COUNTY OF PERTH.

Parishes of Kilmadock and Kincardine.

WHEREAS part of the Parish of Kincardine is, as shown on the Ordnance Survey Maps, detached from the main portion of the said Parish, being separated from it by a portion of the Parish of Kilmadock:

And whereas it appears to us, after communicating with the Authorities and others interested, to be expedient to alter and adjust the Boundaries of the said Parishes in manner hereinafter provided:

Now, therefore, we, the Boundary Commissioners for Scotland, do hereby, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon us by the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, determine and order as follows:

I. Subject to the provisions of the said Act, so much of the Parish of Kilmadock as lies to the south of a line starting at a point in the centre of the Coldoch Road near Ramoth, on the existing boundary between the Parish of Kilmadock and the main portion of the Parish of Kincardine, and running in a south-westerly direction along the centre of the said Road till it crosses the Water of Goodie, and thence in a generally westerly direction along the medium flum of the said Water to the point at which it meets the boundary of the detached part of the Parish of Kincardine, shall cease to be part of the Parish of Kilmadock, and shall form part of the Parish of Kincardine.

II. Subject to the provisions of the said Act, that portion of the Parish of Kilmadock lying to the south of the River Teith, and known as the Torr Inch Park, and also that portion of the Parish of Kilmadock situated at Cobblehaugh and lying to the south of the River Teith and to the east of the Road from Doune to Lochhills, shall cease to be part of the Parish of Kilmadock, and shall form part of the Parish of Kincardine.

III. Subject to the provisions of the said Act, so much of the main portion of the Parish of Kincardine as lies to the west of a line starting at Bridge of Teith and running in a generally south-westerly direction along the centre of the Doune Road to Lochhills Old Toll, and thence along the centre of the old Lochhills Road and the Coldoch Road to the present boundary of the Parish of Kilmadock near Ramoth, shall cease to be part of the Parish of Kincardine, and shall form part of the Parish of Kilmadock.

IV. Subject to the provisions of the said Act, so much of the aforesaid detached part of the Parish of Kincardine as lies to the north and west of a line starting at a point on the present boundary between the said detached part and the Parish of Kilmadock where it meets the south march of Whirrieston Farm, and running first in a westerly direction along the said march until it meets the Boquhapple Burn, then in a southerly direction down the said Burn until it crosses the Port of Monteith Road, and again in a westerly direction along the centre of the said Road until it meets the boundary of the Parish of Port of Monteith, shall cease to be part of the Parish of Kincardine, and shall form part of the Parish of Kilmadock.

V. This Order shall come into operation for the purposes of school board elections on the 1st day of January 1891, and for all other purposes on the 15th day of May 1891.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.

THE BOUNDARY COMMISSIONERS FOR SCOTLAND.

COUNTIES OF BANFF AND ELGIN.

Parishes of Bellie, Boharm, Inveravon, Keith, and Rothes.

WHEREAS each of the Parishes of Bellie, Boharm, Inveravon, Keith, and Rothes, is situated partly in the County of Banff and partly in the County of Elgin :

And whereas certain portions of the County of Elgin, videlicet, parts of the Parishes of Bellie, Boharm, Inveravon, and Keith are declared by the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, to be included in the County of Banff for all the provisions of the said Act in regard to the administration of the laws relating to highways and to the administration of the laws relating to public health, but that without prejudice to the powers conferred on us by the said Act :

And whereas it appears to us, after communicating with the Authorities and others interested, to be expedient to alter and adjust the Boundaries of the said Counties and Parishes in manner hereinafter provided, so that each of the said Parishes may be included for all purposes within one County :

Now, therefore, we, the Boundary Commissioners for Scotland, do hereby, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon us by the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, determine and order as follows :—

- I. Subject to the provisions of the said Act, the whole of the Parish of Bellie shall for all purposes (including the administration of the laws relating to highways, and the administration of the laws relating to public health) be included in and form part of the County of Elgin.
- II. Subject to the provisions of the said Act, so much of the Parish of Boharm as lies to the west of the River Spey shall cease to be part of that Parish and of the County of Banff, and shall form part of the Parish of Rothes and of the County of Elgin, and the whole of the remainder of the Parish of Boharm shall for all purposes (including the administration of the laws relating to highways, and the administration of the laws relating to public health) be included in and form part of the County of Banff.
- III. Subject to the provisions of the said Act, so much of the Parish of Rothes as is situated in the County of Banff shall cease to be part of that County, and shall form part of the County of Elgin.
- IV. Subject to the provisions of the said Act, the whole of the Parish of Inveravon shall for all purposes (including the administration of the laws relating to highways and the administration of the laws relating to public health) be included in and form part of the County of Banff.
- V. Subject to the provisions of the said Act, the whole of the Parish of Keith shall for all purposes (including the administration of the laws relating to highways and the administration of the laws relating to public health) be included in, and form part of the County of Banff.
- VI. The Councillors elected for the electoral divisions of the County of Elgin, which comprise the aforesaid Parish of Bellie, shall cease to exercise the powers and duties of the County Councillors in the County of Banff, and shall have and exercise all the powers and duties of County Councillors in the County of Elgin.
- VII. This Order shall come into operation for the purposes of school board elections on the 1st day of January 1891, and for all other purposes on the 15th day of May 1891.

Given under our Hands and Common Seal this day of 1890.

Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1867.

CHOLERA REGULATIONS.

ORDER BY THE SECRETARY FOR SCOTLAND.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the thirtieth and thirty-first years of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled 'An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to the 'Public Health in Scotland'; and by the thirty-first section of the said Act it is enacted, that 'Whenever any part of the United Kingdom 'appears to be threatened with or is affected by 'any formidable epidemic, endemic, or contagious 'disease, the Lords and others of Her Majesty's 'Most Honourable Privy Council, or any three or 'more of them (the Lord President of the Council 'or one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of 'State being one), may, by Order or Orders by 'them from time to time made, direct that the 'Provisions for the prevention of diseases con- 'tained in Part III. hereof be put in force in 'Scotland, or in such parts thereof, or in such 'places therein, as in such Order or Orders may 'be expressed, and may from time to time, as to 'all or any of the Parts or Places to which any 'such Order or Orders extend, and in like manner 'revoke or renew such Order: and subject to 'revocation and renewal as aforesaid, every such 'Order shall be in force for six calendar months, 'or for such shorter period as in such Order shall 'be expressed; and every such Order of Her 'Majesty's Privy Council, or any Members 'thereof as aforesaid, shall be certified under the 'hand of the Clerk in Ordinary of Her Majesty's 'Privy Council, and shall be published in the 'Edinburgh Gazette, and such publication shall 'be conclusive evidence of such Order.'

And whereas by 'The Secretary for Scotland Act, 1885,' it is provided that all powers and duties vested in or imposed on the Privy Council by Part III. of the said Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1867, shall be transferred to, vested in, and and imposed on the Secretary for Scotland.

And whereas Cholera is now prevalent in certain parts of Spain, and it is expedient to make provision thereanent:

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred upon me by the said recited Acts, I, the Most Honourable Schomberg Henry, Marquess and Earl of Lothian, K.T., Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do order, and it is hereby ordered, that the provisions for the prevention of diseases, contained in Part III. of the Act thirty and thirty-first Victoria, chapter one hundred and one, be put in force in Scotland for the space of six calendar months after the publication of this Order in the Edinburgh Gazette.

Given under my hand and seal this fifth day of September 1890.
