18th July 1894.

UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.

52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 54.

[GLASGOW, NO. 7.—REGULATIONS FOR DEGREES IN MEDICINE, SUPPLEMENTARY TO ORDINANCE NO. 14.]

At Edinburgh, the eighteenth day of July eighteen hundred and ninety-four years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 5, to regulate the management and ordering of the Universities, and the manner and conditions in and under which students shall be admitted thereto, and in particular the course of study and manner of teaching, the manner of examination, and the granting of degrees; and whereas, on the third day of February eighteen hundred and ninety-two years, the Commissioners under the said Act, 1889, issued an Ordinance, entitled No. 14 [Glasgow, No. 1.—Regulations for Degrees in Medicine]; and whereas it is provided by section 7, sub-section 9, of the said Ordinance that candidates for the Degrees of Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery must have attended a course of twenty-five meetings on Practical Pharmacy in a University or recognised School of Medicine, or have dispensed drugs for a period of three months in an Hospital or Dispensary, or in an establishment recognised by the Pharmaceutical Society; and whereas by section 11 of the said Ordinance it is provided that if a candidate for the Degrees of Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery have obtained in a University of the United Kingdom, or other University specially recognised for the purpose by the University Court, a Degree in Science or in Arts, granted in either case after a course of study and an examination in Botany, Zoology, Physics, and Chemistry, he shall be held to have passed his examinations in the said subjects: And the said Ordinance thereafter received the approval of Her Majesty in Council on the fifth day of August eighteen hundred and ninety-two; and whereas doubts have been felt as to the meaning of the expressions 'the Pharmaceutical Society,' and 'an establishment recognised by the Pharmaceutical Society,' in the said section 7, sub-section 9; and whereas it is expedient to amend, explain, and extend the provisions of the said sections; and whereas it is expedient to make further regulations for the graduation as Doctors of Medicine, of those Bachelors of Medicine and Masters of Surgery who graduated under the regulations in force before the fifth day of August eighteen hundred and ninety-two :

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain, with regard to the University of Glasgow, as follows :—

I. The expression 'Pharmaceutical Society,' in section 7, sub-section 9, of the said recited Ordinance, shall mean and include the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain and the Pharmaceutical Society of Ireland.

II. The expression 'an establishment recognised by the Pharmaceutical Society,' in the said section 7, sub-section 9, of the said recited Ordinance, shall mean the establishment of any chemist and druggist or pharmaceutical chemist of Great Britain, or any pharmaceutical chemist of Ireland, who is registered in the Books of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain or of the Pharmaceutical Society of Ireland respectively.

III. If a candidate for the Degrees of Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery have completed in a University of the United Kingdom a course of study and passed an examination in Botany, Zoology, Physics, or Chemistry qualifying for a Degree in Science or in Arts, he shall be held to have passed the examinations prescribed by section 11 of the said recited Ordinance in such subject or subjects.

IV. If a candidate have obtained a Degree in Science or in Arts in any University other than a University of the United Kingdom, granted in either case after a course of study and an examination in Botany, Zoology, Physics, or Chemistry, it shall be in the power of the University Court to exempt such candidate from the examinations in such subject or subjects prescribed by section 11 of the said recited Ordinance; provided that the course of study and the standard of examination in each case are satisfactory in the judgment of the Senatus Academicus.

V. The provisions of section 10 of the said recited Ordinance shall not have effect except where the University Court shall allow their application after a report by the Senatus Academicus, setting forth special grounds therefor in the case of any candidate named in the report.

VI. Bachelors of Medicine and Masters of Surgery of the University of Glasgow, who have graduated under the regulations in force before the fifth day of August eighteen hundred and ninety-two, may proceed to the Degree of Doctor of Medicine under the provisions of section 21 of Ordinance No. 14 [Glasgow, No. 1.—Regulations for Degrees in Medicine], in the same manner as if they held the Degree of Bachelor of Surgery.

VII. This Ordinance shall come into operation from and after the date of its approval by Her Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.
