

To the British and Foreign Sailors' Society, Dock Street, Belfast, the sum of £100.

To the Ulster Hospital for Children and Women, Templemore Avenue, Belfast, the sum of £100.

To the Belfast Ophthalmic Hospital, Great Victoria Street, Belfast, the sum of £100.

To the Workshops for the Blind, Royal Avenue, Belfast, the sum of £50.

To Dr. Barnardo's Homes, Holywood Road, Belfast, the sum of £50.

To the Irish Cripples' Institute, Donegall Road, Belfast, the sum of £50.

And the Testatrix desired that the above bequests might be applied towards carrying out the charitable designs of the above Institutions without any liability on the part of her Executors to see that they were so applied, and directed that the receipt of the Treasurer, Secretary or other responsible official of each of the said Institutions should be a sufficient discharge for each bequest.

To the Committee of the Ballywalter Presbyterian Church, County Down, the sum of £150, and it was the Testatrix's wish that the said Committee would invest the same and apply the income derived therefrom to the upkeep of the Askin Frazer graves in Whitechurch Graveyard, Ballywalter, and the Purse graves in Ballyhalbert Graveyard in decent order, repair and condition, and would give the surplus income (if any) in each year to the Minister for the time being of Ballywalter Presbyterian Church, to be used at his own discretion for the benefit of the poor of the congregation at Christmas, and she directed that the receipt of the Treasurer for the time being of the said Committee for the said bequest should be a good discharge to her Executors, who should not be under any obligation to see that the trusts above declared were observed.

Probate of the said Will and one Codicil was on the 5th day of May, 1936, granted forth of the Principal Registry, King's Bench Division (Probate) of the High Court of Justice in Northern Ireland, to Walter Askin Frazer and John William Renshaw, both of Belfast, the Executors therein named.

Dated the 5th day of June, 1936.
