UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.
52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 110.

[ABERDEEN, No. 18.—REGULATIONS FOR FINDLAY FOUNDATION.]

At Edinburgh, the sixth day of March eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 1, to regulate the foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, and bursaries held by any of the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, or by any person in trust for or on behalf of the same, or for the benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein, which have taken effect for more than twenty-five years previously to the passing of the said Act, or if given within less than twenty-five years, are wholly or partially inoperative or dormant; and in particular (a) to alter the conditions or directions affecting the same, if it shall appear to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor, so far as is consistent with the promotion of such interests, may be better advanced by such alteration; (b) to combine or divide bursaries, and to establish bursary funds: And whereas there are now in the University of Aberdeen three bursaries in the Faculty of Arts, and thereafter in the Faculty of Divinity or Medicine in the patronage of the Trustees of Colonel Moir, of Scotston, on the foundation of the Reverend Robert Findlay, minister of Clatt, of date in or about the year eighteen hundred and four: And whereas it appears to the Commissioners under the said Act that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor would be better advanced by an alteration of the conditions and directions affecting the said foundation, in manner hereinafter provided:

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain, with regard to the said foundation in the University of Aberdeen, as follows:—

I. There shall hereafter be two bursaries on the said foundation, the holders of which shall annually, during their tenure thereof, each receive one-half of the free income of the said foundation.

II. So soon as one of the said existing bursaries shall have become vacant, the vacancy shall not be filled up, and the whole of the free income of the said foundation shall be paid in equal portions to the two remaining bursars.

III. The said bursaries shall be tenable for four years, and no longer, in the Faculty of Arts, subject to the provisions of Section II. of the Ordinance mentioned in Section VI. hereof, and thereafter for three years, and no longer, either in the Faculty of Divinity or in the Faculty of Medicine as the patrons may determine, and so on as vacancies shall occur; provided the holder gives regular attendance on the classes in the said Faculties.

IV. A bursar on the said foundation, who, at the end of the third year of his tenure of his bursary, has failed to pass all the examinations necessary for admitting him to the degree of Master of Arts, shall forfeit his bursary; and in that event, it shall be lawful for the patrons to nominate a candidate, who shall be a Master of Arts, or shall have passed the examinations necessary for admitting him to that degree, and shall be entering on his course of study in the Faculty of Divinity or in the Faculty of Medicine; failing such nomination by the patrons, the bursary shall be awarded by the Senatus Academicus to a candidate qualified as aforesaid, under such conditions as the Senatus Academicus shall prescribe. A bursar nominated under this section shall not hold the bursary for more than three years.

V. It shall be lawful for the patrons to present to the said bursary without restriction as to name, kindred, or birthplace.

VI. The provisions of Ordinance No. 57 [General, No. 19.—Regulations as to Bursaries, Scholarships, and Fellowships] shall apply to the bursaries hereby instituted.

VII. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date of its approval by Her Majesty in Council; provided that nothing herein contained shall prejudice the interests of any bursars on the said foundation at that date.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.
