

to, and examine all such books, documents, papers, or records as you shall judge likely to afford you the fullest information on the subject of this Our Commission; and to inquire of and concerning the premises by all other lawful ways and means whatsoever:

And We do further by these presents authorise and empower you, or any three or more of you, to visit and personally inspect such places as you may deem expedient for the more effectual carrying out of the purposes aforesaid:

And Our further will and pleasure is that you, or any three or more of you, do with as little delay as possible report to Us under your hands and seals upon the matters referred to you as aforesaid, and that you may have power to certify to Us from time to time your several proceedings in respect of the matters aforesaid, if it may seem expedient to you so to do:

And We further will and command, and by these presents ordain, that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you Our said Commissioners, or any three or more of you, may from time to time proceed in the execution thereof, and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment:

And for the purpose of aiding you in the execution of this Our Commission, We do hereby authorise and empower you to appoint a Secretary to this Our Commission:

And We ordain the said Letters Patent to be extended in the most ample form with all clauses needful, and to pass the Seal aforesaid, per saltum, without passing any other Seal or Register. For doing whereof this shall be to the Director of Our Chancery for writing the same, and to the Keeper of the said Seal for causing the same to be appended thereto a sufficient Warrant.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the 6th day of December 1892, in the fifty-sixth year of Our Reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,

(Signed) G. O. TREVELYAN.

WHITEHALL, December 12, 1892.

The Queen has been pleased to give and grant unto Captain John Inglis, R.N., Her Majesty's Royal licence and authority that he may accept and wear the Insignia of the Order of the Sacred Treasure of the Second Class, which His Majesty the Emperor of Japan has been pleased to confer upon him, in recognition of his services whilst actually and entirely employed beyond Her Majesty's Dominions as Naval Adviser to the Japanese Government.

THE MARKETS AND FAIRS (WEIGHING OF CATTLE) RETURNS (SCOTLAND) ORDER OF 1893.

By the Board of Agriculture.

The Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Markets and Fairs (Weighing of Cattle) Acts, 1887 and 1891, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The market authority of every market held in any of the places specified in the First Schedule to this Order (being the places mentioned in the Schedule to the Markets and Fairs (Weighing of Cattle) Act, 1891, as the places in Scotland from which returns are required to be made), and every auctioneer who sells cattle, sheep, or swine at any mart where cattle, sheep, or swine are habitually or periodically sold in any of the said specified places, shall send to the Board of Agriculture once in every week a return in the form specified in the Second Schedule to this Order and setting forth the particulars indicated in that form, so far as the market authority or the auctioneer, as the case may be, can ascertain the same, the number of cattle, sheep, and swine entering the market or mart, and the number and weight of cattle, sheep, and swine weighed at the market or mart during the seven days next before the date of the sending in of the return, and the price of the cattle, sheep, and swine sold during those seven days at the market or mart.

2. This Order may be cited as THE MARKETS AND FAIRS (WEIGHING OF CATTLE) RETURNS (SCOTLAND) ORDER OF 1893.

3. This Order shall commence and come into operation on the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture have hereunto set their Official Seal this thirteenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.
