LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE,
ST. JAMES'S PALACE, March 25, 1890.

NOTICE is hereby given that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Wednesday the 21st of May next.

LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE,
ST. JAMES'S PALACE, March 25, 1890.

Notice is hereby given that the State Apartments of Windsor Castle will be open to the Public on and after Easter Monday, the 7th of April next.

At the Court at Windsor, the 21st day of March 1890.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This day Sir William Ventris Field was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

At the Court at Windsor, the 21st day of March 1890.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by Orders in Council made by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty on the twelfth February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, twenty-seventh June one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, ninth December one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and fifteenth July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, Her Majesty did, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, order, among other matters, that a Lower Division of the Civil Service should be constituted, to consist of Men Clerks and Boy Clerks engaged to serve in any Department of the State to which they might from time to time be appointed or transferred; that no Department throughout Her Majesty's Civil Service should be permanently increased or regulated afresh without providing for the introduction of a system whereby such of its duties as were of a suitable character should be performed by members of such Lower Division; that such situations in Her Majesty's Civil Service as were not suitable to be filled by members of such Lower Division should be excluded from the Orders, and should, until declaration of Her Majesty's further pleasure, be regulated as theretofore; that no vacancies should be filled up nor any new appointments made in any Department, except by appointing Clerks of the Lower Division, until the Commissioners of the Treasury had been satisfied that the number of Clerks servicing in such Department with higher salaries than those of the Lower Division were not in excess of the number sufficient to perform superior duties; that the salaries of Men Clerks in the Lower Division should commence at eighty pounds, and should rise by triennial increments of fifteen pounds to two hundred pounds; but that in any office where a regular attendance of seven hours a day was required, the commencing salary might be ninety-five pounds, and the maximum salary might be two hundred and fifty pounds; that extra pay, not exceeding one hundred pounds per annum, might be attached to certain situations open to Clerks of the Lower Division whose duties involved the superintendence of other Clerks, or were otherwise of a more responsible character than such as the generality of their colleagues had to perform; that promotion from the Lower to the Higher Division of the Service should not be made without a special certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners, to be granted exceptionally, after not less than ten years' service, upon a special recommendation from the Head of the Department, and with the assent of the Treasury; that below the Lower Division of Ordinary Clerks (including Boy Clerks) Men and Boy Copyists might be employed for mere copying and for routine work under direct supervision, on the same conditions of service as those then in force for Civil Service Writers:

And whereas by an Order in Council, dated the twenty-eighth day of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, it was provided that Men Clerks appointed after the date of that Order should give a regular attendance of not less than seven hours a day, and that the salaries of such Men Clerks should commence at seventy pounds per annum, and should rise by such increments to such sums as might thereafter be fixed by Order in Council:

And whereas it appears from certain recent Reports made by Sir Matthew White Ridley, Baronet, and others appointed by Her Majesty to be a Royal Commission for inquiring into various questions connected with the organisation of Civil Departments of the State, that further Regulations are required in order to improve the organisation of the Civil Service:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The name 'Lower Division' is hereby changed to 'Second Division'; but Boy Clerks appointed under the Order in Council, dated the twelfth day of February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, shall be held not to belong to the Second Division.

2. This Order shall apply only to the Second Division of the Civil Service, as defined by clause one.

3. The salaries of Clerks in the Second Division, for a daily attendance of seven hours, shall commence at seventy pounds per annum, and shall rise by annual increments as follows, viz.:—

From seventy pounds to one hundred pounds by annual increments of five pounds.

From one hundred pounds to one hundred and ninety pounds by annual increments of seven pounds ten shillings.

From one hundred and ninety pounds to two hundred and fifty pounds by annual increments of ten pounds.

4. A higher grade of the Second Division shall be and is hereby established, with salaries commencing at two hundred and fifty pounds per annum, and rising by annual increments of ten pounds to three hundred and fifty pounds.

5. The annual increments of salary shall not be allowed without an annual certificate from the immediate superior of each Clerk, countersigned by the Head of the Department or such officer as he may designate for the purpose, to the effect that such Clerk's conduct has during the year immediately preceding the date of such certificate been in all respects satisfactory.

When the salary of any Clerk appointed after the twenty-eighth May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine reaches one hundred pounds, a special Report, to be officially recorded in writing, on the competence, character, and diligence of such Clerk, shall be required from the Head of the room, and from the Head of the Division in which, respectively, such Clerk is serving or has served; and until this Report is received and countersigned by the Head of the Department as satisfactory, such Clerk shall not receive any further advance in salary.

When the salary of any Clerk appointed after the twenty-eighth May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine reaches one hundred and ninety pounds, he shall not receive any further increment unless he obtain a Report to be officially recorded in writing from his immediate superiors, confirmed by the Head of the Department, that he is thoroughly competent to perform efficiently work of a superior and more advanced character in the future.

6. Promotion to the higher grade established under clause four of this Order shall be made (subject to the provisions of clause sixteen of this Order) according to positive merit, and not according to seniority.

A promotion to the said higher grade shall be made whenever any Clerk, who is not in receipt of extra pay, shall reach a salary of two hundred and fifty pounds; but, irrespective of this condition, the Head of a Department may recommend, and the Commissioners of the Treasury may sanction, as a very exceptional case, the promotion to the higher grade of a specially meritorious Clerk who is in receipt of a salary less than two hundred and fifty pounds.

7. Clerks who are required to attend seven hours a day shall be allowed a half holiday on alternate Saturdays, provided that the Heads of the Departments in which such Clerks are respectively serving are satisfied that the state of public business will permit.

8. The ordinary annual holidays allowed to Clerks shall not exceed fourteen week-days during each of their first five years of service, and twenty-one week-days thereafter, exclusive in both cases of Christmas Day, Good Friday, the Queen's Birthday, and (subject to the convenience of the public service) the four Bank Holidays. Provided that nothing in this clause shall affect the rights of existing Clerks who, under the Regulations of the respective Departments in which they are serving, are entitled to holidays in excess of those herein prescribed.

9. Sick leave may be granted by the Head of a Department to any Clerk serving in such Department, but subject to the following conditions, viz.:—

(1) After two days' continuous absence, a certificate by a duly qualified medical practitioner shall be required.

(2) If the number of days during which any

Clerk in any year is absent without such medical certificate shall exceed seven in the aggregate, the number of days by which such aggregate period of absence exceeds seven shall be deducted from the amount of ordinary annual holidays which may be allowed under clause eight of this Order.

(3) Continuous sick leave on full salary shall not be granted for any period longer than six months, but at the expiration of such six months the Head of the Department may at his discretion grant further leave, with salary at half the ordinary rate, for any period not exceeding six months. After twelve months' continuous sick leave no Clerk shall be paid any salary, except with the consent of the Commissioners of the Treasury, who may at their discretion, in special circumstances, allow payment of salary during any further period of sick leave to a Clerk at a rate not exceeding the amount of pension (if any) for which, at the expiration of twelve months' sick leave, the Clerk would have been qualified.

(4) Cases of repeated but not continuous sick leave amounting in the aggregate to upwards of twelve months during any period of eighteen months shall be reported to the Commissioners of the Treasury, who shall decide the payments in respect of salary to be made during such sick leave.

10. An Attendance Book shall be kept in every Department, in which the times of arrival and departure of every Clerk shall be daily recorded.

11. No Clerk shall be allowed to accept any part in the management of any Society, or any trading, commercial, or financial Company of whatever description, which would require the attendance of such Clerk at any time between the hours of ten a.m. and six p.m.

12. Clause eighteen of the Order in Council of the twelfth day of February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six shall be read as if the words 'eight years' service' were substituted for the words 'ten years' service.'

13. All Clerks appointed after the twenty-eighth May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and all Clerks appointed before that date who shall be promoted to the higher grade of the Second Division established by clause four of this Order, shall be required to give a regular attendance of not less than seven hours daily; and, as regards all other Clerks appointed before the twenty-eighth May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, who are giving, at the date of this Order, an attendance of six hours only, the hours of attendance shall be extended to seven, so soon as circumstances will permit, on the conditions specified in clause fourteen of this Order, subject, in each case, to agreement between the Commissioners of the Treasury and the Heads of the respective Departments in which such Clerks are serving as to the date of such extension of hours, and the reduction in the numbers of such Clerks to be made consequent thereon.

14. Clerks who were appointed before the twenty-eighth May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and who may be called upon at any time antecedent to their promotion to the higher grade of the Second Division to attend seven hours instead of six, shall be granted an increase of salary of fifteen pounds per annum from the date on which the extension of hours takes place; but Clerks who at the date of their promotion to such higher grade are giving six hours' attendance only shall, on promotion, give the attendance of seven hours without any such increase of salary.

15. Clerks appointed before the twenty-eighth May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine shall be placed upon the new scale of salary sanctioned in this Order under the following conditions:—

(1) They shall retain the salary with extra pay, if any, which they are receiving at the date of this Order.

(2) They shall receive as from the first April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine an increment of salary equal to the proportion of their triennial increment of fifteen pounds (omitting any fraction of a pound sterling) which may have accrued up to that date.

(3) The next increment after that described in the preceding paragraph shall accrue on the first April one thousand eight hundred and ninety; and this and all following increments shall depend upon the rate of salary, exclusive of extra pay, and shall be determined according to clause three of this Order.

Provided always, that if a Clerk be in receipt of extra pay, and his total emoluments are not less than two hundred and fifty pounds, he shall receive no further increment unless he be certified by the Head of the Department in which he is serving to be thoroughly competent; and if he be not in receipt of extra pay, and his salary be not less than two hundred and fifty pounds (or two hundred pounds in case he be a Clerk who is required to give a daily attendance of six hours only), he shall receive no further increment unless he be promoted under clause six of this Order.

Provided further, that under no circumstances shall a Clerk, with or without extra pay, who is transferred to the new scale under this Order, be allowed to rise beyond a maximum of three hundred and fifty pounds.

16. Any Clerk who is in receipt of extra pay shall, when his total emoluments reach two hundred and fifty pounds, be forthwith placed in the higher grade established under clause four of this Order, if he be certified by the Head of the Department in which he is serving to be thoroughly competent; after which he shall rise to a maximum of three hundred and fifty pounds, including extra pay, but no more.

17. Clause one of the Order in Council of the twelfth February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six shall be read, from and after the date of this Order, as if the words, 'and of Boy Clerks,' were omitted therefrom.

18. Clause five of the Order in Council of the twelfth February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six shall be read, from and after the date of this Order, as if the words, 'of the Lower Division,' following the words, 'for Boy Clerks,' were omitted therefrom.

19. Clause fourteen of the Order in Council of the twelfth February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six is hereby repealed.

20. Clauses sixteen and seventeen of the said Order in Council, authorising and regulating the grant of extra pay, are hereby repealed.

8. All the funds and estates at present belonging to the University of St. Andrews as now existing, or to either of its present Colleges, shall continue to be appropriated to University and College uses respectively in St. Andrews, and all funds which are or shall be vested in or bequeathed to the said University, or to either of the said Colleges, by any deed or writing dated on or before the 31st December 1890, shall, if bequeathed for specific purposes, be appropriated to the purposes for which they have been bequeathed, and if bequeathed without designation of a specific purpose, shall be devoted to the further endowment of the offices of the Principals, Professors, Lecturers, and Class Assistants, and to other University or College uses in St. Andrews; and all funds thereafter gifted or bequeathed to either of the Colleges of the University of St. Andrews at St. Andrews shall also be devoted to the use of the College in St. Andrews to which they are gifted or bequeathed.
