COUNTY OF PERTH.

Order by the Secretary for Scotland, under section 108 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, with regard to the formation of Districts.

Whereas by section 77, sub-section 1, of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, it is provided that the County Council shall, at their first meeting in the month of May next after the passing of the Act, and thereafter from time to time, divide the County into Districts, for the purposes in the said section mentioned, in such manner that each District shall comprise a group of Electoral Divisions, and that each Parish, so far as within the County, shall be wholly included in one District; and whereas in certain Counties there are Parishes with detached parts thereof situated within the County, but at such distance from the main part as to render it inexpedient, when the County is to be divided into Districts, that such detached portions should be included in the same District as the main parts of the Parishes; and whereas by section 108, sub-section 2, of said Local Government Act, it is provided that the Secretary for Scotland, on the application of a County Council, may, within six months after the date fixed for the first Election of Councillors of such Council, from time to time make such Orders as appear to him to be necessary for bringing the Act into full operation as respects the Council so
