

vested in me in that behalf, do, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, make the following Regulations, that is to say:—

Title.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Post Office Savings Bank Regulations, 1894, and these and 'the Principal Regulations' may be cited as the Post Office Savings Bank Regulations, 1893 and 1894.

Construction.

2. These Regulations shall be read and construed as one with 'the Principal Regulations,' and shall take effect accordingly.

Repeal.

3. Regulation 74 of 'the Principal Regulations' is hereby repealed.

Estate Succession and Legacy Duties.

4.—(1) If the total property of any deceased depositor exceeds £100, after deduction of debts and funeral expenses, any sum which may under these Regulations be paid to a survivor in the account (not being a Trustee) whose name has been added to the account at the request of such deceased depositor, or otherwise than to the legal personal representative of the depositor, shall, notwithstanding such payment, be for the purposes of Estate Duty treated as passing under the will or intestacy of the deceased depositor.

(2) The Postmaster-General shall, before making any payment in respect of deposits standing to the credit of a deceased depositor (either alone or jointly with any other depositors (not being a Trustee) whose name has been added to such account at the request of such deceased depositor), to any one but the legal personal representative of such deceased depositor, require a Declaration by the claimant, or one of the claimants, or by the survivor, or survivors in the account (or other evidence to the Postmaster-General's satisfaction), that the total estate of the deceased depositor, including the amount of such deposits, does not, after deduction of debts and funeral expenses, exceed the value of £100.

(3) In every such case as aforesaid, where the total estate of the deceased depositor, including such deposits, but after deduction of debts and funeral expenses, exceeds £100, the Postmaster-General shall, before making any payment to any survivor in the account, or to any person other than the legal personal representative of the deceased depositor, require production of a certificate from the Commissioners of Inland Revenue of the payment of the Estate Duty, and of a duly stamped receipt for the Succession or Legacy Duty, payable in respect of such deposits, or of a certificate stating that no Succession or Legacy Duty is payable.

Operation of Regulations.

5. These Regulations shall come into operation on the day of the advertisement thereof in the London Gazette, and shall apply to all depositors dying on or after the 2nd day of August 1894.

ARNOLD MORLEY, Postmaster-General.

General Post Office, London,
24th October 1894.
