EXTRA GLASGOW CIRCUIT.

MONDAY, 19th February 1894, at eleven o'clock.

Lords TRAYNER and STORMONTH-DARLING.

JOHN A. REID, Esq., Advocate-Depute.
ÆNEAS MACBEAN, Clerk.

WHITEHALL, January 25, 1894.

THE Queen has been pleased to direct Letters Patent to be passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, granting the dignity of a Baronet of the said United Kingdom unto Leonard Lyell, of Kinnordy, in the County of Forfar, Esq., and the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten.

WHITEHALL, January 18, 1894.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Augustus Wallis, Esq., M.D., to be a Commissioner in Lunacy, in the room of John Davis Cleaton, Esq., M.R.C.S., resigned.

THE SWINE FEVER (INFECTED AREAS) ORDER OF 1894.

By the Board of Agriculture.

The Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Board of Agriculture Act, 1889, and the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1893, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

Infected Area.

1. This Order shall apply only to a district or area declared by Special Order of the Board to be a Swine Fever Infected Area which Area is in this Order referred to as an Infected Area.

Movement of Swine out of or within Infected Area.

2. Swine shall not be moved by land or by water out of or within an Infected Area or from a public sale of fat swine in an Infected Area otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

Movement of Fat Swine out of Infected Area for Slaughter.

3. Fat swine may be moved from a place in an Infected Area but not in a Swine Fever Infected Place to premises not within that Infected Area with a Movement Licence (in the Form A set forth in the Schedule to this Order or to the like effect) of the Local Authority of the District in which the place from which the swine are to be moved is situate for the purpose of being slaughtered in manner and under the conditions following:—

(i.) The Licence shall be in force for not more than five days inclusive of the day of issue and shall specify the name and address of the person to whom the Licence is granted, the number and description of the swine to be moved, and the name or description of the place from which and the premises to which the swine are to be moved for slaughter.

- (ii.) The swine, before the movement is commenced, shall be marked by and at the expense of the owner by the painting with an indelible composition of red colour of a broad line down the back and another broad line across the loins of each of the swine thus +, each line being not less than nine inches long.
- (iii.) If the swine are to be moved into or through the District of another Local Authority then (subject to the provisions of this Order as to agreements between Local Authorities respecting movement) there must also be a further Movement Licence of that other Local Authority indorsed on or referring to the first-mentioned Licence, which second Licence must be granted before the swine are moved into or through the District of that other Local Authority.
- (iv.) The swine moved under this Article shall be slaughtered within four days after their arrival at the premises specified in the Licence; and the Local Authority of the District in or into which the swine are moved shall take such steps as are necessary to insure that the swine are moved to the specified premises and are slaughtered there within such four days.
- (v.) The swine while being moved under this Article and until they are slaughtered shall so far as practicable be kept separate from all other swine.

Movement of Swine out of Infected Area for Purposes other than Slaughter.

4.—(1) Swine may be moved from premises in an Infected Area but not in a Swine Fever Infected Place to a specified place not within that Infected Area with a Movement Licence (in the Form B set forth in the Schedule to this Order or to the like effect) of the Local Authority of the District in which the premises from which the swine are to be moved are situate, which Licence shall be in force for not more than five days inclusive of the day of issue and shall specify the name and address of the person to whom the Licence is granted, the number and description of the swine to be moved, and the name or description of the premises from which and the place to which the swine are to be moved, and shall only be granted on a Declaration of the owner of the swine or of his agent authorised in writing for this purpose to the effect hereinafter provided, as to the correctness of which Declaration the Local Authority shall satisfy themselves before granting the Licence.

(2) The Declaration shall be to the effect—

- (a) that the swine to be moved have been on the premises from which they are to be moved for a period of at least twenty-eight days immediately before the granting of the Licence, and that no other pig has been brought on to those premises within such period; and
- (b) that the swine have not during that period been exposed for sale in any market or public sale of fat swine held by Licence of a Local Authority under this Order; and
- (c) that the swine are not affected with swine fever, and have not during the period of twenty-eight days as aforesaid been in any way exposed to the infection of swine fever.

(3) If the swine are to be moved into or through the District of another Local Authority then (subject to the provisions of this Order as to agreements between Local Authorities respecting movement) there must also be a further Movement Licence of that other Local Authority indorsed on or referring to the first-mentioned Licence, which second Licence must be granted before the swine are moved into or through the District of that other Local Authority.

(4) The swine shall be moved to the specified place by a route to be prescribed in the Licence. The swine after they are received at the specified place shall be kept for twenty-eight days under the supervision of the Local Authority and shall not be moved from that place until after the expiration of that period.

(5) A Local Authority shall forthwith send to the Board a copy of every Licence granted by them under this Article.

Movement of Swine within Infected Area.

5.—(1) Movement of swine within an Infected Area is subject to any Regulation made under this Article by the Local Authority.

(2) For the purposes of this Article a Local Authority may make such Regulations as they think fit for prohibiting or regulating the movement by land or by water of swine within an Infected Area within their District, or within such part thereof as is situate within their District.

(3) No regulation of a Local Authority prohibiting or regulating movement of swine other than a Regulation made under this Article shall apply to any part of an Infected Area.

(4) A Local Authority shall send a copy of every Regulation made by them under this Article to every railway company having a railway station within the District of the Local Authority or within the part of the District to which the Regulation applies, and shall also forthwith send a copy of the Regulation to the Secretary, Railway Clearing House, 123 Seymour Street, Euston Square, London, N.W.

(5) No Regulation made by a Local Authority under this Article shall be deemed to authorise the movement of—

(a) swine into within or out of a Cattle-Plague Infected Place or a Foot-and-Mouth Disease Infected Place or a Swine Fever Infected Place; or

(b) swine affected with swine fever.

(6) The power to make Regulations under this Article shall be exercised only by a Local Authority or their Executive Committee, and shall not be deputed to any other Committee nor to a Subcommittee.

As to Movement of Swine by Railway through Infected Area or a District of a Local Authority without untrucking.

6. For the purposes of this Order or of any Regulation of a Local Authority thereunder, swine shall not be deemed to be moved out of or within an Infected Area or into or through the District of a Local Authority where they are moved through such Area or District by railway from a place outside such Area or District to another place outside such Area or District without unnecessary delay and without the swine being untrucked or re-booked within such Area or District.

Special Regulations as to Movement of Swine landed from Ireland in an Infected Area.

7.—(1) Notwithstanding anything in this Order, or in any Regulation made by a Local Authority under this Order, swine landed from Ireland at a port or place in an Infected Area may be moved out of the Infected Area to any place of destination on the following conditions, and not otherwise :—

(a) When landed the swine shall be moved forthwith by the most direct available route to the nearest available railway station (such station being within the Infected Area in which the swine are landed) on the line of railway by which the swine are to be moved to their place of destination.

(b) The swine shall be kept at the said railway station until trucked, and shall then be moved by railway to the place of destination without untrucking.

(2) If any pig landed from Ireland at a port or place in an Infected Area as aforesaid is moved out of the Infected Area in contravention of the foregoing conditions, the owner of the pig, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person moving or conveying the pig, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it knowing it to have been moved in contravention as aforesaid, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

Movement of Swine by Licence of Board.

8. Notwithstanding anything in this Order or in any Regulation of a Local Authority thereunder, swine may be moved in any circumstances with a Licence of an Inspector of the Board or of a person authorised by the Board to grant the same, which Licence will only be granted where the Board, after inquiry, are satisfied that exceptional circumstances render the movement necessary or expedient.

Agreements between Local Authorities respecting Movement of Swine.

9.—(1) With respect to the movement of swine out of an Infected Area under this Order from a place in the District of one Local Authority into or through the District of another Local Authority, those Local Authorities may, if they think fit, notwithstanding anything in this Order, agree that movement to a specified slaughter-house, or movement in any other case specified in the agreement, or movement in all cases under this Order, may be made without a Movement Licence of the secondly-mentioned Local Authority indorsed on or referring to the Movement Licence of the first-mentioned Local Authority.

(2) Every agreement under this Article shall be expressed to be, and shall be deemed to constitute, a Licence for movement in each case to which it relates.

(3) Every such agreement shall provide that a copy of every Licence granted by one Local Authority for movement into or through the District of another Local Authority shall be sent by the first-mentioned Local Authority to such other Local Authority.

(4) Every such agreement shall be in writing signed by the respective clerks of the Local Authorities, by special direction of the respective Local Authorities, and may be at any time revoked by either of the Local Authorities parties thereto, and every such agreement or revocation shall be published in such manner as the respective Local Authorities consider best fitted to insure publicity for the same.

(5) A copy of every such agreement shall be sent by the Local Authorities agreeing to every railway company having a railway station in the District of either of these Local Authorities, and a copy shall also be sent to the Secretary, Railway Clearing House, 123 Seymour Street, Euston Square, London, N.W., and no railway company shall be bound to have regard to any agreement of which they have not received a copy.

(6) Notice of the revocation or determination of any such agreement shall be given to every such railway company, and also to the Secretary of the Railway Clearing House; and every agreement of which a copy is so sent shall, as regards each railway company, be treated as in force until notice of the revocation or determination thereof is given to that railway company.

(7) If at any time the Board are satisfied with respect to any such agreement that the same is objectionable in any particular, and direct the revocation thereof, the same shall thereupon cease to operate.

Public and Private Sales of Swine in Infected Area.

10. No public or private sale of swine, fat or store, shall be held in an Infected Area otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

Public Sale of Fat Swine by Licence of Local Authority.

11.—(1) A public sale of fat swine may be held in an Infected Area with a Licence of the Local Authority on the following conditions (namely):—

(i.) All swine exposed at the public sale so licensed shall forthwith after their arrival thereat be marked by and at the expense of the owner by the painting with an indelible composition of red colour of a broad line down the back and another broad line across the loins of each of the swine thus +, each line being not less than nine inches long.

(ii.) Every pig that is exposed at the public sale so licensed, whether it is sold thereat or not, shall be slaughtered within four days after and exclusive of the day on which the sale is held.

(iii.) Any swine exposed at the public sale so licensed may be moved from the place of sale to any other place, whether within the Infected Area or not, with a Movement Licence (in the Form C set forth in the Schedule to this Order or to the like effect) of the Local Authority in whose District the public sale is held, which Licence shall be in force for not more than five days inclusive of the day of issue and shall specify the name and address of the person to whom the Licence is granted and the name or description of the slaughter-house, pig-sty, or other place of destination to which the swine are to be moved.

- (iv.) If the place of destination is in the District of another Local Authority outside the Infected Area then (subject to the provisions of this Order as to agreements between Local Authorities respecting movement) there must also be a Movement Licence of that other Local Authority indorsed on or referring to the first-mentioned Licence, which second Licence must be granted before the swine are moved into the District of that other Local Authority.
- (v.) Where an agreement has been entered into between the Local Authorities concerned under the provisions of this Order, so as to render the second Licence referred to in the preceding paragraph unnecessary, a copy of the agreement, or a copy of an extract of the agreement shall be posted or placarded at some conspicuous place near to the entrance to the sale.
- (vi.) The swine while being moved under this Article shall so far as practicable be kept separate from all other swine.
- (vii.) The Local Authority of the District in which the place of destination is situate shall take such steps as are necessary to insure that the swine are moved to the said place and are slaughtered there within four days after and exclusive of the day on which the sale was held.

(2) A Licence of a Local Authority for a public sale of fat swine under this Article shall be signed by the the clerk of the Local Authority, by special direction of the Local Authority, and shall give notice of the conditions contained in this Article by specifying the same as conditions on which the Licence is granted, and may impose such further conditions, if any, as the Local Authority think expedient, and shall be granted to the person entitled to hold the sale (as owner of a market, or as an auctioneer, or otherwise), and shall specify the place where the sale is to be held, and may authorise the holding of periodical sales on stated days for a time limited, not exceeding one month, but the Licence may be renewed from time to time, and shall be published in such manner as the Local Authority consider best fitted to insure publicity for the same, and the Local Authority may at any time revoke any such Licence.

(3) The Licence for a public sale of fat swine under this Article or a copy of such Licence shall be posted and kept posted during the holding of such sale by the person holding the same at or near the gate or other entrance of the market, sale-yard, or other place where such sale is held.

(4) A Local Authority shall not grant a Licence for a public sale of fat swine under this Article unless they are satisfied that the place where the sale is to be held is capable of being cleansed and disinfected in accordance with the next following Article.

(5) A Local Authority shall forthwith send to the Board a copy of every Licence granted by them for the holding of a public sale of fat swine under this Article.

(6) If the Board are of opinion, with respect to any Licence of a Local Authority for a public sale of fat swine under this Article, that the holding of the public sale thereby licensed is inexpedient, or that the Licence is objectionable in any particular, and direct the revocation thereof, the same shall thereupon cease to operate.

Cleansing and Disinfection of Markets in Infected Area.

12. Every market, fair-ground, and sale-yard in which a public sale of fat swine is held under the last preceding Article, shall, as soon as practicable after the sale, and in any case before it is again used for swine, be cleansed and disinfected as follows:—

- (i.) All parts of the market, fair-ground, or sale-yard that have been used for swine shall be thoroughly swept and scraped, and all dung, sawdust, litter, or other matter effectually removed therefrom; then
- (ii.) the same parts shall be thoroughly washed or scrubbed or scoured with water; then
- (iii.) the same parts shall be disinfected in such manner as the Local Authority may direct; and
- (iv.) the sweepings and scrapings shall be well mixed with quicklime and be effectually removed from contact with animals.

Public or Private Sales of Swine, Fat or Store, without Licence of Local Authority.

13.—(1) A public or private sale of swine, fat or store, may be held in an Infected Area without a Licence of the Local Authority in any case where the sale is held in accordance with the following conditions (namely):—

- (i.) That the sale is held on a farm or premises not in a Swine Fever Infected Place; and
- (ii.) that no pig on the farm or premises is affected with swine fever; and
- (iii.) that each pig exposed at the sale has been on the farm or premises for a period of not less than twenty-eight clear days immediately before the day on which the sale is held; and
- (iv.) that during that period no pig has been brought on to the farm or premises, and that no pig on the farm or premises has during that period in any way been exposed to the infection of swine fever.

(2) Swine exposed at any sale under this Article shall not be moved out of an Infected Area except as specially authorised by this Order.

Sales of Swine by Licence of Board.

14. Without prejudice to the foregoing Articles and in addition thereto a public or private sale of swine, fat or store, may be held in an Infected Area with a Licence of the Board, which Licence will only be granted where the Board after inquiry are satisfied that exceptional circumstances render such sale necessary or expedient.

Attendance at Sales.

15.—(1) A Veterinary Inspector of the Local Authority shall attend at every public sale, being a market or fair, licensed under this Order.

(2) A fit person, or a sufficient number of fit persons, shall be appointed by the Local Authority to attend at every public sale, being a market or fair, licensed under this Order, for the purpose of granting thereat on behalf of the Local Authority without fee or charge such Movement Licences as are required under this Order.

(3) A fit person appointed by the Local Authority may, if the Local Authority think fit, on the request of the person holding any public sale licensed under or authorised by this Order (other than a market or fair) or any private sale authorised or licensed under this Order, attend thereat, and grant thereat on behalf of the Local Authority such Movement Licences as are required under this Order.

Saving as to Sales of Foreign Animals.

16. Nothing in this Order shall apply to any sale of swine in any Foreign Animals Wharf or Foreign Animals Quarantine Station or Landing Place for foreign animals.

Granting of Movement Licences.

17.—(1) A Local Authority may, if they think fit, withhold a Licence in any case where the movement of the swine proposed to be moved would be in their judgment inexpedient or improper.

(2) No Licence for movement of swine granted under this Order or under any Regulation of a Local Authority under this Order shall be available if granted by the owner of the swine to be moved or by his agent, or by the owner or consignee or other person selling the swine, or exposing the swine for sale, or by the purchaser thereof or by his agent, or by the auctioneer or other person conducting the public or private sale at which the swine are exposed, or by the occupier of the farm or premises or slaughter-house from or to which the swine are to be moved, or by any individual member of an Executive Committee or Sub-Committee of a Local Authority.

Delivery of Certificates and Declarations.

18.—(1) A Movement Licence granted under this Order is not available except when accompanied by the Certificate or by the Declarations or Declaration, if any, on which it is granted.

(2) The person granting such Movement Licence under this Order shall, for the identification of each Certificate or Declaration produced to him, mark the same by signing his name thereon, with the date of the production thereof to him.

(3) The person granting such Movement Licence shall deliver the Certificate and the Declarations or Declaration produced to him, when so marked, with the Licence, to the person receiving the Licence from him.

Production of Licences ; Names and Addresses.

19.—(1) Every person in charge of swine being moved, where under this Order or under any Regulation of a Local Authority under this Order a Movement Licence may be necessary, shall, on demand of a Justice, or of a constable, or of an Inspector or other officer of the Board or of a Local Authority, produce and show to him the Movement Licence, if any, authorising the movement, and shall allow it to be read and a copy of or extract from it to be taken by the person to whom it is produced.

(2) Every person so in charge shall, on demand as aforesaid, give his name and address to the Justice, or constable, or Inspector or other officer.

Provisions as to Regulations of Local Authority.

20.—(1) Every Local Authority shall forthwith send to the Board a copy of every Regulation made by them under this Order.

(2) If the Board are satisfied on inquiry, with respect to any Regulation made by a Local Authority under this Order, that the same is of too restrictive a character, or otherwise objectionable, and direct the revocation thereof, the same shall thereupon cease to operate.

Offences.

21.—(1) If a pig is moved in contravention of this Order, or of any Regulation made by a Local Authority under this Order, or of the conditions of a Movement Licence thereunder, the owner of the pig, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person moving or conveying the pig, and the owner and the charterer and the master of the vessel in which it is moved, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it, knowing it to have been moved in contravention as aforesaid, and the occupier of the place from which the pig is moved, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(2) If a person in charge of a pig being moved, where under this Order, or under any Regulation made by a Local Authority under this Order, a Movement Licence is necessary, on demand made under this Order, fails to give his true name and address, or gives a false name or address, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(3) If a public or private sale of a pig or of swine, fat or store, is held in contravention of this Order or of the conditions of a Licence of a Local Authority or of the Board thereunder, the person holding the sale, and the occupier of the place or farm or premises where the sale is held, and the owner or consignee of each pig exposed thereat, and the person exposing the same thereat, and the auctioneer, if any, or other person conducting the sale, and the person, if any, taking entrance-money or other payment for admission thereto, and the purchaser thereof of any pig, such last-mentioned person or such purchaser knowing the sale to be held in contravention as aforesaid, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(4) If a pig is not marked as required by this Order or by the conditions of a Licence of a Local Authority or of the Board thereunder, the owner, consignee, or other person exposing the same, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the purchaser thereof, and the person holding the sale, and the auctioneer, if any, or other person conducting the sale, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(5) If any person, with a view to unlawfully evade or defeat the operation of this Order, by washing, or in any other manner, takes out, effaces, or obliterates, or attempts to take out, efface, or obliterate, any mark painted on any pig, as required by this Order, or by the conditions of a Licence of a Local Authority or of the Board thereunder, the person doing the same, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the same to be done, and the owner of the pig, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(6) If a pig is not slaughtered as required by this Order, or by any Regulation made by a Local Authority under this Order, or by the conditions of a Licence of a Local Authority or of the Board thereunder, the person to whom the Licence is granted, and the owner of the pig, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person failing to cause the same to be so slaughtered, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(7) If anything is omitted to be done as regards cleansing or disinfection in contravention of this Order, the owner and the lessee and the occupier of any place in or in respect of which the same is omitted, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(8) If any person with a view to unlawfully evade or defeat the operation of this Order or of any Regulation made by a Local Authority under this Order, allows a pig to stray, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

Interpretation.

22. In this Order—

The Board means the Board of Agriculture :

The Act of 1878 means the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878 :

The Order of the Board of Agriculture under which this Licence is issued provides, in effect, as follows:—

The swine must be moved to the place specified in this Licence by the route prescribed in this Licence. The swine after they are received at the specified place must be kept for twenty-eight days under the supervision of the Local Authority and must not be moved from that place until after the expiration of that period.

This Licence is not available if either it, or the second Licence referred to therein, is granted by the owner of the swine to be moved or by his agent, or by the owner or consignee or other person selling the swine, or by the purchaser thereof or by his agent, or by the occupier of the farm or premises or slaughter-house from or to which the swine are to be moved, or by any individual member of an Executive Committee or Sub-Committee of a Local Authority.

This Licence is not available except when accompanied by the Declaration on which it is granted.

The person granting this Licence must, for the identification of the Declaration produced to him, mark the same by signing his name thereon, with the date of the production thereof to him.

The person granting this Licence must deliver the Declaration produced to him, when so marked, with the Licence, to the person receiving the Licence from him.

Caution.—Persons acting without such a Licence where such a Licence is necessary, or acting hereon after the Licence has expired, or counterfeiting, fabricating, or altering, or obtaining or endeavouring to obtain a Licence by means of a false pretence, or granting or issuing a Licence knowing the same to be false in any respect, or committing other offences with respect to Licences, are liable under the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts to fine and imprisonment.

The number and description of the swine inserted in the Licence must be the same as the number and description in the Declaration on which the Licence is granted.

To be printed as Indorsement on Licence C.

The Order of the Board of Agriculture under which this Licence is issued provides, in effect, as follows :

The swine moved under this Licence must while at the licensed market, &c., named in this Licence have been marked by and at the expense of the owner by the painting with an indelible composition of red colour of a broad line down the back and another broad line across the loins of each of the swine thus +, each line being not less than nine inches long.

The swine must be slaughtered at the slaughter-house, pig-sty, or other place specified in this Licence within four days after and exclusive of the day on which the licensed market, &c., named in this Licence was held.

The swine while being moved must, so far as practicable, be kept separate from all other swine.

This Licence is not available if either it, or the second Licence referred to therein, is granted by the owner of the swine to be moved or by his agent, or by the owner or consignee or other person selling the swine, or exposing the swine for sale, or by the purchaser thereof or by his agent, or by the auctioneer or other person conducting the public or private sale at which the swine are exposed, or by the occupier of the farm or premises or slaughter-house from or to which the swine are to be moved, or by any individual member of an Executive Committee or Sub-Committee of a Local Authority.

Caution.—Persons acting without such a Licence where such a Licence is necessary, or acting thereon after the Licence has expired, or counterfeiting, fabricating, or altering, or obtaining or endeavouring to obtain a Licence by means of a false pretence, or granting or issuing a Licence knowing the same to be false in any respect, or committing other offences with respect to Licences, are liable, under the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, to fine and imprisonment.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION,

January 26, 1894.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, viz. :—

SPECIAL REGULATIONS (Supplementary to the General Regulations issued 8th April 1872, and amended by subsequent Notices in the London Gazette) respecting Open Competitive Examinations for Clerkships (Class I.) in the Civil Service.

N.B.—These Regulations are liable to alteration.

1. The limits of age for these situations are 22 and 24, and Candidates must be of the prescribed age on the first day of the Examination.

2. At the Examinations, exercises will be set in the following subjects only, the maximum of marks for each subject being fixed as follows, viz. :—

	Marks.
English Composition (including Précis-writing)	500
History of England—including that of the Laws and Constitution	500
English Language and Literature	500
Language, Literature, and History of Greece	750
Language, Literature, and History of Rome	750
Language, Literature, and History of France	375
Language, Literature, and History of Germany	375
Language, Literature, and History of Italy	375
Mathematics (pure and mixed)	1250
Natural Science: that is (1) Chemistry, including Heat; (2) Electricity and Magnetism; (3) Geology and Mineralogy; (4) Zoology; (5) Botany	1000

* * The total (1000) marks may be obtained by adequate proficiency in any two or more of the five branches of science included under this head.

Moral Sciences: that is, Logic, Mental and Moral Philosophy	500
Jurisprudence	375
Political Economy	375

Candidates will be at liberty to offer themselves for examination in any or all of these subjects. No subjects are obligatory.

No Candidate will be allowed any marks in respect of any subject of examination unless he shall be considered to possess a competent knowledge of that subject.

3. Application for permission to attend one of these Examinations must be made in the writing of the Candidate, at such times and in such manner as may be fixed by the Commissioners.

4. A fee of £6 will be required from every Candidate attending an Examination.

5. Out of the list resulting from each Examination will be filled (provided there be Candidates duly qualified) :—

(a) All the vacancies in Class I. which may have been reported to the Civil Service Commissioners up to the date of the commencement of the Examination;

(b) Such other vacancies (being in the 'New Higher Division of the Playfair Scheme') as the Civil Service Commissioners, with the approval of the Lords of the Treasury, shall estimate as likely to occur before the expiration of six months from the commencement of the Examination;

(c) Any additional vacancies occurring within the same period, which the Head of the Department may desire to have so filled.

Candidates will be allowed to choose, according to their place on the list, among the vacancies (a) for which they are duly qualified; or they may elect to wait for a vacancy (b) or for the chance of a vacancy (c). When vacancies (b) or (c) occur, they will be offered in rotation to the qualified Candidates then on the list, who will be free to decline them without forfeiting their claim to subsequent vacancies (b) or (c).

By the term 'New Higher Division of the Playfair Scheme' in this Regulation are meant situations to be filled under Regulations 'Class I,' with salaries commencing at £100, and rising by annual increments of £12 10s. to £400.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competitive Examination for Clerkships (Class I.) in the Civil Service, will be held in London, under the foregoing Regulations, commencing on the 2nd April 1894.

No person will be admitted to Examination from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 16th March, an application, in the Candidate's own handwriting, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.
