UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.

52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 67.

[ST. ANDREWS, No. 9.—REGULATIONS FOR YEAMAN AND STUART BURSARY IN ST. MARY'S COLLEGE.]

At Edinburgh, the fourth day of February eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 1, to regulate the foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, and bursaries held by any of the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, or by any person in trust for or on behalf of the same, or for the benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein, which have taken effect for more than twenty-five years previously to the passing of the said Act; and in particular (a) to alter the conditions or directions affecting the same if it shall appear to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor, so far as is consistent with the promotion of such interests, may be better advanced by such alterations; (b) to combine or divide bursaries, and to establish bursary funds; provided that in framing such regulations or making such alterations the Commissioners shall take care not to diminish the advantages provided for poor students by such foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, or bursaries aforesaid: And whereas Mr. Alexander Yeaman, Doctor of Medicine in Dundee, did by testament dated the fourteenth day of December sixteen hundred and sixty-nine, leave, mortify, and in legacy dispoise to and in favour of the New and Old Colleges of St. Andrews in Fife, for the 'special use, behoof, utility, and profit of an Bursar to be yearly sustained, educated, and bred at ilk one of the said Colleges,' the sum of 3000 merks Scots money: And whereas by bond, dated the ninth day of February seventeen hundred and fifty, Colonel Arthur Forbes, in corroboration of the said will of the said Dr. Alexander Yeaman, conveyed to the Principal and Professors of St. Mary's College, St. Andrews, the sum of £1295, 9s. 1d. Scots, with accumulations of interest thereon, for the foundation of a bursary in the said College in terms of the will of the said Dr. Alexander Yeaman: And whereas there is at present in St. Mary's College, St. Andrews, a bursary on the foundation of the Rev. James Stuart, formerly rector of George Town and All Saints, South Carolina, and Chaplain to the King's Rangers in North America: And whereas the value of the two bursaries on the said foundations is now very small, and it appears to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main
