And whereas by the Savings Bank Act, 1891 Regulations made by the Treasury may provide as in such Act stated:

Now we, the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, under and by virtue of all powers and authorities vested in us in that behalf, do make the following Regulations, that is to say:—

Operation of Regulations.

3. These Regulations shall come into operation on the 1st day of February 1894, on and from which date the Regulations which came into operation on the 1st day of May 1889 are hereby repealed, without prejudice nevertheless to anything already done in pursuance thereof.

Withdrawals from Accounts of Infants.

4.—(1) An application for the withdrawal of money deposited by, or in the name of, an infant may be made by such infant, if of the age of seven years or upwards.

(2) Upon such application payment may be made to such infant, and his receipt shall be a good discharge to the trustees for the amount paid to him.

(3) Where it is proved to the satisfaction of the trustees that any sums in the name of an infant under the age of seven years are urgently needed for the maintenance, education, or benefit of such infant, or that from any other circumstances it is expedient to pay such sums or any part thereof, the trustees may pay such deposits, or any part thereof, to any person who may satisfy the trustees that he will apply such money for the benefit of such infant, and the receipt of such person shall be a good discharge to the trustees for sums so paid.

Withdrawals from Accounts of Lunatics.

5.—(1) An application for the withdrawal of money deposited in the name of a person of unsound mind shall be made by the Committee of the Estate of such person.

(2) Upon such application payment shall be made to such Committee, and his receipt shall be a good discharge to the trustees for the amount paid to him.

(3) Where a depositor is insane, and no Committee of his Estate has been appointed, the trustees may, when it is proved to their satisfaction that it is just and expedient so to do, pay the deposits standing in the name of the depositor, or any part thereof, to any person whom they shall judge proper to receive the same, and the receipt of such person shall be a good discharge to the trustees for the sum so paid.

TRANSFER OF DEPOSITS.

Transfer from one Account to Another.

6.—(1) Any depositor may apply to the trustees for the transfer of deposits standing in his name into the name of any other person entitled to deposit in the Savings Bank.

(2) The trustees shall be furnished with such evidence as they may require of the title of the depositor to the sums to which the application relates.

(3) (a) Every such application shall be in writing, or in a form which may be provided by the trustees, and shall state the amount to be transferred, the full name and address of the person into whose name it is desired to transfer the deposits (hereinafter referred to as 'the Transferee'), and particulars of the account (if any) to which the deposits are to be transferred.

(b) A separate record shall be kept of all such applications, each of which shall be approved and signed by a trustee or manager.

(4) Upon receiving such application as aforesaid, and upon being satisfied as to the title of the applicant to transfer the deposits to which the application relates, the trustee shall transfer from the account of the applicant to the account of the transferee the sum specified in the application.

(5) Such application shall be a good discharge to the trustees from the transferor for the sum specified therein.

(6) If the transferee is not already a depositor—

(a) He shall be required to make a like declaration to that made in relation to a first deposit, and a depositor's book shall be handed to him.

(b) Where the transfer is made in the name of a friendly society or charitable society, any such declaration as last aforesaid shall (so far as the same is necessary in the case of a first deposit) be made by the person who would make the same in the case of a first deposit.

Transfer from Account of Deceased Depositor.

7.—(1) Any person of the age of 16 years or upwards to whom any sum due to a depositor at the time of his decease might be paid under and in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations, may, subject to the provisions of these Regulations as to duty, in lieu of withdrawing such sum, apply to the trustees in writing for the transfer of such sum into his own name, or the name of any other person specified in such application.

(2) The provisions of these Regulations relating to the transfer of deposits shall apply to the transfer of sums from the account of a deceased depositor so far as the same are applicable.

Limit in Case of Transfer.

8.—(1) For the purpose of calculating the limits of deposits in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations, every sum transferred to the account of any depositor (other than a sum transferred from the account of a deceased depositor), shall be deemed to be a deposit by the depositor to whom such sum is transferred.

(2) When by reason of the transfer of any sum from the account of a deceased depositor the sum standing to the credit of the trustees or treasurer of a charitable society exceeds £300, exclusive of interest, or the sum standing to the credit of any other depositor exceeds £200 in the whole, notice shall be given to the depositor of the amount of such excess, and no interest shall be allowed on such amount.

(3) This Regulation shall not apply to friendly societies or to charitable societies when the approval of the National Debt Commissioners has been obtained to making of deposits without restriction as to amount.

Addition of Names to an Account.

9. Upon the application of any depositor, the trustees may, if they deem it just or expedient to do, add one or more names to an account already in a savings bank.

The addition of such names shall not be deemed to be the opening of a new account in the bank.

Every person whose name is so added to an account under this Regulation shall make the declaration required upon the making of a first deposit.

NOMINATIONS.

A Depositor may Nominate.

10. Subject to the provisions of these Regulations, a depositor of the age of sixteen years or upwards may nominate any person not being an officer of the trustees (unless such officer be the husband, wife, father, mother, child, grandchild, brother, sister, nephew, or niece of the nominator) to receive any sum due to such depositor at his decease.

Requirements of a Nomination.

11.—(1) Every such nomination shall be in writing, or in a form which may be provided by the trustees, and shall be signed by the depositor in the presence of a witness, and shall be sent by post or otherwise to the trustees during the lifetime of the depositor.

(2) The receipt of every such nomination shall be acknowledged by the Savings Bank.

Registration.

12. Every such nomination shall be registered by the trustees in a book to be kept for the purpose.

Revocation.

13.—(1) Any such nomination may be revoked by the depositor by writing under his hand signed in the presence of a witness.

(2) Any such revocation shall be sent by post or otherwise to the trustees during the lifetime of the depositor, and shall be registered by the trustees in a book to be kept for that purpose in like manner as in the case of a nomination.

(3) The receipt of every such revocation shall be acknowledged by the Savings Bank.

Scope of Nomination.

14.—(1) A nomination may relate to the whole of the deposits standing in the name of a depositor or to part only of such deposits.

(2) Except where otherwise stated, a nomination shall be deemed to extend to all sums to which a depositor is entitled at the time of his decease in respect of Government stock or a savings bank annuity, but a depositor may in a nomination expressly exclude any of such sums from the operation of such nomination.

Division of Sums Nominated.

15. A nomination may be in favour of one person or of several persons, and, in the latter case, may direct that specific sums shall be paid to one or more of the persons named in the nomination, or that the persons named in such nomination may take the deposits in specified shares, or may give directions to both effects.

Witness to Nomination Disqualified from taking under it.

16. No person who witnesses the signature of a depositor to a nomination shall take any benefit under such nomination.

Operation of Nomination.

17.—(1) Where the sums due on the decease of a depositor do not exceed in the whole the sum of £100, the trustees shall pay the persons named in any nomination made by such depositor, and in force at the time of his death, according to the directions of such nomination, and the receipt of any person so named shall be a good discharge to the trustees for the sum so paid, notwithstanding such person has not attained the age of 21 years, if such person has attained the age of 16 years.

(2) If upon the decease of a depositor the sums due to him or to his estate exceed £100, any nomination made by such depositor shall take effect as regards any sum or sums to which the same relates, not exceeding £100, in like manner as if it were a will of the deceased depositor duly executed, but shall not take effect in any other manner, and a nomination shall not in such case be deemed void because the depositor was a minor at the time such nomination was made.

(3) In any such case as last aforesaid, the trustees may, subject to the provisions of this Regulation, pay any sum or sums to which a nomination relates, not exceeding in the aggregate £100, according to the directions of such nomination, notwithstanding the production of probate of the will of a deceased depositor, or letters of administration to his estate.

Payment for the Benefit of a Nominee under Sixteen.

18. Where any person nominated to receive any sum on the death of a depositor is an infant under the age of 16 years, and it is proved to the satisfaction of the trustees that funds are urgently needed for the maintenance, education, or benefit of such infant, the trustees may pay the sum mentioned in the nomination, or any part thereof, to any person who may satisfy the trustees that he will apply such money for the benefit of such infant, and the receipt of such person shall be a good discharge to the trustees for the amount so paid.

Nominations to be Entered on Transfer Certificates.

19. On any certificate granted to a depositor by the trustees for the purpose of transferring deposits from a Trustee Savings Bank to a Trustee Savings Bank, or to the Post Office Savings Bank, a memorandum shall be made, specifying the date and other particulars of any nomination made in respect of such deposits.

Effect of Transfer on Nomination of Deposits in the Post Office Savings Bank.

20.—(1) When deposits are transferred from the Post Office Savings Bank to a Trustee Savings Bank, any nomination made with respect to such deposits while in the Post Office Savings Bank, shall (if such nomination is brought to the notice of the trustees) be deemed to hold good with respect to deposits in a Trustee Savings Bank.

(2) The trustees may require proof to their satisfaction of the making of any such nomination, and that the same is at the date of transfer in full force and effect.

PAYMENT OF DEPOSITS OF DECEASED DEPOSITORS.

Proof of Death.

21. The trustees may require proof to their satisfaction of the decease of a depositor.

Deposits under £100.

22.—(1) Where the whole amount due to a depositor at the time of his decease does not exceed £100, exclusive of interest, and probate of the will of such depositor, or letters of administration of his personal estate, is not or are not produced to the trustees within such time as they may think reasonable, if such depositor has made no nomination, and so far as any nomination does not extend, the trustees may, without requiring probate of the will or letters of administration, pay or distribute the amount so due as aforesaid to or among any of the persons hereinafter described or indicated (that is to say):—

- (1) Any one who has paid the funeral expenses of the depositor;
- (2) Creditors of the depositor;
- (3) The widow or widower of the depositor;
- (4) The persons entitled to the personal estate of the depositor, according to the Statutes of Distribution;
- (5) Any person undertaking to maintain the children of the depositor;
- (6) The Solicitor to the Treasury, if the depositor, being illegitimate, dies intestate leaving no widow, widower, or issue.

(2) The receipt of any of the persons mentioned in this Regulation shall be a good discharge to the trustees for the sums paid, and any such receipt may be signed by any widow, widower, or next of kin, above the age of 16 years, notwithstanding that she or he has not attained the age of 21 years.

Succession and Legacy Duties.

23.—(1) If the total personal property of any deceased depositor exceeds £100, any sum which may under these Regulations be paid otherwise than to the legal personal representative of the depositor, shall, notwithstanding such payment, be liable to probate duty, as part of the amount on which such duty is charged, and the trustees shall, before making such payment, require a statutory declaration by the claimant, or by one of the claimants, that the total personal estate of the deceased, including the sum in question, does not, after deduction of debts and funeral expenses, exceed the sum of £100.

(2) In every case where the whole amount due to a depositor at the time of his decease exceeds £80, the trustees shall, before making any payment to any person other than the legal personal representative of the deceased depositor, require the production of a duly stamped receipt for the succession or legacy duty payable in respect of such deposits, or a certificate from the Commissioners of Inland Revenue stating that no such duty is payable.

SUPPLEMENTAL.

Protection to the Trustees when Acting in Accordance with Regulations.

24. When any payment is made or act done by the trustees in accordance with the Savings Bank Act, and the regulations for the time being made thereunder, and the rules of the bank, they shall be indemnified against all claims on the part of any person in respect of such payment or act, but any person may nevertheless recover any sum lawfully due to him from the person to whom the trustees have paid the same.
