BY THE GOVERNOR AND PRIVY COUNCIL IN NORTHERN IRELAND.

ABERCORN.

WHEREAS by sub-Section 1 of Section 10 of the Sheriffs (Ireland) Act, 1920, it is enacted that the Lord Lieutenant may by Order in Council make such adaptations of any enactments relating to Sheriffs or Under Sheriffs as appear to him to be necessary or proper for carrying the principal Act into effect.

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the 8th day of April, 1921, adaptations of the provisions of the Civil Bill Courts Procedure Amendment Act (Ireland), 1864, were made for the purpose of limiting the number of process-servers who may be appointed bailiffs and for other purposes, so that the number of persons who might be appointed to the joint office of process-server and bailiff in any County or County Borough should not at any time exceed the number set opposite to the name of such County or County Borough in the Schedule to the said Order.

And whereas by virtue of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, the several orders made thereunder and the Irish Free State (Consequential Provisions) Act, 1922, all the powers and authorities of the Lord Lieutenant under the said Sheriffs (Ireland) Act, 1920, in their application to Northern Ireland are now vested in Me as Governor of Northern Ireland.

And whereas it appears to Me necessary and proper that as regards County Armagh, County Londonderry and County Tyrone, the number of persons who may be appointed to the joint office of process-server and Bailiff for each of these counties as provided by said schedule should be increased by one in each case, and that the said Order in Council should be amended, and the said Civil Bill Courts Procedure Amendment Act (Ireland), 1864, adapted accordingly.

Now I, the Governor of Northern Ireland, by and with the advice and consent of His Majesty's Privy Council in Northern Ireland, by virtue and in pursuance of the powers vested in Me for that purpose as aforesaid, and of all other powers enabling Me in that behalf, do hereby order, declare and appoint as follows:—

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section six of the Irish Free State (Consequential Provisions) Act, 1922, it is provided that His Majesty may by Order in Council make such adaptations of any enactments so far as they relate to any of His Majesty's Dominions other than the Irish Free State as may appear to Him necessary or proper as a consequence of the establishment of the Irish Free State, and that any such Order in Council may contain such supplemental, consequential, and incidental provisions as may appear necessary or proper for the purposes of the Order :

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

1. This Order may be cited as the Irish Free State (Consequential Adaptation of Enactments) Order, 1923.

2. Subject to the provisions of this Order and of any subsequent Order in Council made under section six of the Irish Free State (Consequential Provisions) Act, 1922, references in any enactment passed before the establishment of the Irish Free State to "the United Kingdom" or "the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland," or "Great Britain and Ireland" or "Great Britain or Ireland," or "the British Islands" or "Ireland," shall, in the application of the enactment to any part of Great Britain and Ireland other than the Irish Free State, be construed as exclusive of the Irish Free State, except that in the Acts mentioned in the Schedule to this Order any such expression as aforesaid shall, to the extent specified in that Schedule, be construed as including the Irish Free State :

Provided that nothing in this Article shall—

(a) apply to any enactment so as to affect the liability to, or the assessment or collection of, any tax or duty the liability whereof, or the assessment or collection whereof, is regulated by section two of the Irish Free State Constitution Act, 1922, or to sections ninety-four and ninety-five of the Probates and Letters of Administration (Ireland) Act, 1857, and sections thirteen and fourteen of the Confirmation of Executors (Scotland) Act, 1858, as respectively modified by the Government of Ireland (Re-sealing, &c., of Probates) Order, 1922, in relation to cases where death duties payable on the death of the person to whom representation is granted are regulated by the said section two; or

(b) apply to any enactment regulating the administration of any public service the transfer of the administration whereof to the Government of the Irish Free State is, by virtue of Article seventy-nine of the Constitution of the Irish Free State, deferred, so as to effect the administration of that service prior to the transfer; or

(c) apply to any enactment designed for the enforcement of any international convention which is binding on the Irish Free

State so as to prejudice the powers of fulfilling the obligations imposed by the convention.

3. Subject as aforesaid, references to "the United Kingdom" or "the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland" or "Great Britain and Ireland" or "Great Britain or Ireland," or "the British Islands" or "Ireland," in any enactment passed before the establishment of the Irish Free State which applies to parts of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom, or outside the British Islands, as the case may be, shall, in the application of the enactment to any such part, be construed as references both—

(a) to Great Britain and Ireland or the British Islands exclusive of the Irish Free State, or as the case may be, to Ireland exclusive of the Irish Free State; and

(b) to the Irish Free State.

Provided that where by any such enactment the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands are to be deemed for the purposes of the enactment to form part of the United Kingdom, they shall not for the purposes of this Article be deemed to be parts of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom.

4.—(1) Subject to the provisions of section two of the Irish Free State Constitution Act, 1922, the Irish Free State shall, in relation to any part of Great Britain or Northern Ireland, be deemed to be parts beyond the seas for customs purposes and for the purposes of sub-section (1) of section six of the Post Office Act, 1908.

(2) Subject as aforesaid a ship trading between any port in any part of the British Islands other than the Irish Free State and a port in the Irish Free State shall be deemed to be employed in coasting trade for the purposes of sections four hundred and thirty-seven and four hundred and thirty-eight of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and for the purposes of any enactment relating to rates, tolls, dues and other charges leviable by a port, dock or harbour authority in Great Britain or Northern Ireland.

5.—(1) Sub-section (2) of section thirty-nine of the Larceny Act, 1916, shall be construed as authorizing the indictment, trial and punishment in any part of Great Britain and Ireland other than the Irish Free State of a person who steals or otherwise feloniously takes any property in the Irish Free State if he has the property so stolen in his possession in such part of Great Britain and Ireland as aforesaid, as if he had actually stolen or taken it in that part.

(2) Sub-section (3) of section thirty-nine of the Larceny Act, 1916, shall be construed as authorizing a person who receives in any part of Great Britain and Ireland other than the Irish Free State any property stolen or otherwise feloniously taken in the Irish Free State to be dealt with, indicted, tried and punished in the part of Great Britain and Ireland where he so receives the property in the same manner as if it had been originally stolen or taken in that part.

6. A railway or canal company in Ireland whose system is situate partly in Northern Ireland and partly in the Irish Free State shall not be deemed to be a railway or canal company in Northern Ireland for the purposes of paragraph (g) or paragraph (h) of section one of the Trustee Act, 1893, as adapted by this Order.

7. Sub-section (4) of section two hundred and fifty-four of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, shall have effect as if for references to the Registrar-General of Births and Deaths in Ireland there were substituted references to the officer who performs the duties of registrar of births and deaths in the Irish Free State and Northern Ireland respectively.

8.—(1) The provisions of any enactments which are applicable to—

(a) the endorsement and execution in England, Scotland, the Channel Islands, or the Isle of Man of warrants issued by justices, courts or judges of courts in Ireland;

(c) the enforcement in England or Scotland of the attendance of witnesses before persons appointed for the examination of witnesses in England or Scotland by a commission, order, or other process of courts in Ireland;

(d) the operation in England of inquisitions taken or writs of suppna issued in proceedings in lunacy in Ireland, or the management and administration of property in England or Scotland of a person found lunatic by inquisition in Ireland, or of property in England of a person of unsound mind in Ireland;

shall apply respectively to—

and such warrants, writs of suppna, commissions, orders and other processes, and inquisitions and writs of suppna shall in Northern Ireland have the like effect and shall be dealt with in like manner and with the like consequences as if they had originated in England.

(2) For the purposes of the Fugitive Offenders Acts, 1881 and 1915, in their application to any part of His Majesty's Dominions outside the British Islands, the Irish Free State and the British Islands exclusive of the Irish Free State shall be treated as if they were separate parts of His Majesty's Dominions.

9. The Old Age Pensions Act, 1911, in its application to Great Britain and Northern Ireland, shall have effect as if in the proviso to sub-section (2) of section three the following paragraph was inserted after paragraph (e):—

10. Section twenty of the Superannuation Act, 1834, shall, in its application to any person who at the date of the establishment of the Irish Free State was in receipt of any such superannuation allowance or compensation as is mentioned in that section, have effect as if the expression "any office in any public department" included an office in a public department of the Irish Free State.

11. Where any Act applies to, or may be applied to, any part of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom or the British Islands as the case may be, nothing in this Order shall be construed as applying the Act or making the Act applicable to the Irish Free State as such a part of His Majesty's Dominions as aforesaid unless and until provision is made for the purpose by the Parliament of the Irish Free State in pursuance of the powers conferred by section three of the Irish Free State Constitution Act, 1922:

Provided that the Irish Free State shall, for the purposes of the enactments relating to the Post Office, be deemed to be a British Possession the legislature whereof has made provision for the establishment, maintenance and regulation of posts within the possession.

12. Subject to the provisions of section two of the Irish Free State Constitution Act, 1922, spirits and plate manufactured in the Irish Free State shall not be deemed to be British spirits and British wrought plate respectively within the meaning of the Customs Acts in the application to those Acts to Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

14. Nothing in this Order shall affect any rates, tolls, dues, or other charges leviable under any Act of Parliament by any port, dock, or harbour authority in Great Britain or Northern Ireland in respect of any traffic going to or coming from any place in the Irish Free State, nor shall the establishment of the Irish Free State be deemed to have affected any such charges.

15.—(1) Nothing in this Order shall affect the construction of any expression in the Land Purchase Acts so as to prevent the provision of funds required for the purpose of completing transactions in relation to land in the Irish Free State which are pending under those Acts on the thirty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and twenty-three.

(2) The powers of the Lord Lieutenant under section thirty-seven of the Irish Land Act, 1903, shall be exercisable by the Secretary of State, and shall include power with the approval of the Treasury to make regulations for the purpose of determining the persons entitled to draw upon the Land Purchase Fund after the thirty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and twenty-three in respect of such transactions as aforesaid, and the manner in which such drafts may be made.

17. This Order, so far as it relates to Northern Ireland, and as the matters contained therein are matters with respect to which the Parliament of Northern Ireland has power to make laws shall be subject to alteration or revocation by Acts passed by that Parliament.
