WESTMINSTER LIFE INSURANCE & ANNUITY OFFICE IN THE STRAND, AND IN CORNHILL, LONDON.

THIS Office was established in 1792, and insures the Lives of Persons desirous of securing independency to their Families, or to provide for them in any way agreeable to their wishes; to effect which, an Annual Premium will be received for the payment of a gross sum, or of an annuity, to become due and payable at the decease of a person insured, to his widow, children, or other representatives as he may appoint.

Insurances may be made for a variety of other purposes:—to provide for renewal of leases;—to secure sums paid for places or employments, or for the purchase of life estates;—or in aid of arrangements between debtor and creditor, &c. &c. which is explained further in the printed rates and conditions of Insurance, which may be had gratis, with the list of Directors as above, or of the Agents of the BRITISH FIRE OFFICE in the Country, who are appointed Agents for this Office.

Annuities are granted to commence immediately, and are payable at Michaelmas and Lady-day in every year, or by agreement, at either of the other quarter days.

The rates and conditions are also delivered gratis at their Office in Dame Street, Dublin; and by their Agents in the cities and large towns in Ireland.

Attendance is daily given for granting Insurances and Annuities, and a Board of Directors is held every Tuesday, at one o'clock, at their Office in the Strand, and on Thursday at the same hour, at their Office in Cornhill.

ROBERT SKELTON, Sec.

BRITISH FIRE OFFICE, STRAND AND CORNHILL, LONDON.

INSURANCES against Loss or Damage by FIRE continue to be made on Houses, Buildings, Manufactories, Goods and Merchandize, Ships, Vessels, Barges, and every kind of Craft, with their Freight, Cargoes, and Stores, in any Harbour, River, or on any Navigation, FARMING STOCK, and all other property, in any part of Great Britain and Ireland.

Persons who remain uninsured, will do well to reflect on the many calamities occasioned by FIRE; and of the dreadful consequences to many individuals: and as property, in general, has considerably increased in value, those already insured should reconsider their policies, and make such addition as prudence may suggest.

Annual payments due at LADY-DAY, must be made within Fifteen Days therefrom, or the benefit of the Policy will be lost; but insurance may be renewed after, without a new policy. Printed proposals and conditions of Insurance, and a list of the Directors, Trustees, &c. may be had gratis, and of the Agents in all the cities and principal towns in England, Scotland, and Wales.—For the convenience of their friends in Ireland, they have established an Office in Dame Street, Dublin, where, and of the Agents in the principal-cities and towns, proposals are also to be had gratis.

ROBERT SKELTON, Sec.
