

which may be granted for the Invention or the registration of the Design or Trade Mark.

The application for the grant of a Patent, or the registration of a Design, or the registration of a Trade Mark under the said provisions must be made in the same manner as an ordinary application under the said Act: provided that in the case of Trade Marks, any Trade Mark, the registration of which has been duly applied for in the country of origin, may be registered under the said Act.

And it is further provided—

That where it is made to appear to Her Majesty that the Legislature of any British Possession has made satisfactory provision for the protection of Inventions, Designs, and Trade Marks patented or registered in this country, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by Order in Council, to apply the provisions first recited, with such variations or additions, if any, as to Her Majesty in Council may seem fit, to such British Possession.

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the Legislature of the Colony of New Zealand has made satisfactory provision for the protection of Inventions, Designs, and Trade Marks patented or registered in this country:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said first mentioned Act, doth declare, and it is hereby declared, that the provisions of the said Acts hereinbefore specified shall apply to the Colony of New Zealand;

And it is further ordered and declared that this Order shall take effect, so far as regards Patents, at the expiration of seven months, and so far as regards Designs and Trade Marks, at the expiration of four months, from the day and date first above written.
