MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS,
NORTHERN IRELAND.

THE LONDONDERRY BRIDGE ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1922.

WHEREAS in pursuance of Section 9 of the Londonderry Bridge Act (Northern Ireland), 1922, the Ministry of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland is required to appoint a person to hold an Inquiry and report to the said Ministry as to the expediency (due regard being had to the benefit to be derived from the Bridge) of extending (and, if so, to what extent) the areas over which the annual sums not exceeding £4,000 and £3,000, respectively, by this Act authorised to be levied and raised, shall be so levied and raised, or of exempting entirely or in part the present contributory areas from any future proportions or contributions to the cost of the maintenance and repair of the Bridge and from contributions to the reserve fund, and as to the proportions in which the said annual sums should be levied and raised over the areas in which in the opinion of the person holding the Inquiry the same should be levied and raised :

The Ministry of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland hereby give Notice that they have directed their Inspector, Robert John Newell, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, to hold a Local Inquiry at the Guildhall, Londonderry, on Tuesday, the 29th May, 1923, at 12 o'clock noon.
