

MARKETING OF EGGS.
DETERMINATION OF WHOLESALE
DEALERS' PRICES.

ORDER DATED THE ELEVENTH DAY OF OCTOBER, 1937, MADE BY THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE UNDER SECTION ONE OF THE MARKETING OF EGGS ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1936.

The Ministry of Agriculture, in exercise of the powers conferred on it by Section one of the Marketing of Eggs Act (Northern Ireland), 1936, and of every other power enabling it in that behalf, and in accordance with advice given by the Egg Marketing Committee for Northern Ireland, hereby determines as follows, that is to say:—

1. The prices payable by licensed wholesale dealers in eggs for eggs purchased by them from licensed wholesale dealers of Class B or from producers where the eggs have been produced by the producers' own hens or ducks shall be such prices as are determined from time to time by the Ministry of Agriculture, and, accordingly, a licensed wholesale dealer shall not make full payment for any eggs purchased by him from a licensed wholesale dealer of Class B or from a producer where the eggs have been produced by the producer's own hens or ducks, until the price applicable to such purchase has been determined by the Ministry of Agriculture.
2. A licensed wholesale dealer shall not purchase hen eggs from a licensed wholesale dealer of Class B or from a producer where the eggs have been produced by the producer's own hens, otherwise than by weight and in terms of, and by reference to, imperial standard pounds and ounces.

3. The Interpretation Act, 1889(a), as applied to Northern Ireland by the Interpretation Act, 1921(b), shall apply for the purpose of the interpretation of this Order as it applies for the purpose of the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.
4. This Order may be cited as the Market-of Eggs (Determination of Wholesale Dealers' Prices) Order (Northern Ireland), 1937.

Sealed with the Official Seal of the Ministry of Agriculture for Northern Ireland this eleventh day of October, Nineteen hundred and thirty-seven, in the presence of

G. S. ROBERTSON,
Secretary.

CLOSING OF THE BURIAL GROUND
AT DONAGHEADY.
PUBLIC HEALTH.

RURAL DISTRICT OF STRABANE.

WHEREAS in pursuance of the provisions of section 162 of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, a representation has been made to the Ministry of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland that, for the maintenance of public decency and to prevent a violation of the respect due to the remains of deceased persons, burials should be discontinued in the Burial Ground at Donagheady, in the Rural District of Strabane:

And Whereas in pursuance of the provisions of section 163 of the said Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, the said Ministry gave Notice in the Belfast Gazette on the 21st September, 1934, that the said Ministry had directed F. J. Deane, Esq., M.B., B.Ch., one of its Inspectors, to hold a Local Inquiry into the matter of the said representation on Tuesday, the 16th day of October, 1934, at 11 o'clock a.m., at the office of the Rural District Council,

Strabane, and copies of the said Notice were duly affixed on the places on which they are required to be affixed by the said section 163, three weeks at least before the date of the said Inquiry:

And Whereas the said F. J. Deane duly held the said Inquiry at the time and place aforesaid:

And Whereas the said Ministry has received the Report of the said F. J. Deane as to the result of the said Inquiry and of the evidence taken thereon, and has taken the same into consideration accordingly:

Now, therefore, the Ministry of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland, in exercise of the powers vested in it by the said Act, hereby orders that burials shall be discontinued, and they are hereby prohibited in the Burial Ground at Donagheady from and after the first day of January, 1938, subject to the exceptions following, that is to say, there shall be reserved to the persons named in the schedule hereto the right of interment in their family graves in the said Burial Ground subject to the limitations set out in the third column of the said schedule:
