

The Edinburgh Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 27, 1889.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 19th day of August 1889.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Secretary for Scotland has, under the provisions of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, made a representation, stating that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor of the Sheriff-Substitute of Perthshire, finding, on a Petition presented to him by certain Persons assessed for the Relief of the Poor within the Parish of Redgorton, and certain Householders at Pitcairnfield, in the said Parish, in the County of Perth, 'that the Burial Ground of St. Serf at Pitcairnfield, in the Parish of Redgorton and County of Perth, is dangerous to health, offensive, and contrary to decency:'

And whereas in the said representation it is recommended that the said Burial Ground be closed for Burials:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the 7th day of October next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order, or notice thereof, be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and that copies of this Order, or notice thereof, be affixed, as required by the above-mentioned Act, on the doors of the Church of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the Parish affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered.
