments obtained in the High Court in England, the Court of Session in Scotland, and the High Court in Ireland:

Now, Therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers by the above-recited Act in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. Part II of the Administration of Justice Act, 1920, shall extend to the part of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom hereunder mentioned:—

TASMANIA.

2. Nothing in this Order shall affect the registration or enforcement in the Irish Free State of any judgment in pursuance of Part II of the said Act.

And the Right Honourable James Henry Thomas, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 21st day of July, 1932.

Present,

THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT
MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS His Majesty the King is satisfied that the Legislature of Norfolk Island has made adequate provision for the recognition in Norfolk Island of Probates and Letters of Administration granted by the Courts of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

And Whereas it is expedient that the Colonial Probates Act, 1892, should be extended to Norfolk Island:

Now, Therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers by the above-recited Act in His Majesty vested, is pleased by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

The Colonial Probates Act, 1892, shall from the date of this Order apply to Norfolk Island.
