ST JAMES—APRIL 6.

The following address has been presented to the KING, which his MAJESTY was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We the Principal and Professors of the University of Edinburgh, beg leave humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne, and to present, with profound respect, our unanimous and warm congratulations on the detection and defeat of a late nefarious and desperate conspiracy formed against your Majesty's sacred life, and against the British Constitution as by law established.

Deeply impressed with affection for a Sovereign who guards with paternal solicitude the rights, the liberties, and the happiness of his people, and inspired with veneration for our invaluable constitution, we reflect on this traitorous attempt with indignation and horror; and we pledge to your Majesty invariable perseverance in our efforts to inculcate, both by our instructions and example, on the minds of the youth under our care those principles of loyalty and patriotism which may produce in them steadfast allegiance to your Majesty's person and government; and may, by the providence of God, contribute to promote and maintain all those public blessings which have, under your Majesty's auspicious reign, so conspicuously distinguished the British Empire.

Signed in name and by appointment of the Senatus Academicus,

GEORGE BAIRD, Principal.

College of Edinburgh, March 29, 1803.

THE Trustee on Mr Boag's estate hereby requests a General Meeting of the Creditors upon Wednesday the 13th day of July next, within the house of Mrs Eaglesome, innkeeper, Port-Glasgow; for the purpose of authorising him to sell by auction, the outstanding debts due to the bankrupt estate, as until that is done, no dividend can be made, the funds recovered being trifling.

The trustee likewise requests the creditors to lodge with him, their claims against the bankrupt, with affidavits thereon, that a final scheme of division may be made out, the sequestration wound up, and the trustee discharged of his intronissions; certifying those who fail to comply with this requisition, that they will have no share in the distribution of the bankrupt's estate.
