NOTICE is hereby given that the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, have made the following Regulations as to the Retirement of Assessors in the Universities of St. Andrews, Glasgow, Aberdeen, and Edinburgh.

ROBT. FITZROY BELL, Secretary.
4th July 1890.

UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.

REGULATIONS AS TO THE RETIREMENT OF ASSESSORS.

WHEREAS, by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 5, sub-section 2, to regulate the period for which the three new Assessors elected by the General Council shall hold office, having regard to the time at which the existing Assessor of the General Council of each University falls to retire, so as to provide that in future two such Assessors shall retire from office biennially: and whereas it is provided by the said Act that the Assessor of the General Council of each University in office at the passing of the said Act, shall continue in office for two years from the date of the elections of the additional Assessors: and whereas such elections took place in the University of St. Andrews on the 2nd day of April 1890; in the University of Glasgow on the 20th day of December 1889; in the University of Aberdeen on the 27th day of November 1889; in the University of Edinburgh on the 29th day of November 1889.

And whereas the Commissioners are further empowered to regulate the period for which the new Assessors to be elected by the Senatus Academicus of each University shall hold office, so as to provide in future for a regular system of rotation: and whereas it is provided by the said Act that the Assessor of the Senatus Academicus of each University in office at the passing of the said Act shall continue in office for such period, not exceeding four years in all, from the date of his election; as the Commissioners shall appoint.

Therefore the Commissioners make the following Regulations:—
