WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 1, to regulate the foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, and bursaries held by any of the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, or by any person in trust for or on behalf of the same, or for the benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein, which have taken effect for more than twenty-five years previously to the passing of the said Act, or if given within less than twenty-five years, are wholly or partially inoperative or dormant; and in particular (a) to alter the conditions or directions affecting the same, if it shall appear to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor, so far as is consistent with the promotion of such interests, may be better advanced by such alteration; and by section 14, sub-section 8, to found new Lectureships where such course seems desirable, and where there are sufficient means for their endowment or support, either from the funds administered by the Commissioners or otherwise, and to determine in what authority the patronage of such Lectureships shall be vested: And whereas by will dated the sixteenth day of July eighteen hundred and sixty-one, and relative codicils, dated respectively the twenty-fourth day of July eighteen hundred and sixty-eight and the fifteenth
