

shall hereafter be conjoined into one scholarship, and the eight bursaries on the said foundation shall hereafter be conjoined into four bursaries.

II. The holder of the said scholarship shall receive one-third of the net annual rents and proceeds of the lands or other property included in the foundation. The remaining two-thirds shall be divided equally among the bursars to be appointed to the said four bursaries.

III. The said scholarship shall be tenable for one year, and no longer.

IV. The said scholarship shall be open only to such candidates as shall have taken the Degree of Master of Arts with Honours in at least one of the groups of subjects prescribed by Section XI. of Ordinance No. 11 [General, No. 6.—Regulations for Degrees in Arts], according to a scheme of rotation to be determined by the Principal and Professors of the United College of St. Salvator and St. Leonard.

V. No student shall be presented to the said scholarship who has not taken the whole of his course, in so far as is required by Ordinance No. 11 [General No. 6.—Regulations for Degrees in Arts], at the said United College.

VI. The said scholarship shall be awarded on the results of the final examination for the Degree of Master of Arts with Honours, in each year, in the said groups of subjects, and in case in any year there is no candidate of sufficient distinction in the group of subjects of that year, according to the aforesaid scheme of rotation, it shall be in the power of the Senatus Academicus to award the scholarship to the most distinguished student in another of the said groups of subjects.

VII. No appointment shall hereafter be made to either of the said existing scholarships for the same period of tenure as heretofore; but, in the event of the said existing scholarships not falling vacant at the same time, the Senatus Academicus may select a deserving student to hold the scholarship which shall first fall vacant during the unexpired period of tenure of the other scholarship; or the University Court may, on the report of the Senatus Academicus, allow the same to remain vacant, and the income to be added to the capital fund of the foundation. As soon as the two existing scholarships shall both have become vacant, an appointment shall be made of one scholar, and no more, to the said scholarship, and so on as often as the said scholarship shall thereafter become vacant.

VIII. A bursar on the said foundation may hereafter hold his bursary for four years in the United College, subject to the provisions of Section II. of the Ordinance mentioned in Section XI. hereof, and for three years in St. Mary's College, and no longer; provided that he give regular attendance on the classes in the said Colleges, and provided that, before entering on his Divinity course in the fourth or fifth year, as the case may be, of his tenure of the said bursary, he shall have obtained the Degree of Master of Arts, or shall have passed all the examinations necessary for his admission to that Degree.

IX. A bursar on the said foundation, who, at the end of the fourth year of his tenure of his bursary, has failed to pass all the examinations necessary for his admission to the Degree of Master of Arts, shall forfeit the said bursary, and in that event it shall be lawful for the patron to nominate a candidate, who shall be a Master of Arts, or shall have passed the examinations necessary for his admission to that Degree, and who shall be entering on his course of study in St. Mary's College; failing such nomination by the patron, the bursary shall be awarded by the Senatus Academicus to a candidate qualified as aforesaid under such conditions as the Senatus Academicus shall prescribe. A bursar nominated under this section shall not hold the bursary for more than three years.

X. No appointment shall hereafter be made to any of the existing bursaries for the same period of tenure as heretofore; but in the event of two of the said existing bursaries not falling vacant at the same time, the patron, whom failing the Senatus Academicus, may select a deserving student to hold the bursary which shall first fall vacant until another of the said bursaries shall have become vacant, or may allow the same to remain vacant, and the income to be added to the capital fund of the foundation. As soon as two of the existing bursaries shall have become vacant an appointment shall be made of one bursar, who shall receive one-sixth of the net revenue of the said foundation as hereinbefore provided; and the like provision shall apply to the remaining six existing bursaries, and to the bursars to be appointed when they have become vacant.

XI. The provisions of Ordinance, No. 57 [General, No. 19.—Regulations as to Bursaries, Scholarships, and Fellowships] shall apply to the scholarship and bursaries on the said foundation.

XII. Ordinances numbered 10 and 87 of the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858, in so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, are hereby repealed.

XIII. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date of its approval by Her Majesty in Council; provided that nothing herein contained shall extend to or affect the interests of any bursar or scholar on the said foundation at the date of its coming into force.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.
