

The Edinburgh Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1894.

SWINE FEVER (MOVEMENT FROM IRELAND) TEMPORARY ORDER OF 1894.

By the Board of Agriculture.

THE Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Commencement and Duration.

1. This Order shall come into operation on the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and shall cease to operate from and immediately after the thirtieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four; and all Regulations made by a Local Authority under this Order shall be expressed accordingly to terminate not later than at such latter date.

Regulations of Local Authority in Great Britain respecting Movement of Swine from Ireland into their District.

2. Any Local Authority in Great Britain may, with the view of preventing the introduction of swine fever into their District, make such Regulations as they think fit for prohibiting or regulating the movement into their District of swine from Ireland or from any specified part of Ireland.

Regulations not to apply where Swine are moved through District where landed.

3. A Regulation made under this Order by a

Local Authority of any District in Great Britain in which is situate a port or place at which swine are landed from Ireland shall not apply to the movement of swine into the District of the Local Authority from Ireland in any case where the place of destination of the swine is situate in the District of another Local Authority, provided that the swine are moved into and through the District of the first-mentioned Local Authority in accordance with the following conditions:

- (a) When landed the swine shall be moved forthwith by the most direct available route to the nearest available railway station on the line of railway by which the swine are to be moved to their place of destination;
- (b) The swine shall be kept at the said railway station until trucked, and shall then be moved by railway to the place of destination without untrucking; and
- (c) The swine while being moved under this Article shall so far as practicable be kept separate from all swine not being moved under this Article.

As to Movement of Swine by Railway through a District of a Local Authority.

4. For the purposes of any Regulation made by a Local Authority under this Order, swine shall not be deemed to be moved into the District of a Local Authority where they are moved through such District by railway from a place outside such District to another place outside such District without unnecessary delay and without the swine being untrucked or rebooked within such District.

Notice of Regulations to be given.

5.—(1) A Local Authority shall forthwith send