UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.
52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 108.

[ABERDEEN, No. 16.—REGULATIONS FOR BURNET FOUNDATION.]

At Edinburgh, the sixth day of March eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 1, to regulate the foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, and bursaries held by any of the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, or by any person in trust for or on behalf of the same, or for the benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein, which have taken effect for more than twenty-five years previously to the passing of the said Act, or if given within less than twenty-five years, are wholly or partially inoperative or dormant; and in particular (a) to alter the conditions or directions affecting the same, if it shall appear to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of donor, so far as is consistent with the promotion of such interests, may be better advanced by such alteration; (b) to combine or divide bursaries and to establish bursary funds: And whereas there are now in the University of Aberdeen, in the patronage of Sir Thomas Burnett, of Leys, Baronet, four bursaries in the Faculty of Arts, and two bursaries in the Faculty of Divinity on the foundation of the Rev. Gilbert Burnet, Bishop of Salisbury, of date in or about the year seventeen hundred and eleven: And whereas it appears to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor would be better advanced by an alteration of the conditions and directions affecting the said foundation in manner hereinafter provided:

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain, with regard to the said foundation in the University of Aberdeen, as follows:—

I. There shall hereafter be two bursaries in the Faculty of Arts on the said foundation, the holders of which shall annually, during their tenure thereof, receive each the sum of nineteen pounds, and one bursary in the Faculty of Divinity of the annual value of twenty-three pounds; provided that in the event of the income of the said foundation being insufficient in any year to provide the said sums, the stipends of the bursars shall suffer such proportional abatement as the Senatus Academicus may determine, and the said stipends shall in like manner be proportionately augmented in case there shall be any surplus income.

II. No appointment to a bursary on the said foundation in the Faculty of Arts shall hereafter be made for the same period of tenure as heretofore; but in the event of two of the said existing bursaries not falling vacant at the same time, the patron, whom failing the Senatus Academicus, may select a deserving student to hold the bursary which shall first fall vacant during the unexpired period of the tenure of the second bursary, or may allow the same to remain vacant and the income to be added to the capital fund of the foundation. As soon as two of the said existing bursaries in the Faculty of Arts shall have become vacant, an appointment shall be made of one bursar, who shall receive the sum of nineteen pounds as hereinbefore provided, and the like provision shall apply to the remaining two existing bursaries and to the bursar to be appointed, when both of them have become vacant; and as soon as one of the said existing bursaries in the Faculty of Divinity shall have become vacant, the vacancy shall not be filled up, and the sum hitherto paid to the said bursar shall be paid to the remaining bursar in the Faculty of Divinity.

III. The said bursary in the Faculty of Divinity shall be tenable for three years, and no longer. The said bursaries in the Faculty of Arts shall be tenable for four years, and no longer, subject to the provisions of Section II. of the Ordinance mentioned in the immediately succeeding section hereof.

IV. The provisions of Ordinance No. 57 [General, No. 19.—Regulations as to Bursaries, Scholarships, and Fellowships] shall apply to the bursaries on the said foundation.

V. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date of its approval by Her Majesty in Council; provided that nothing herein contained shall prejudice the interests of any bursars in the Faculty of Arts on the said foundation at the date of its coming into effect, and provided also that the tenure of any bursar in the Faculty of Divinity on the said foundation at the date of its coming into effect shall not be affected by Section III. hereof.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.
