Town & Country Planning
Belfast Metropolitan Area Plan (BMAP) 2015 Issues Paper

PUBLIC MEETINGS AND CONSULTATION PROCESS THE PLANNING (NORTHERN IRELAND) ORDER 1991

Planning Service, an agency within the Department of the Environment has recently published the Issues Paper for the proposed Belfast Metropolitan Area Plan. The Plan, which will be prepared within the context of the Regional Development Strategy, relates to the administrative areas of Belfast, Carrickfergus, Castlereagh, Lisburn, Newtownabbey and North Down Councils. The purpose of the plan is to provide a framework that will guide and control future development in the area up to the year 2015. The plan will cover a range of issues including housing, transport, education, health and community facilities, natural and built heritage, tourism and the green belt.

The Issues Paper forms the basis for public consultation and seeks to stimulate debate on important planning matters in the plan area. To encourage an inclusive consultation process, a series of information and consultation meetings are planned. The information meetings aim to provide background on the planning process and identify issues which have emerged to date. At the consultation meetings local and plan-wide issues will be discussed in-depth and views sought from the public. The outcome of the consultation will assist in the preparation of the Draft Plan.

Copies of the Issues Paper will be available at all of the meetings and may also be obtained free of charge from the BMAP Team, Clarence Court, 10-18 Adelaide Street, Belfast, from the offices of the various Councils within the Plan area or may be accessed on the DOE website www.doeni.gov.uk/planning.
