And on Monday, the 25th of April next, the Court to go out of Mourning.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, have made the following Ordinance relating to Regulations as to Assistants and Lecturers in the Universities of St. Andrews, Glasgow, Aberdeen, and Edinburgh, and have ordered the same to be laid before Parliament, in terms of section 20, sub-section (1), of said Act.

T. R. CLARK, Interim Secretary.

18 Duke Street, Edinburgh,
24th February 1892.

UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.
52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 17.

[GENERAL, No. 10.—REGULATIONS AS TO ASSISTANTS AND LECTURERS.]

At Edinburgh, the twenty-fourth day of February eighteen hundred and ninety-two years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 2, to regulate the powers, duties, and privileges of University Lecturers and Assistants, and by the said section 14, sub-section 7, to regulate the salaries of such Lecturers and Assistants, and to provide for the appointment of Assistants, and to determine by whom the right of appointing Assistants shall be exercised, and by the said section 14, sub-section 8, to make provision for increasing the teaching power of any University, whether by extra-mural teaching or otherwise, and by the said section 14, sub-section 16, to repeal or modify any Ordinance made under the provisions of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858.

Therefore the Commissioners under the first mentioned Act statute and ordain as follows:—

ASSISTANTS.

I. The University Court of each University shall from time to time, after consultation with the Senatus, determine the number and grade of the Assistants, if any, to be assigned to each Professor.

II. The University Court shall also fix from time to time the remuneration of the several Assistants, and shall have power to apply to such remuneration such part of the Funds at its disposal as it may think proper.

III. The duties of each Assistant shall be defined from time to time by the Professor, with the approval of the Senatus.

IV. Each Assistant shall be appointed by the University Court on the recommendation of the Professor whom he is to assist. The appointment shall be for one year, but shall be renewable from time to time for the like period on the like recommendation.

V. An Assistant shall not be dismissed during the period of his appointment, except by the University Court.

VI. All Assistants appointed as hereinbefore provided shall be styled University Assistants or Demonstrators as the University Court may determine. They shall be recognised as Officers of the University, and shall have such use of the Library and such other privileges as the University Court may from time to time determine.

VII. Nothing in this Ordinance shall affect the right of each Professor to employ at his own expense such private Assistants as he may think necessary; but such private Assistants shall not take part in the public work of the class without the permission of the University Court; and the foregoing provisions shall not apply to such private Assistants, nor to others not directly assisting the Professor in the work of the class.

LECTURERS.

VIII. It shall be in the power of the University Court of each University, after consultation with the Senatus, to appoint Lecturers in any subject not already taught within the University.

IX. With respect to subjects already taught within the University, it shall be in the power of each University Court, after consultation with the Senatus, to appoint Lecturers in the cases following:—

- (1) When, with a view to preparing candidates for graduation in Honours or otherwise, it is desired to provide instruction in special branches of the said subjects not usually or fully covered by the Professors' Lectures.
- (2) When, from the number of the students, or any other cause, it appears to be necessary that provision should be made for increasing the teaching power in any of the said subjects within the University.

X. The teaching of Lecturers appointed under this Ordinance shall (unless otherwise determined by the University Court) qualify for graduation. Lecturers shall be remunerated in such manner as the University Court may from time to time determine; and it shall be competent to appoint them on the footing that their remuneration shall depend in whole or in part on the amount of the fees drawn for their classes, although the said fees may be at the disposal of the University Court as part of a general fee-fund or otherwise.

XI. Lecturers shall be appointed under this Ordinance for a period not exceeding five years, and shall hold office during good behaviour for the period of their appointment, and the University Court shall be the sole and final judges of any question of culpa.

It shall be in the power of the University Court to renew such appointments.

XII. Lecturers appointed under this Ordinance shall be recognised as officers of the University, and shall have such use of the Library and other privileges as the University Court may from time to time determine, but they shall not be members of the Senatus. They shall be bound to conform to all regulations with respect to their teaching arrangements which may be made from time to time by the Senatus after consultation with the Board of Studies or the Faculty concerned, and any questions between them and the Professors shall be determined by the Senatus, with appeal to the University Court. Declaring always that, subject to the regulations aforesaid, all laboratories, rooms for practical instruction, apparatus, and material pertaining to any particular Chair shall be under the exclusive control of the Professor.

XIII. Assistants appointed under this Ordinance shall be eligible as Lecturers, and vice versa; and both offices may be held at the same time by the same person.

XIV. The provisions of the Ordinances Nos. 6, 22, and 23 of the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858, with respect to Assistants, their appointment, duties, and remuneration, are hereby repealed, provided that such repeal shall not take effect as to any existing Assistants before the commencement of the first academical year after the approval of this Ordinance by Her Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.

Candidates must pass to the satisfaction of the Civil Service Commissioners in one of the subjects numbered 4, 5, and 6, according to the nature of the situation vacant, i.e. according as the duties to be performed render a knowledge of Mechanics and Mechanism, of Chemistry, or of Electricity and Magnetism absolutely necessary. The remaining subjects are optional.

3. No Candidate can be admitted to the Competition who has not previously satisfied the Civil Service Commissioners that he possesses the requisite amount of proficiency in the following subjects :—

1. Handwriting.
2. Orthography.
3. Arithmetic (to Vulgar and Decimal Fractions).
4. English Composition.

With this view, Preliminary Examinations in these subjects will be held at such times and places as the Commissioners may appoint.

Application for permission to attend one of these Preliminary Examinations must be made in the writing of the Candidate, at such times and in such manner as may be fixed by the Commissioners.

4. A fee of £1 will be required from each Candidate attending the Preliminary Examination, and a further fee of £4 from every Candidate admitted to the Competitive Examination.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice, that an Open Competitive Examination will be held in London, under the foregoing Regulations, commencing on the 10th May 1892.

A Preliminary Examination will be held in London, Edinburgh, and Dublin, on the 26th April 1892. The number of situations to be filled will be the number vacant at the time of the Examination.

No person will be admitted to the Examination from whom the Secretary, Civil Service Commission, has not received, on or before the 13th April, an application, in the handwriting of the Candidate, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.
