The Clerk of the Crown and Peace.

17. The Clerk of the Crown and Peace for and of the county of Antrim and county of the city of Belfast, shall be the Clerk of the Crown and Peace at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and shall have all powers of issuing summonses and subpoenas, and of taxing Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecutions and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners and traversers that the Clerk of the Crown and Peace of the county where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoners and traversers had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned county.

19. In any case where money is ordered by the Court at the Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County to be paid in respect of costs and expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of the county or place by whom the same would have been payable had a like Order been made by a Court of Oyer and Terminer, or Gaol Delivery, in the county where the trial would have taken place but for this Order.

Recommittal of Prisoners.

20. Where the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, shall remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an Order respecting a prisoner committed for trial but not acquitted or convicted of the charge in regard of which such Order is made, the Court may give such directions with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the county or place in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly without any writ of Habeas Corpus.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section sixty-nine of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, His Majesty is empowered by Order in Council to make such regulations as seem necessary or proper for setting in motion the Parliaments and Governments of Southern and Northern Ireland, and also for any other matter for which it seems to His Majesty necessary or proper to make provision for the purpose of bringing the said Act into full operation or for giving full effect to any of the provisions of the said Act, and in particular His Majesty is empowered amongst other things, by any such Order in Council, to make such adaptations of any enactments so far as they relate to Ireland as may appear to Him necessary or proper in order to give effect to the provisions of the said Act; and also to make any adaptations of any enactments so far as they relate to England or Scotland as may appear to Him necessary or proper as a consequence of any change effected by the provisions of the said Act:

And whereas it is necessary on account of the urgency of the matters dealt with by this Order that this Order should come into operation forthwith:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased; by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Government of Ireland (Election Laws Adaptation) (Northern Ireland) Order, 1922, and shall come into operation provisionally as from the date hereof in accordance with the provisions of section two of the Rules Publication Act, 1893.

(2) Subject to the express adaptations and modifications made by this Order, the General

Adaptation of Enactments (Northern Ireland) Order, 1921, and any other Order made under the said Act containing adaptations of general application shall, if and so far as they are applicable to the enactments adapted by this Order, apply thereto in like manner as to other enactments.

3.—(1) In the application of the election laws to elections of members to serve in the House of Commons for constituencies in Northern Ireland—

(a) references to constituencies shall be construed as references to constituencies named in Part II. of the Fifth Schedule to the Government of Ireland Act, 1920;
