In Parliament.—Session 1891.

SUN FIRE OFFICE.

(Cancelling Deeds of Settlement; Making New Rules and Regulations; Repeal of Acts; Alteration of Capital; Capital Account; Liability of Members; Provisions as to Trustees and Trust Property of the Company; Investments; Service of Notices and Legal Process; Suing in Name of Company.)

THE Sun Fire Office Company (hereinafter called 'the Company') intend to apply to Parliament in the ensuing Session for leave to bring in a Bill for the following, or some of the following among other purposes, that is to say:—

1. To annul the deed polls of or relating to the Company, dated the 7th day of April 1710, the 9th day of April 1715, and the 31st day of May 1728, and every other deed, instrument, minute, order, and resolution under which the Company are now carrying on, or are empowered to carry on business, or to provide for the annulling of the same, and for the making of new laws and regulations in lieu thereof.

2. To repeal, or if thought fit to alter and amend, or to re-enact with or without alteration, all or some of the provisions of the local and personal Acts 54 Geo. III., cap. 9, intituled, 'An Act to enable the Sun Fire Office Company to sue and be sued in the name of their Treasurer, under certain regulations;' and 7 and 8 Geo. IV., cap. 22, intituled, 'An Act to remove doubts as to the validity of Life Annuities granted or purchased by the Sun Fire Office Company,' and to make provision for disposing of memorials enrolled in the Court of Chancery under the first mentioned Act, as the Master of the Rolls may see fit.

3. To provide for the continuance of the Company, subject to the provisions of the intended Act, and of the new laws and regulations to be made as aforesaid, or of the existing deeds, minutes, orders, and resolutions of the Company.

4. To vary the denomination of the shares in the capital of the Company, to increase and fix the amount of that capital and the amount thereof deemed to be paid up, and to make other provisions as to that capital, the shares into which it is to be divided, and their substitution for the existing shares of the Company, the calls thereon, and the liability of members for the time being, and past members of the Company in respect thereof, and as to the declaration of dividend, and the application of the profits, and generally with respect to the funds of the Company, and the application thereof, and to authorise the raising from time to time of additional capital.

5. To require and empower the Company out of their moneys, to carry to and permanently maintain at capital account such sum as may be defined by the Bill or prescribed by Parliament.

6. To authorise the Company to lay out and invest all or any of their funds and moneys in the names of trustees, in or upon any such securities and investments as they think fit, or as may be prescribed by the Bill, or by any new laws and regulations, and to provide for the appointment of new trustees from time to time, and the enrolment or registration in the Supreme Courts in England and Ireland, and in the books of Council and Session in Scotland, of the names of the trustees for the time being of the Company, and for the devolution to and investing in them from time to time (without deed) of the securities and other property of the Company, and all rights, powers, authorities, and privileges attaching thereto, and to provide for the appointment of trustees and the giving of receipts by, and the indemnification of the trustees, the proving of the contents of the memorials of enrolment or registration, and the payment of stamp duties thereon.

7. To provide for the service of notices, writs, and other legal process on the Company, and for making and verifying affidavits, answers, and declarations on behalf of the Company, and to enable the Company to sue and be sued, by and in the name of the Company, or of one of the officers of the Company.

8. The Bill will vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with any of its objects, and confer other rights and privileges, and will or may enact, with or without alteration or modification, some of the provisions of the before mentioned deeds, orders, minutes, and regulations.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 20th day of December next.

Dated this 4th day of November 1890.
