OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY FOR SCOTLAND, WHITEHALL,
February 19, 1892.

THE following further Addresses and Resolutions of Condolence on the occasion of the lamented death of His Royal Highness Prince Albert Victor, Duke of Clarence and Avondale, K.G., &c., have been transmitted to the Most Honourable The Marquess of Lothian, K.T., Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, for presentation to The Queen, and have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has received with much satisfaction these testimonies of sympathy and devotion:—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty :
MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,—

WE, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh, for ourselves, and as representing the Community of the City of Edinburgh, beg most respectfully to offer to Your Majesty the humble expression of the profound sympathy which has been aroused in this City by the unexpected death of Your Majesty's beloved grandson, His Royal Highness Prince Albert Victor Christian Edward, Duke of Clarence and Avondale, Knight of the Garter, and Knight of St. Patrick.

The preparations for public rejoicings which were in active progress throughout the nation to commemorate the marriage of the late Duke with

Her Serene Highness the Princess Victoria Mary of Teck, have come to a sudden end, and our joy has been turned into sorrow by his untimely death.

The Prince's personal qualities and upbringing had given Your Majesty and the nation every reason to cherish the brightest hopes for his future in the exalted and responsible position to which he was born.

We humbly desire to assure Your Majesty that we most fully share in the universal feelings of respectful condolence with Your Majesty which have been evoked throughout Your Majesty's dominions, and of our unabated devotion to Your Person and Crown.

And we pray that, supported by Divine help,
