

III. A bursar on the said foundation, who, at the end of the fourth year of his tenure of the said bursary, has failed to pass all the examinations necessary for his admission to the Degree of Master of Arts, shall forfeit the said bursary; and in that event, it shall be lawful for the patron to nominate a candidate, who shall be a Master of Arts, or shall have passed the examinations necessary for his admission to that Degree, and who shall be entering on his course of study in St. Mary's College; failing such nomination by the patron, the bursary shall be awarded by the Senatus Academicus to a candidate qualified as aforesaid, under such conditions as the Senatus Academicus shall prescribe. A bursar nominated under this section shall not hold the bursary for more than four years.

IV. The patronage or right of presenting to two of the said Garth Bursaries shall be vested in and exercised by the Senatus Academicus of the University of St. Andrews, and the patronage or right of presenting to two of the said Garth Bursaries shall be vested in and exercised by the Reverend A. Irvine Robertson and his heirs.

V. No appointment to any of the existing bursaries on the said foundation shall hereafter be made for the same period of tenure as heretofore, but in the event of two of the said existing bursaries not falling vacant at the same time, the patron, whom failing the Senatus Academicus, may select a deserving student to hold the bursary which shall first fall vacant until another of the said bursaries shall have become vacant, or may allow the same to remain vacant and the income to be added to the capital fund of the foundation. So soon as two of the existing bursaries have become vacant, an appointment shall be made by the Senatus Academicus of one bursar who shall receive the stipend above provided; and so soon as the next two existing bursaries have become vacant, an appointment shall be made by the Reverend A. Irvine Robertson or his heirs of one bursar; and so soon as the two last existing bursaries have become vacant, an appointment shall be made by the Senatus Academicus of one bursar, and an appointment shall be made by the Rev. A. Irvine Robertson or his heirs of one bursar; provided that any surplus income that shall arise before this scheme of combination is completed shall be added to the capital fund of the said foundation.

VI. It shall be lawful to present or appoint any persons to the said Garth Bursaries without preference as to name or birth.

VII. The provisions of Ordinance No. 57 [General, No. 19.—Regulations as to Bursaries, Scholarships, and Fellowships] shall apply to the bursaries on the said foundation.

VIII. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date of its approval by Her Majesty in Council; provided that nothing herein contained shall extend to, or affect the interests of any bursar on the said foundation at the date of its coming into force.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.

SCOTTISH UNIVERSITIES COMMISSION.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, have made an Ordinance relating to Regulations for Ramsay Foundation in the University of St. Andrews, and have ordered the same to be laid before both Houses of Parliament, in terms of section 20, sub-section (1), of the said Act.

ROBT. FITZROY BELL, Secretary.

4th February 1895.

UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.

52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 70.

[ST. ANDREWS, No. 12.—REGULATIONS FOR RAMSAY FOUNDATION.]

At Edinburgh, the fourth day of February eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889 (hereinafter referred to as the first-mentioned Act) the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 1, to regulate the foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, and bursaries, held by any of the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, or by any person in trust for or on behalf of the same, or for the benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein, which have taken effect for more than twenty-five years previously to the passing of the said Act; and in particular (a) to alter the conditions or directions affecting the same if it shall appear to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor, so far as is consistent with the promotion of such interests, may be better advanced by such alteration; and by the said section 14, sub-section 16, to repeal or modify any Ordinance made under the provisions of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858: And whereas by deed of mortification, dated the fourth day of June sixteen hundred and eighty-one, Mr. John Ramsay, minister of Markinch, in the county of Fife, mortified his lands of Duniface, in the said parish and county, for the education and entertainment of three youths at School and College in St. Andrews, in the manner and subject to the conditions in the said deed more particularly set forth: And whereas the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858, issued Ordinances numbered 10 and 87, making regulations for the Ramsay Foundation in the University of St. Andrews: And whereas there are now on the said foundation eight bursaries in the patronage of Sir Alexander Ramsay, Baronet, of Balmain, and two scholarships, open to competition, and it appears to the Commissioners under the first-mentioned Act that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor would be better advanced by an alteration of the said regulations, in manner hereinafter provided:

Therefore the Commissioners under the first-mentioned Act statute and ordain, with regard to the said foundation in the University of St. Andrews, as follows:—

I. The two scholarships on the said foundation
