ROBT. FITZROY BELL, Secretary.

18 Duke Street, Edinburgh,
3rd April 1891.

UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.
52 and 53 Vict. cap. 55.

[ORDINANCE, No. 8—St. Andrews, Aberdeen, and Edinburgh, No. 1.—Libraries and Museums.]

At Edinburgh, the third day of April Eighteen Hundred and Ninety-One years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, section 6, sub-section 7, the University Court of each University has power, subject to any Ordinances made by the Commissioners under the said Act, to appoint from among members of the University or others, not being members of the Senatus Academicus, one-third of the members of any standing committee or committees charged, by Ordinance of the Commissioners under the said Act, with the immediate superintendence of any libraries or museums, or the contents thereof belonging to the University and College or Colleges thereof, existing at the passing of the said Act, and on representation made by any of its members, or by any member of the Senatus Academicus, to review any decision which the Senatus Academicus, in the exercise of its powers, may come to in respect of the recommendations of such committee or committees:

And whereas by the said Act, section 7, sub-section 2, the Senatus Academicus in each University has power to appoint two-thirds of the members of any standing committee or committees charged by Ordinance of the Commissioners under the said Act with the immediate superintendence of any libraries or museums, or the contents thereof, belonging to the University and College or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, and to receive in the first instance all reports by such committee or committees, and subject to the review of the University Court, to confirm, modify, or reject the recommendations in such reports:

And whereas by the said Act, section 14, sub-section 16, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered to repeal or modify any Ordinance made under the provisions of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858:

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act Statute and Ordain as follows:—

1. With regard to the Universities of St. Andrews and Aberdeen:—

(1) In each of the said Universities a Committee, to be called the Library Committee, shall be constituted, consisting of three members of the University or others, not being members of the Senatus Academicus, appointed by the University Court, and of six members appointed by the Senatus Academicus. The said Committee in each of the said Universities shall be charged with the immediate superintendence of the University Library, and of the contents thereof, and of any libraries acquired, or to be acquired, for the use of the University or of any class therein. The members of the said Committee, in the proportions aforesaid, shall be appointed by the University Court and Senatus Academicus respectively at their first meeting after the commencement of the Winter Session in each year.

(2) In each of the said Universities a Committee, to be called the Museum Committee, shall be constituted, consisting of three members of the University or others, not being members of the Senatus Academicus, appointed by the University Court, and of six members appointed by the Senatus Academicus. The said Committee in each of the said Universities shall be charged with the immediate superintendence of all Museums belonging to the University, and of the contents thereof, and of any collections, furniture, or apparatus, or objects acquired, or to be acquired, for the use of the University or of any class therein. The members of the said Committee, in the proportions aforesaid, shall be appointed by the University Court and Senatus Academicus respectively at their first meeting after the commencement of the Winter Session in each year.

2. With regard to the University of Edinburgh:—

(1) A Committee, to be called the Library Committee, shall be constituted, consisting of not more than seven members of the University or others, not being members of the Senatus Academicus, appointed by the University Court, and of such number of members appointed by the Senatus Academicus as shall be double the number appointed by the Court. The said Committee shall be charged with the immediate superintendence of the University Library, and of the contents thereof, and of any libraries acquired, or to be acquired, for the use of the University or of any class therein. The members of the said Committee, in the proportions aforesaid, shall be appointed by the University Court and Senatus Academicus respectively at their first meeting after the commencement of the Winter Session in each year.

(2) A Committee, to be called the Museum Committee, shall be constituted, consisting of three members of the University or others, not being members of the Senatus Academicus, appointed by the University Court, and of six members appointed by the Senatus Academicus. The said Committee shall be charged with the immediate superintendence of all Museums belonging to the University, and of the contents thereof, and of any collections, furniture, or apparatus, or objects acquired, or to be acquired, for the use of the University or of any class therein. The members of the said Committee, in the proportions aforesaid, shall be appointed by the University Court and Senatus Academicus respectively at their first meeting after the commencement of the Winter Session in each year.

3. The Ordinances of the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858, numbered
